

The WEEK'S DOINGS

New seats have been purchased for the M. E. church here and will be installed about January 1st.

Miss Frances Hamlin returned Monday after a visit of nearly two weeks with home folks at Reidsville.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Slate visited the family of Mr. J. W. Johnson, on Germanton Route 1, Sunday.

Mr. Julius Young left Monday to take charge of the public school at Ore Bank, four miles north of Danbury.

Mrs. J. Spot Taylor spent several days the past week visiting her daughter, Miss Grace Taylor, who is a student at Guilford College.

Mr. Dave Hodgkin, a popular knight of the sample case, was here Thursday. He has been with the Odell Company for a long time, and is a favorite with the Stokes merchants.

Messrs. Lee Smith, Wesley Hall, Monroe Fagg and P. C. Campbell were among the farmers in town yesterday on their way home from the market at Winston. They reported the market very strong, and common grades of tobacco selling a good deal higher.

Mr. John Will Baker, of Meadows Route 1, was in town yesterday. Mr. Baker is not much improved in health, which has been on the decline for a year or more. He says he expects to come over next Tuesday and cast his last vote, but the Reporter assures Mr. Baker that it is possible he may be with us several years yet, and that he may cast several more votes. Mr. Baker thinks Roosevelt will be elected President. Mr. Baker is one of our oldest citizens. He is often distinguished for the originality of his ideas, and for novel positions on public questions and propositions. He has long been a subscriber of this paper, and is one of its friends.

Dr. W. V. McCanless left Monday to visit Winston-Salem.

Mr. Arthur Nelson, of Danbury Route 1, was among the visitors here today.

Mr. Cooper Smith dropped in to leave a dollar for the Reporter today. He was on his way to Winston with tobacco.

Mr. A. J. Holt, of Francisco, a hardworking and honest farmer and a clever gentleman, spent a short while here today.

Misses Mary Martin, Sadie Petree and Annie Blair left Friday to take charge of their respective schools.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fagg spent a day or two at Greenboro this week, visiting Mr. Fagg's farm near the city.

Mr. John G. Morefield, of Vade Mecum, Republican candidate for Register of Deeds, spent Sunday night at the McCanless Hotel.

Mr. J. W. Hall, Republican candidate for the State Senate, is in Surry this week looking after his interests.

Messrs. C. D. and Geo. W. Smith, of Campbell Route 1, were visitors in town today. These are among the best citizens of Snow Creek township.

One of the most striking incidents for a long time occurred here today, when Mr. Alfred Stevenson and John Tillotson were seen standing together in the court house yard in conversation. These are probably the tallest men in the county, being nearly seven feet each.

Mr. W. D. Poor was here today from Sandy Ridge. Mr. Poor is advertising his property and will remove to High Point. He told the Reporter that his chief reason for leaving the county is bad roads. This is a common tale, and it is a certain fact that the loss of citizenry and property to the county year after year resulting from bad roads, is a serious drain upon our resources.

A Few Thoughts for the Thinking Voter!

When the Kitchins Slandered Craig

(Special to The News and Observer.)

Asheville, June 19, 1908.--The Hon. Locke Craig issued the following statement tonight: "Have just been informed that before the primaries held in Nash and Franklin counties, and others, on the day of the primaries, a report was circulated in these counties by the friends of Kitchin that I not only voted for Blaine, but while Bertie county voted the entire Republican ticket and for the negroes on the ticket. This statement is utterly false, and was originated by some slanderer for the purpose of helping Mr. Kitchin, and injuring me. I never in my life voted for any Republican except Blaine, and I never in my life cast a ballot in the county of Bertie, and never under any circumstances voted for a negro.

"I also have information from a gentleman of absolute reliability that Congressman Claude Kitchin stated in the presence of a number of gentlemen last week in Louisburg, Franklin county, a few days prior to the primaries in that county, that he could get an affidavit from a reliable man in Bertie to the effect that I not only voted Blaine, but for the entire Republican ticket, including Congressman O'Hara, I have been further informed that Mr. W. W. Kitchin has intimated in some of his speeches that I voted the Republican ticket in Bertie county.

"If these statements be denied, I can prove my authority. I denounce each and all of such allegations as vile falsehoods, originated by some designing person for the advantage of Mr. Kitchin. Such methods have been freely adopted without hesitation in the desperate attempt to injure me with the Democrats of North Carolina. It is astounding that Democrats would resort to such tactics. I defy either of the Kitchins or any of their supporters to produce any proof of these slanders."

EXHIBIT B.

Why Kitchin Wanted to be Governor.

And Governor Kitchin pleaded for the office of Governor because, as he said, the Tobacco Trust was fighting him because it knew he "would not acquiesce in their iniquities." Well, if Buck Duke had been Governor the Tobacco Trust would not have been troubled less than it has been by our "Trust-busting" Governor.--News and Observer, July 25, 1911.

EXHIBIT C.

A CONFESSION.

Mr. Lockhart then said that he had a confession to make. "Four years ago Mr. Kitchin came to Wadesboro and opened the campaign, and in that speech Mr. Kitchin said, 'Elect me Governor, and I will put the trust officials behind prison bars and in stripes. Mr. Lockhart said: "I believed him. I knew that he had failed to do anything while in Congress; but he had told me that he did not know how, and that if he could be made Governor would be an independent and active Governor. I trusted him and supported him, I spent money for carriages, hired a brass band, paid for the printing of the tickets, and I worked for him. It is true, he offered to repay me; but I wouldn't let him, and told him that I did not want the money; but that I did want him to be a man for the people of North Carolina, and fulfill his promises to the people.

"The first suspicion of Mr. Kitchin came to me when the convention was in Charlotte four years ago, and then it was that Reuben D. Reid of Rockingham county came to me in the Selwyn Hotel and said that he was afraid that we were making a mistake and that Kitchin was in the hands of the American Tobacco Company. His closest friends were the close friends of that big corporation. They were apparently backing him.

STILL BELIEVED

"Still, I believed in Kitchin. Then as the deadlock continued, Mr. Reid came to me again and begged me to withdraw my influence from Mr. Kitchin; but still I believed in him and I still thought he was all right until I, as Senator from Anson county, introduced the bill known as the Lockhart antitrust bill. I was not its author. It was drawn by Reuben D. Reid of Rockingham county. I was told by William Walton Kitchin the people of North Carolina did not want any antitrust legislation, and that the people of Rockingham county had defeated Reuben D. Reid because of his interest in that legislation.

"Mr. Kitchin said to me, 'Go slow; the people don't want anything done.' I went out from his office disgusted and outdone, and my confidence in W. W. Kitchin was gone, and gone forever, and I am opposed to nominating that kind of a man for the exalted office of United States Senator."--Speech of Hon. James A. Lockhart, at Madison, N. C., Oct. 11, 1912.
