SAURATOWN BRIDGES

Contract Awarded To Mr. R. R. King, of Danbury, For Their Construction.

TOTAL OF 9 BRIDGES

County Commissioners Hold Regular Monthly Meeting

—Will Meet Again Next Week.

The Board of County Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting here Monday, a full board being in attendance.

The most important business before the commissioners was the awarding of a contract for the construction of nine steel bridges in Sauratown township, to span streams on the new roads being constructed in that township. Mr. R. R. King, of Danbury, was awarded the contract for the construction of all the nine bridges at the price of $9,556.60 for all of them. The contract calls for the completion of all of the bridges by August 1st, 1914.

The question of where to work the prisoners sentenced at last week's term of court was discussed but no action was taken. It will be necessary for the commissioners to meet again next week for the purpose of canvassing the returns from the election to be held in Beaver Island township, and at that time some action will likely be taken in the matter of putting the convicts to work.

Sandy Ridge Route 1.

Sandy Ridge Route 1, Apr. 6. —Quite a crowd attended preaching at Buffalo and Ayersville Sunday.

Farmers are greatly behind with their work. Choppings and barn raisings are all the go around here at present.

Dr. J. H. Ellington is having some surveying done this week.

Quite a crowd visited at Mr. C. D. Duncan's Sunday night.

Prospects for a good wheat crop are promising at present.

There will be preaching at Delta next Sunday at 11 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock.

Mr. J. W. Ward has just returned from a visit to relatives and friends at Francisco.

Quite a crowd attended the funeral services of Mr. Willie O. Carter last Wednesday.

Board of Education Meets.

The County Board of Education met at the court house Monday, members N. A. Martin, S. P. Christian and J. W. Mitchell being present. The only business transacted was the paying of some claims against the board.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Mr. George Brown Weds Miss Della Boyles At the Methodist Parsonage In Danbury.

A surprise marriage was consummated at the Methodist parsonage here this morning at ten o'clock when Mr. Geo. Brown and Miss Della Boyles were happily married by Rev. T. J. Folger.

The contracting parties reside at Walnut Cove, the bride being the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boyles, while the groom is the son of Mr. Will Brown, and holds a position with the Farmers Supply Co.

The bride has been teaching the public school at Hard Bank, her school having expired yesterday.

Etude Music Club

Entertained By Mrs. Slate

Written for the Reporter.

Mrs. W. C. Slate delightfully entertained the Etude Music Club at her home Thursday evening, April 2nd.

The hostess met the guests at the door and conducted them to the rear of the hall where Miss Mary Tilley presided at the punch bowl, and in her charming way served each one with delicious punch.

Edward Greig was the composer studied.

Owing to the absence of several of our members the program was very short.

The secretary being absent, Mr. Chas. R. Hellsbeck was requested to read the minutes of the last meeting after which the following program was rendered:

Reading—"Sketch of Greig," Mr. C. R. Hellsbeck.

Vocal Solo—"Meet Me Tonight 'Mid the Roses," Mrs. L. U. Weston.

Piano Duet—"Alpine Violets," Misses Mary Taylor and Agnes Martin.

Piano Solo—"Twinkle, Twinkle Little Stars," Mrs. R. R. King.

Vocal Solo—"The Moonlight, The Rose and You," Mr. C. R. Hellsbeck.

Piano Solo—"Wedding Day," Greig, Miss Mary Taylor.

Piano Duet—"Under the Mistletoe," Miss Luna Taylor and Mrs. L. U. Weston.

Piano Solo—"The Last Hope," Miss Mary Taylor.

After the program the hostess served delicious refreshments, consisting of ambrosia and cake.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. A. J. Fagg, Friday evening, April 17, 1914.

WALNUT COVE LETTER

Stokes County Warehouse Closes After A Good Season.

GREAT DEAL SICKNESS

Mr. A. W. Davis Returns From St. Louis With Car Of Mules—Other News Of Our County Town.

The Stokes County Warehouse closed here last Saturday, April 4th, and the warehouse proprietors, buyers and all the men connected with the business have returned to their respective homes.

Mr. A. W. Davis, who spent a week or more in St. Louis, has returned, and his car load of stock arrived last week and they are indeed nice looking animals.

The series of meeting that have been in progress at Stokesburg Methodist church will continue through this week. The Presiding Elder held services Monday night.

Reverend Dr. Smith filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night to large congregations.

Ex-Sheriff C. M. Jones and son, Odell, have been real sick for the last few days but are improving at this writing, we are glad to note.

Miss Maybelle Vaughn is very much improved after an attack of lagrippe for several days last week.

Miss Helen Keith spent the week-end with relatives at Winston.

Mrs. Ann Rierson has been ill for the last few days, we are sorry to note, but hope she will soon be entirely well again.

Mr. Watson Joyce and Misses Lillie Joyce and Bessie and Jettie Morefield motored over to Winston and back Sunday in Mr. Joyce's new machine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Derby have returned from Statesville and are spending a few days in town at the Vaughn Hotel. While here he is attending to the good roads during Mr. Platt's absence.

A good number of our people went to Winston Monday night to attend the play, "Rose Maid," and were well pleased with the play.

Mr. L. C. Reingo is in town representing the Townsend Buggy Company of Winston-Salem.

TOLL ROAD TO BE BUILT.

Stock Company Organized and Work To Start Soon On Road From Moore's Springs To Quaker Gap.

Mr. W. G. Moore, proprietor of Moore's Springs, who was here this week, told the Reporter that a stock company had recently been organized for the purpose of constructing a toll road from Moore's Springs to Quaker Gap, a distance of four miles. This is a part of the road from Rural Hall to Moore's Springs. Work on the new road will probably start this week. The company will secure a charter at an early date. Fifteen hundred dollars has already been paid in to begin work with. It is estimated that the road will cost $8,000 to $10,000.

DON'T BE DISFRANCHISED.

It is a disgrace to be disfranchised. Pay your poll tax before May 1, otherwise you cannot vote in the fall election.

R. F. FULK, FARMER

Advises Raising of Supplies At Home, Then Go In For Tobacco—Made One Thousand Bushels of Corn.

The Reporter was glad to have its good friend, Riley F. Fulk, over for a day or two's visit this week. He was a witness at court.

Mr. Fulk owns a fine farm on the Little Yadkin, which he could sell for $15,000 if he wanted to. His broad acres are very productive, being fine for tobacco, corn and wheat. Mr. Fulk is one of those farmers who believes in the gospel of hog and hominy. He has always made a practice of raising his supplies at home. Last year his farm produced a thousand bushels of corn, making an average of 50 bushels per acre, which is probably the best record in the county. Mr. Fulk's tobacco crop netted $2988.00, making a very satisfactory average.

Walnut Cove Route 1.

Walnut Cove Route 1, April 6.—Rev. E. J. Poe will preach at Palmyra church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Rierson is quite ill with pneumonia, we are sorry to know.

Among those that visited at Mr. S. L. Smith's Sunday were Mrs. Carrie Tuttle and children, Mrs. Annie Bowles and children and Misses Pearl Blaylock and Hallie Chapman.

Mr. James Tuttle and family visited at Mr. J. W. Rierson's Saturday night and Sunday.

Those that visited at Mr. Thos. Rutledge's Sunday were Mrs. Fountain Blaylock and children, Mrs. J. W. Fowler and sons, Luther, Willie and Spencer, Mrs. Gaston Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young spent Saturday night at Mr. J. B. Greer's.

Series of Meetings To Be Held In Danbury.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Methodist church in Danbury on the 3rd Sunday in this month, conducted by Rev. Thos. J. Houck, of Sparta.

Brother Houck is one of our strongest preachers. He is deeply spiritual, and knows how to preach to win men to Jesus Christ.

If our people, who know the Lord, will begin now to pray for the success of the meeting, I am confident that we shall have a gracious revival of religion. Let us co-operate with Brother Houck in the salvation of our people.

T. J. FOLGER.

Mr. Alley Blum, of Winston-Salem, is here this week trading horses for Messrs. Smoak & McCreary and J. Spot Taylor.

Report of Committee Appointed to Draft Resolutions Relative to the Death of Hon. Andrew H. Joyce.

State of North Carolina, Stokes county, In the Superior Court, Spring term, 1914.

To Honorable Henry P. Lane, Judge Present and Presiding:

WHEREAS, on the 20th day of March, 1914, in the wise Providence of Almighty God, death claimed Honorable Andrew Hamilton Joyce, who for sixty-four years was an honored member of the Danbury bar; and, whereas, at a meeting of the bar held at the Court House in Danbury, N. C., on the first day of April, 1914, presided over by your Honor, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions respecting the death of Mr. Joyce, and to report the same to this Court on Tuesday of the second day of this term, and in pursuance of their appointment, they most respectfully submit the following:

WHEREAS, in the Providence of Almighty God, it was His will, on the 22nd day of March, 1914, to call from our midst Honorable Andrew H. Joyce, who forty-four years was an able and honored member of the bar; and, whereas, in the death of Mr. Joyce, we realize that the profession has lost an able and honored member, the family and relatives a kind, loving and affectionate husband and father, and the State and county a good and useful citizen:

Now, therefore, be it resolved;

I. That we, and the people of the State, deplore the death of Mr. Joyce, and feel that in his death the profession has lost an able and honored member, the State and county a good and useful citizen, and his relatives and friends a kind, loving and affectionate husband, father, relative and friend, a man without guile, a citizen without enemies, and the friend of all who came to him in need.

II. He was an able and conscientious lawyer, and a man who discharged every private and public duty with fidelity and courage. He was public spirited, and gave to his county and State his best services. He represented Stokes county in the Constitutional Conventions of 1861, 1865 and 1866. He was twice elected solicitor of his district and held other public offices of trust.

As a public officer he was true to every trust confided by the people, and knew no man in the discharge of the duties of his office.

Bitterness and enmity held no place in his honest, noble heart. He loved his people and home nestled in the rock-ribbed mountains which looked down upon him in his daily toil as he delved by day, and slept by night.

For twenty years next preceding his death he was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church of Danbury, and was one of the charter members thereof,

CIVIL TERM OF COURT

Very Light Docket Being Tried This Week.

NEARLY COMPLETED

No Cases Of Very Much Importance Being Heard—Attorneys In Attendance.

The civil spring term of Stokes Superior court convened in Danbury Monday with Judge H. P. Lane, of Reidsville, presiding.

The docket is unusually small and is almost finished at this writing, Wednesday afternoon. It is very probable that the court will adjourn today or tomorrow.

Very few witnesses and spectators are in attendance. It has been almost impossible to secure enough jurors for some of the cases.

Among the attorneys in attendance from a distance are Messrs. J. C. Buxton and E. B. Jones, of Winston-Salem; C. O. McMichael, of Wentworth, and W. R. Badgett, of Pilot Mt.

Cases disposed of up to this hour are as follows:

Z. R. Moran vs. C. S. Taylor and J. T. Neal, judgment for plaintiff for $200.00 and cost.

J. M. Neal vs. Joe W. Cofer, judgment of non suit signed.

L. P. Grogan vs. Wm. Smith et al, verdict and judgment by consent for plaintiff and defendant.

Zilla J. Gann et al vs. W. T. Spencer, judgment for plaintiff signed.

W. O. Fowler vs. J. C. Davis, judgment of non suit signed.

Nelia Cardwell vs. James Martin, judgment for plaintiff of $15.00 and cost.

D. G. Richardson et al vs. Jno. D. Waddill, compromise judgment signed.

S. A. Westmoreland vs. Frank Scott et al, cause dismissed.

Robert Smith vs. F. L. Smoak, judgment of non suit.

Jno. Henry Carter vs. T. B. Knight, judgment of non suit signed.

G. C. Hine vs. Geo. H. Charles, judgment for plaintiff signed.

a regular attendant at church, and lived a christian life.

III.

With respect and love we tender our deepest sympathy to the noble wife of his bosom, who for sixty-three years comforted him, and walked side by side with him to the valley of death. To his relatives we tender our deepest sympathy; to the young men of his county and State, we commend his noble life and character.

IV. We request that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the court, and that the Clerk of this court furnish a copy of the same to the family of the deceased, and also to the Danbury Reporter for publication. Respectfully submitted, April the 7th, 1914.
