TO BE HEARD FRIDAY

Case of Meadows Township Citizens Against Road Commissioners.

SECURING EVIDENCE

Maps Showing Location of Road In Question To Be Submitted By Both Sides—Counsel Employed.

The case of citizens of the eastern section of Meadows township against the highway commissioners of their township, in which an action is brought to compel the highway commissioners to build the much-discussed Blackburn-Meadows road in that township, will be heard in chambers before Judge Devin in Greensboro Friday.

Quite a number of citizens of Meadows township, representing both sides, will go to Greensboro Friday to attend the hearing.

Ex-Judge E. B. Jones, of Winston-Salem, will represent the Meadows citizens, while Ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, of Greensboro, will appear for the highway commissioners.

Both sides have been busy the past week securing affidavits and maps of the township showing the location of the road in question.

If the suit is continued by Judge Devin the case will be tried by jury at the next term of Stokes Superior court here, while if the judge finds that the Meadows citizens have no grounds on which to base their claims on the highway commissioners the matter will be dismissed.

Remember December 1.

Do you want your paper stopped when the time is out?

We believe you do, and so this policy will be adopted in the office of the Danbury Reporter after December 1.

Don't get offended if your paper fails to come after Dec. 1. It will only mean that we are trying to carry out a plain, sensible business plan which has been adopted by every up-to-date newspaper.

It will NOT mean that we are afraid to trust YOU. We have many subscribers on our books who regularly pay up their subscription, while we have many others who do not.

We cannot take the time and trouble and expense of mailing out so many statements. The only business way is for you to send us the money in advance if you want the paper longer, and if you do not want it longer, send us nothing, and the paper will be promptly stopped.

We will thank all our friends and patrons to help us successfully carry out the new modern plan.

Mr. John R. Hill, of Campbell, was in town on business yesterday. Mr. Hill reports that he caught one of the largest grey foxes near his home Monday morning he ever saw.

CONFERENCE IS OVER.

Rev. T. J. Folger, of Danbury Circuit, Goes To Stokesdale--Rev. O. P. Routh Next Pastor Here.

Pastor T. J. Folger, of the Danbury circuit of the M. E. church, returned yesterday from the annual Conference, which was held at Shelby the past week.

Mr. Folger was transferred from this circuit to the Stokesdale circuit by the Conference, while the new preacher assigned to this circuit is Mr. O. P. Routh, who last year served on the Morganton District.

The people of this circuit regret to see Mr. Folger and family go and they will carry with them the best wishes of our people.

The next session of the Conference will be held at Reidsville.

Following are the complete appointments for Mt. Airy District, to which this circuit belongs:

H. C. Sprinkle, Presiding Elder; Ararat, J. W. Combs, supply; Danbury, O. P. Routh; Dobson, J. G. W. Holloway; Elkin, J. P. Hipps; Jonesville, D. A. Oakley, supply; Leaksville, A. L. Aycock; Madison and Stoneville, A. B. Surratt; Mt. Airy Circuit, J. M. Folger; Mt. Airy Station, W. H. Willis; Pilot Mountain, R. L. Doggett; Rural Hall, C. L. Allison; Spray and Draper, J. L. Farrington; Stokesdale, T. J. Folger; Summerfield, T. B. Johnson; Walnut Cove, E. J. Poe; Yadkinville, W. M. Boyd.

TOBACCO MOVING.

Good Breaks On the Markets and Prices Holding Up Well.

Since the tobacco season a few days since, which enabled the farmers to prepare tobacco for market, many loads of the weed have been seen passing through Danbury, and reports from the market yesterday and today are to the effect that large breaks are being experienced. Prices are said to be holding up well and the farmers are returning well pleased with their averages.

Entertainment At Brim's Grove School Nov. 26.

Pinnacle, Nov. 16.—There will be an entertainment at Brim's Grove school house Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26th, beginning at 7 o'clock. The program is as follows:

Thanksgiving Hymn. Play—The Sweet Family. Recitation—The Last Hymn. Play—Nigger Night School. Song—Old Black Joe, banjo accompaniment.

Pantomime—My Faith Looks Up to Thee.

Music by a string band. Admission 15c. The proceeds to be used for the benefit of the school building.

HESTER WALL.

Belgium would feel better about it if she didn't face the possibility of being recaptured by the Allies.—Houston Chronicle.

YADKIN TOWNSHIP

Will Vote Again On Proposition of Issuing Bonds.

FOR GOOD ROADS

Protracted Meeting In Progress At Mt. Olive Church—Other News of King Route 2.

King Route 2, Nov. 16.—Our people are beginning to talk good roads again and the citizens of Yadkin township are preparing to circulate petitions and ask the county commissioners to grant the township an election in order that it may vote again on the proposition of issuing bonds to build good roads in Yadkin. It is learned that a great many of the citizens of the township who opposed a bond issue in the last election are now strongly in favor of one. Some of them have traveled over the good roads in Sauratown, Meadows and Danbury townships and are now frank to admit that they are sorry they voted against bonds in their township. Yadkin is one of the largest and wealthiest townships of the county and can well afford to vote a bond issue for roads. A man who is not in favor of good roads and other improvements in his county and township is a draw back to progress. This is a progressive age. Our township is progressing along nearly all other lines with the exception of roads and they are growing from bad to worse every year, and will continue to grow worse as long as we depend upon the old out-of-date system of working them which we now have. It is expected to get an election on the question in February or March.

A protracted meeting was commenced at Mt. Olive Baptist church Sunday. The meeting will likely continue a week or two as the church has a large field and much work to do. We wish the meeting great success.

Rev. P. Oliver, whose death we noted some days since, is very much missed in our community as well as in his home.

Messrs. C. H. Lunsford and G. W. Smith visited the Winston-Salem tobacco market the past week and report prices very good considering the quality of the grades being sold.

ANNUAL MEETING

For the Election Of New Officers Of the Farmers Union.

SATURDAY, DEC. 12

It Is Hoped To Have Large Attendance and An Enthusiastic Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Farmers Union for Stokes county will be held at the court house in Danbury on Saturday, Dec. 12th, 1914, at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

This meeting is for the purpose of electing new county officers of the Union and for the transaction of any other business that may come before the meeting.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance and that we may have a good, enthusiastic meeting.

JESSE A. LAWSON, President.

TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.

Programs Are Being Sent Out for the Meeting at Charlotte Nov. 25-28.

Raleigh, Nov. 16.—The programs for the thirty-first annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly are being mailed out for the meeting in Charlotte next week from Wednesday, November 25, to Saturday, November 28.

At the offices of the State Department of Education the work has been immense. Fifteen hundred teachers are expected to attend the Charlotte assembly. State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner has called upon every city and county superintendent of schools, every school board of county and city and others in authority to grant to all teachers who may wish to attend the assembly Friday succeeding Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. Joyner declares his belief that the teachers will gain more at this conference than they can get otherwise, and he asks that they be allowed to attend Friday without loss of salary to them. As Charlotte is within easy reach of so many places, the Wednesday night and Thursday sessions can be attended without any loss of time because Thursday is a holiday. The teachers would lose only Friday.

DON'T FORGET.

Beginning December 1, 1914, the cash-in-advance plan will be adopted by the DANBURY REPORTER, and all unpaid subscriptions will be dropped from the list.

This is the policy adopted by a majority of the progressive newspapers of the United States. Our friends will oblige us by helping us carry out the policy. It is best for the paper and best for the subscriber. The expense and labor of collecting small amounts is the reason we take this procedure. Many of our subscribers who have for many years made it a habit to pay up once a year, will confer a favor by not forgetting that this rule will apply to all, and no exceptions will be made in the case of any person.

EMERY A. ROTHROCK

Accepts Position As Assistant Cashier at Bank of Stokes, Walnut Cove.

The Bank of Stokes County at Walnut Cove considers itself fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Emery A. Rothrock, who has accepted the position of Assistant Cashier. Mr. Rothrock is too well known to the people of Stokes county, especially of Walnut Cove and Sauratown township, to need any extended eulogy at the hands of the Reporter. He is one of the county's self-made and successful young men. He is one of the most scientific farmers of the county, and has conducted a model farm near Walnut Cove. He has several times been honored by his friends with positions of public trust. A few years ago he was Treasurer of the Farmers' Union of the county.

With Dick Fulton, Carlos Davis and Emery Rothrock in the Bank of Stokes at Walnut Cove, that well known institution should continue to grow and prosper.

Cotton Exchange Again Opened For Trading

New York, Nov. 16.—The Cotton Exchange opened for unrestricted trading at ten this morning. It had been closed since July 31. The floor was thronged with brokers today. During the first few minutes trading was exceedingly brisk.

BETTERMET ASSOCIATION

Organized By Teachers and Patrons Of Walnut Cove High School.

Walnut Cove, Nov. 16.—Friday afternoon a number of patrons and friends met with the teachers of the Walnut Cove High School and organized a Betterment Association.

The purpose of this organization is to improve the environment of our future citizens by planting trees and flowers on the school grounds. 2. Equipping the class-rooms with maps, globes, blackboards, pictures, etc. 3. Securing a good library. 4. And by finding some way to relieve the over crowded class-rooms and insure individual instructions to every child during the succeeding term.

The monthly meetings of the association will be held at the school house on first Wednesdays at 3 o'clock. Anyone interested in the school and its progress is cordially invited to attend the meetings and become a member of the Association.

Flag Raising At Pine Log School House.

On Thursday, Nov. 26th, there will be a Flag Raising at the Pine Log school house. Also an interesting program will be rendered by the school. Prof. Graves, who is teaching at the King High School, will be present to render an address. Everybody is cordially invited.

MARRIAGE SUNDAY

Mr. Russel Ward and Miss Sudie Duncan the Contracting Parties.

DEATH OF JAS. DODSON

T. D. Martin Seriously Ill—Farmers Sowing More Wheat than Usual—Other News Of Sandy Ridge.

Sandy Ridge Route 1, Nov. 16.—Mr. Russel Ward and Miss Sudie Duncan were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Mr. C. D. Duncan. Rev. J. A. Joyce performed the ceremony. The couple are among the popular young people of the community. We extend congratulations.

Farmers are about through sowing grain in this section and there has been a larger acreage seeded than usual. It seems that the high cost of farm products is learning the farmers to raise their supplies at home and to not depend entirely upon tobacco for a living.

Miss Dora Ward, who has been quite sick for some time, continues quite ill, we are sorry to note.

There was a pea hulling at Mr. J. H. Duncan's Thursday night.

Mr. T. D. Martin, who has been quite low for some time with spinal trouble, is quite ill at present.

Mr. James Dodson, an aged and highly esteemed citizen of this community, passed away at his home near here Tuesday, Nov. 3, with that dreaded disease, consumption. Mr. Dodson is survived by a wife and five children. Interment was made at the Ward cemetery Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 4. Rev. J. A. Joyce conducted the funeral services. The bereaved family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community. We trust our loss is heaven's eternal gain.

Mr. A. J. Hawkins and Miss Agnes Pringle, of Madison, visited relatives at this place Saturday night and Sunday.

EXCELSIOR.

Letter To Our Friends and Subscribers

When you carry your tobacco to market, do you like to get the money on the spot, or wait one, two or three years for it, and sometimes NEVER get it.

The credit policy is a poor policy, and means trouble, loss and sometimes hard feelings.

That is why we propose to adopt the cash in advance plan of subscription.

We think it will suit you better, and we know it will suit us better.

Bishop Randthaler, of Winston-Salem, will preach and also lecture on his experience in Germany during the commencement of the present war at Fulp Moravian church at Fulp next Saturday evening, Nov. 21st, at 7 o'clock. Everybody is invited.
