R. L. STONE
Stoneville, N. C.

Mr. James H. Mabe, of Meadows Route 1, who is one of the Reporter's good friends, and who is one of the best tobacco growers of the county, spent a short while at the Reporter office Saturday. Mr. Mabe recently sold a load of fine tobacco which averaged him 32 cents, and you bet he was wearing all kinds of broad smiles, and nobody blames him for that, for who wouldn't smile over a 32-cent average.

Mr. Luther Manuell was here today. He has recently made a good average sale of tobacco. Luther is a good farmer. He sold well last year, too.

GERMANTON NEWS.

Herbert Kurfees Breaks His Arm—Items and Personals of Interest.

Germanton, October 28—The Baptist protracted meeting last week was postponed on account of the pastor, Rev. Rufus Crews, being unable to get assistance. Rev. C. C. Haymore, of Mt. Airy, who was to help in the meeting, was not well enough to attend.

We are sorry to note that our young friend Mr. Herbert Kurfees had the misfortune to break his arm while engaged in play on the school grounds. It is getting on very nicely tho' now.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Willis, a son, October 27.

Capt. J. D. Powers, of the Southern Railway Co., is spending the week with his family here.

Mr. J. C. Carson, the Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives, is out on the campaign this week and Mr. Holcomb of Elkin is managing affairs at the station.

Miss Nellie Petree, of Walnut Cove, is teaching the public school at Chaffin's school house. She will board with her cousin Mrs. John W. Kurfees for the present.

Mr. J. N. Styers of Winston spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Styers.

Messrs. Charles R. Helsabeck, Aucus Payne and Dallas Kirby from Rural Hall were visitors in town yesterday.

Miss Janet McNely of Greensboro is the guest of Miss Mary Matthews.

Mrs. E. J. Styers and son, Mr. Nat Styers, left last night for a visit to Mr. J. F. Styers at Winston-Salem.

Miss Corinne Tucker will give a recital Friday evening, Nov. 1. Miss Tucker's recitals are very much enjoyed and the pupils show they are well trained.

Mrs. W. C. Matthews and daughter Miss Mary spent a few days in Winston last week shopping. S. M.

FIRE TUESDAY.

Dwelling Of Eli Nelson On Danbury Route 1 Burned With Contents--$350 Insurance.

Tuesday about 12 o'clock the dwelling of Mr. Eli Nelson on Danbury Route 1, about 5 miles north of Danbury, and practically all its contents were burned. Only a sewing machine and some bed clothing were saved. Mr. Nelson carried $350.00 insurance but his loss is quite heavy. He has the sincere sympathy of many friends in his misfortune.

Mr. Luther McKinney, of Gap, visited Danbury today.

SAVED BY HIS WIFE.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintee, Vt., of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS ITEMS

Mr. J. C. Branson from Route 1 was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mr. Watt Priddy, of Danbury Route 1, was here Friday. Mr. Priddy is administrator of the estate of the late Thos. Priddy.

Mr. A. E. Southern, known by his friends as "Little Alec," spent a short while in town one evening last week. He is a son of Big Alec Southern, and that is enough to make him a good citizen.

Mr. William Martin, of Meadows Route 1, spent a short while at the Reporter office Friday, being in town on business. He called to settle up for the Reporter. Mr. Martin is still quite sore from a fall he had several weeks ago in which two or three ribs were fractured. The Reporter is glad to report now that he is fast getting over the hurt. Recently Mr. Martin averaged about 24 in a tobacco sale.

Mr. T. E. Simmons, of Vade Mecum, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Sam Williams and Mr. Smith, of Campbell, were visitors here Friday.

Mr. J. G. Priddy, a good citizen and farmer of Walnut Cove Route 3, visited Danbury today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Simmons, of Vade Mecum, spent a short while in Danbury Monday. Mr. Simmons is a prominent local minister of the gospel.

The Reporter is running on high pressure now. For weeks the office has been on double time, working night and day, and engine and presses get no rest. We are doing lots of job work for our Republican friends as well as our Democratic friends, while the extra work of printing twelve to sixteen pages of the Reporter, and handling the large number of advertisements, requires close and hard work.
