

The Need of "Basements" Causes Stokes County Farmers Much Loss of Time and Money.

Every farmer in Stokes county who grows tobacco should have a "basement," or a room dug out in the ground, in which he can "order" his leaf tobacco and prepare it for market during long dry seasons. Such a room or basement should have a room erected over it in which to store the tobacco after it has been prepared.

If every farmer had a basement so that he could prepare and market tobacco at any time, instead of waiting for a "season," glutts on the tobacco markets would be a thing of the past. And it is a well known fact that when tobacco is rushed to market in such large quantities and in such "high order" during a tobacco season, the price always drops and the farmer loses. In many cases it is more than likely that a farmer will lose more money on one load of tobacco by selling while the market is glutted than it would cost to build a good basement.

The work of preparing a basement is a very small matter, and only requires two or three days time. Any farmer who wants to can have a good one by the time the next week's issue of this paper reaches him.

What the Farmer Did.

A city man recently visited his "country cousin." The man from the city, wishing to explain the joys of metropolitan life, said: "We have certainly been having some fun the last few days. Thursday we autoed to the country club, and golfed until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." The country cousin was not to be stumped in the least, so he began by telling of some of the pleasures of the simple life: "We have had pretty good times here, too. One day we bugged out to Uncle Ned's and went out to the back lot, where we baseballed all that afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic and poked until morning." A sturdy old farmer who was listening, not to be outdone, took up the conversation at this point and said: "I was having some fun about this time myself. I muled to the cornfield and gee-hawed until sundown. Then I suppered until dark, and piped until 9 o'clock, after which I bedsted until the clock fived, after which I breakfasted until it was time to go muling again."

Gov. Craig Issues Thanksgiving Proclamation

Raleigh, Nov. 12.—Designating Thursday, Nov. 26, as Thanksgiving Day, Governor Craig's proclamation today declares that above all nations America is blessed with the destiny of a republic steadily unfolding in grander revelation. In contrast, he declares that in "countries across the Atlantic is destruction, suffering and sorrow. In Europe, Asia, and Africa fire and sword constitute rule; death and desolation reign in the seats of the fairest civilizations."

The governor calls on the people to realize their obligations as a state and nation and asks that Sunday after Thanksgiving day, November 29, there be taken in the churches a special collection for European war sufferers.

NORTH CAROLINA W. I. N. S. Farmers' Union Annual Meeting

Dispute Over Boundary Line Settled in Favor of This State

Washington, Nov. 9.—The dispute between the States of Tennessee and North Carolina over their boundary was decided today by the Supreme Court in favor of North Carolina. The dispute arose over the exact location of the boundary, as projected in 1821.

Both States claimed forty thousand acres of mountainous timber land near Slick Rock Creek, and for years each State has imposed taxes on the land.

It Really Does Relieve Rheumatism

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house — against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.
