ROOSEVELT SHOT

BY CRANK AT MILWAUKEE

The Wound Deep in the Right Breast, and Bullet Not Found—Condition Serious.

Colonel Roosevelt was shot by a fanatic at Milwaukee Monday, and is in a serious condition. He was in an automobile on his way to the auditorium to speak, when the lunatic, whose name is given as John Schrank of New York, rushed out and fired. One of the ex-President's secretaries captured the would-be-assassin. The ball took effect in the Colonel's right breast near the collar bone, but it did not deter him. He went on and spoke, and was then rushed to a hospital. On the first examination of the physicians the wound was thought to be very slight and not serious, but it is now the opinion that Mr. Roosevelt is in a dangerous condition. The wound was deep, the course erratic and the bullet is still there.

The whole country is awaiting news from the sick man with deep anxiety and sympathy. Woodrow Wilson has canceled his speaking appointments against the chief of the Progressives. President Taft gives out a statement of sympathy.

"All remedies and doctors treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruption, piles. 25c at all druggists.

Mr. J. K. Reynolds, Surry county, while attending the Greensboro fair last week, lost his pocket book containing a lot of cash, as well as several valuable notes. The only safe place to keep money is in the bank, and while there it gets bigger every day.

FORTUNES IN FACES.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at all druggists.

Mr. W. L. Hall, a prominent citizen of the Gap section, was here Saturday. Mr. Hall reports that logs are being hauled for the new hotel which Mr. Cicero Tise will build at Vade Mecum, and that work on the concrete dam at that place is progressing.

MOST SERIOUS LOSS

LARGELY ON WALNUT COVE

The Bad Roads of Danbury and Peter's Creek Township Drives Away Trade and Traffic.

Mr. J. B. Martin, of Stuart Route 2, one of the good citizens of Patrick, was here today. Mr. Martin is a large trader on fruits and produce, lumber, cattle and mules. He is quite well known in Stokes, and is known to be straight in his dealings.

Mr. Martin will leave in a few days with a herd of cattle, and a lot of tobacco and apples for market, selling at Spray, Leaksville, and Danville. He says he would much prefer selling at Walnut Cove and Winston, and that hundreds of citizens of his section of Patrick would prefer selling at Walnut Cove and Winston, but for the bad roads which the teams would have to traverse through Stokes.

This morning, Mr. Martin said, a Stokes farmer passed his house going to Stuart after a load of fertilizer. The farmer said he would rather buy from Walnut Cove, but the bad roads of this county were too much for him. Mr. Martin said the amount of trade and traffic which would go to Winston and Walnut Cove would be inestimable, if we had good roads.

Even the farmers of the Lawsonville country are marketing at Stuart, Critz, Stoneville, and Mt. Airy, he said, by hundreds because they did not want to pull over the miserable roads between their houses and the southern part of Stokes, and Forsyth.

Mr. Martin added that the people of Patrick were working their roads by taxation, letting highways out in sections by contract, and that they were much pleased with the work, and that Patrick is far ahead of Stokes in roads.

It is reported at Danbury today that Rufus K. Simmons, of Westfield, has been named as Democratic candidate for Senator from Surry and Stokes, in place of Dr. J. T. Smith, who has declined.

THE COUNTY FAIR

HELD AT KING THIS WEEK

Good Attendance and Fine Exhibits—Will Close Today.

A Telephone message to the Reporter from King today says that the Stokes County Fair, which is being held there this week, is being well patronized, large crowds have been in attendance yesterday and today, however, on account of the weather on Tuesday was not as large as it would have been had it not rained the day before and got the roads so muddy.

The exhibits are said to be good, and there is a large variety of farms products, poultry, cattle, etc. etc.

The Reporter hopes to give a complete list of the prize winners in the next issue.

LILLIE MAY TUCKER.

Danbury Route 1, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Lillie May Tucker, (nee Shelton) died at her home on Pinnacle Route 2, Oct. 2, of that dread disease consumption. She was born March 23, 1883, was married to Luther T. Tucker Oct. 31, 1900, and died Oct. 2, 1912, aged 29 years, 6 months and 8 days. She joined the M. E. church South at Stokesburg at about nine years of age. In Oct. 1908 she was received by experience and baptized into the fellowship of the Primitive Baptist church at Pilot Mt., and was a well loved member and sister in the church until her death. She was a native of Stokes county but most of her married life was spent in Surry county. She was a faithful and affectionate wife, mother and friend. She leaves a husband and four children, one daughter and three sons. Besides a widowed mother, three brothers and sisters to mourn her early death. The greatly bereaved mother, husband and children have our greatest sympathy, and while we so deeply deplore the death of one whom we loved and esteemed so much we know that God doeth all things well and feel that she is safe with the Lord. She remarked in her last hours, "It is so sweet to die."

The funeral services were conducted from Snow Creek church by Elder Dock Key of Pilot Mt., and she was laid to rest in the Snow Creek burying ground in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends.

M. G. S.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by all dealers.

Eugene Forest, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Forest, of Francisco, came down on his bicycle Monday, and spent a short visit.

Dr. J. Walter Neal, chairman of the Stokes County Democratic Executive Committee, visited Danbury today.

PETREE-ANDERSON.

Marriage of Popular Stokes Boy to Attractive Forsyth Girl.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Rural Hall, N. C., when their daughter, Lelia, became the bride of Mr. Harry Petree of Germanton, Rev. J. C. Harmon of Walkertown, officiating.

The parlor was beautifully decorated in green and white. A lovely wreath of ferns and carnations was suspended from the ceiling with white ribbon. A bank of ferns and carnations in the shape of an enormous horse shoe formed the altar.

The couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March rendered by Miss Ruth Payne.

The bride was beautifully dressed in white chiffon over white messaline, carrying a lovely bouquet of white roses.

After many congratulations and good wishes, the guests were invited into the dining room where a delicious breakfast was served.

The color scheme being pink and green, a handsome cut pink glass vase of pink carnations formed the centerpiece.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. R. J. Petree and daughter, Miss Maud of Germanton; Mr. Oscar Petree, of Walnut Cove and Miss Ruth Payne, of Salem College; Misses Addie and Daisy Styers and Mr. Oscar Kiser of Rural Hall.

The happy couple left on the morning train amid showers of rice.

After spending a few days in Northern cities they will return to Germanton, where Mr. Petree holds a position with the L. M. McKinzie Company.

Baz Martin Probably in West Va.

Mr. G. C. Shelton, who was here yesterday, says that the negro Baz Martin, who shot and killed Johns Tatum, near Campbell, recently, is probably in West Virginia. The conductor of the train at Stuart says that a negro with his arm in a sling boarded his train at Stuart the day after the killing, having a ticket for West Virginia. Recently a relative of Baz, whose home is in West Virginia, arrived at Baz's home and is taking care of Baz's crop.

Error Corrected.

In the last issue of the Reporter appeared a notice of the death of Franklin Wicker, in which it was stated that the deceased was the eldest daughter of "Samuel Solomon and Geuina Lawrence." This was a typographical error. It should have read "Solomon and Levina Lawrence."

Mr. Joseph W. Ashby was in town Tuesday.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

ON GERMANTON ROUTE TWO

A Surprise Affair Tendered Mr. Tom Boles—Other News of Germanton Route 2.

Germanton Route 2, Oct. 16.—There is a lot of tobacco being marketed in this neighborhood, and farmers are well pleased with the prices. About all of the 1912 crop has been cut and cured.

Farmers are getting their land ready to sow wheat.

The free school at Red Bank will start Oct. 21 with Miss Blanch Merritt as teacher.

About 100 neighbors and friends gave Mr. Tom Boles a surprise dinner Oct. 13. I never saw a crowd enjoy themselves more. A long table was made ready, then the ladies soon had it loaded with good things to eat, such as crisp fried chicken, beef, ham, cake, pies, pickles, grapes, etc., that would have been pleasing to the eye of a king and palatable to his taste when everything was ready the crowd gathered around the table and returned thanks asking God's richest blessing on this good and noble man. Mr. Boles is a good neighbor, kind to every one, a good christian man and a prosperous farmer.

Rev. J. Tom Smith of Westfield and the Pastor Rev. Burrus closed an 8 days meeting at Red Bank Sunday Oct. 13. The meeting did much good, and there were several who professed faith in Christ and were baptised, and some will join other churches.

Rev. J. Tom Smith is a successful doctor, and one of the best preachers in the Pilot Mt. section. We need more useful men in our land like Dr. Smith, he is a man who makes friends everywhere he goes.

Miss Iris Crumpler, who is taking training at the Twin City hospital, had the pleasure of being at the close of the meeting at her home church Sunday at Red Bank, accompanied by her cousin, Mr. John France.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Charles have the sympathy of the entire community in the death of their babies. One was buried Oct. 6 and the other one was buried Oct. 12. Mr. and Mrs. Charles have buried 4 children, but their loss was Heaven's gain. It is such a pleasant thought for the parents to know there will be so many of their own at Heaven's gate to welcome them in.
