Secretary Daniels Would Mobilize the Methodist Army.

Mobilization of a great army of Methodists in one organic union, to include the Northern and Southern division and all branches of the denomination, was advocated by Secretary Daniels in an address at the centennial celebration of the Foundry Methodist church, Washington. Such a union, he said, would have an enrollment of 5,295,864 souls.

"If Methodist were united today," said Mr. Daniels, "they could mobilize an army for righteousness which well might put to flight the evils of our country. All denominations have agreed not to encroach upon each other's missionary territory and yet wot agree at home, Mr. Daniels is a prominent member of the Methodist Church.

Auction Sale.
 On Tuesday, November 17th, 1914, at 10 o'clock, on my farm one mile south of Lunsford's mill, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder two brood mares, three colts, (two of them broke to work) wagon, buggy, wheat and corn drills, mowing machine, shredding machine, some wheat, corn, oats and rough food.

W. L. Smith, King, N. C.

County Supt. of Schools J. T. Smith was here Tuesday from King.

NEWS OF KING.

Death of Mr. Oliver--Man Loses Roll of Bills--Death of Mrs. Wm. Cox.

King, N. C., Oct. 21.—Rev. P. Oliver, aged seventy-six, died at his home near here Friday morning after a lingering illness. He had a stroke of paralysis more than a year ago and had been in failing health ever since. Mr. Oliver was one of Stokes county's wealthiest and most highly respected citizens. He leaves a wife, one son, Mr. Samuel Oliver, and two daughters, Mrs. I. M. Gordon, of Pilot Mountain, and Miss Mary Oliver, who resided with her parents. Mr. Oliver had been a Missionary Baptist minister for more than forty years. In his death this community loses one of its best citizens. He leaves an estate estimated at about $100,000.

Mr. Cicero Newsom went to Lynchburg, Va., Saturday where he will spend several days with friends. Farmers in this section are greatly behind with their wheat sowing owing to the continued rain. A large crop is being sown.

The farmers are very busy stripping and marketing tobacco. Those that have sold seem to be very well pleased with the prices. Mr. L. R. Gravit, who resides near Capella, was in town Saturday. While here he informed your correspondent that he lost a roll of bills containing about $75.00 on the fair grounds here during the Stokes County Fair.

Mr. E. O. Caudle, of Winston-Salem, was here on business Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Cox, aged about thirty-five years, died at her home three miles west of here Thursday after a short illness.

Mr. R. A. Newsom returned Saturday from a business trip to Mt. Airy.

The Stokes Supply Company are preparing to put in an up-to-date fountain in their store here.

Mrs. O. R. Keiger gave a Hallow'en party to the young people of King Friday night. The occasion furnished much enjoyment to all present.

Mr. W. E. Newsom went to Pilot Mountain on business today.

Samuel H. Stewart WALNUT COVE, N. C.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Cox.

King, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Wm. Cox, aged about thirty-five years, died at her home three miles west of here Thursday, after a short illness.

Mr. Thos. S. Petree, cashier of Bank of King, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Mary Martin, who is teaching in the high school at Walnut Cove, and Miss Janie Martin, who is attending school at the same place, spent Sunday at their home here.

Scrubs Fatten Quickly
 You want your pigs to eat as much as possible when you fatten them. Give them a great variety of feed, keep the appetite keen and the digestion in good order, and you will obtain the desired result; especially if you mix with the grain ration a dose of
Bee Dee STOCK MEDICINE
 Whets the appetite—Helps digestion.
 I put some scrubby-looking hogs in the pen to fatten and gave them Bee Dee STOCK MEDICINE in their feed. I soon had fine, healthy-looking hogs, which netted me over 500 pounds.
