SUPERIOR COURT

Heavy Docket of the Criminal Term Is Rushed Through In Two Days.

CASES DISPOSED OF

Judge Justice Allows Jury To Pass On Only Two Or Three of the Cases Tried—Sidney Love Unable To Attend Court and His Trial Is Postponed—Several Road Sentences.

After disposing of a large docket the fall term of Stokes Superior court for the trial of criminal actions adjourned Tuesday afternoon, having been in session only two days.

Judge M. H. Justice presided at the term, while solicitor John C. Bowers represented the State. While the docket contained a large number of cases there were none of very much importance. The case of Sidney Love, which probably attracted more attention than any on the docket, was continued on account of the fact that the defendant was in a hospital and not able to attend court.

A number of attorneys, other than the Danbury bar, were in attendance, among these being Messrs E. B. Jones, W. R. Johnson and Thomas Kallam, of Winston-Salem; C. O. McMichael, of Reidsville, and G. L. Jarvis, of Walnut Cove. The number of spectators and witnesses in attendance was less than usual.

The civil term of Stokes court begins next Monday and Judge Shaw, of Greensboro, will preside, having exchanged terms with Judge Justice.

The cases disposed of during this week's term of court were as follows:

State vs. Eb Nicholson, affray, fined $5.00 and the cost.

State vs. Will Sisk, retailing, judgment suspended upon the payment of cost.

State vs. Mal Shelton, a. d. w., fined $15.00 and the cost. Cost not yet paid. Defendant in jail.

State vs. J. P. Smith, c. c. w., judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

State vs. John Tillotson, c. c. w., not guilty.

State vs. Ernest Allen, larceny, not guilty.

State vs. George Price, a. d. w., not guilty.

State vs. Virgil Ham and Roscoe Larrimore, slander, fined $50.00 each and cost.

State vs. Percy Harrison and Joe Matthews, a. d. w., judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

State vs. Dixie Williams, retailing, five months on road.

State vs. E. E. Young, false pretense, not guilty.

State vs. Jacob Manns, forcible trespass, judgment suspended upon payment of $2.00 and the cost.

State vs. Phoenix Clinard, larceny, four months in jail, with leave to county commissioners to hire out.

State vs. William Press, retailing, four months on county roads.

State vs. Frank Bullin, retailing wine, $10.00 and cost.

State vs. Bunch, Hairston, retailing, fined $25.00 and cost.

State vs. George Scales, retailing, fined $10.00 and cost.

State vs. Ed Meritt, a. d. w., not guilty.

State vs. Pose Tilley, affray, judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

State vs. Alex Mitchell, assault with intent to commit rape, fifteen years in State prison.

State vs. Luther Manuel, slander, judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

State vs. Percy Morris and Dixie Williams, affray, judgment $10.00 and cost as to Morris, and one month on road as to Williams.

State vs. Tom Tilley, c. c. w., fined $15.00 and cost.

State vs. Silas Hooker, c. c. w., fined $15.00 and cost.

State vs. J. P. Smith, c. c. w., fined $30.00 and cost.

State vs. Moody Hill and Reid Owens, affray, fine of $20.00 and half cost as to Hill, and one half cost as to Owens.

State vs. W. G. Lawson, a. d. w., not guilty.

State vs. W. A. Nelson and Flora Smith, f. and a., not guilty.

State vs. Jim Young, a. d. w., fined $5.00 and cost.

The Reporter is certainly going to give somebody a brand new Ford automobile of the very latest model and it will only take a little work in getting subscriptions to the paper. Don't think you can't get it. Start to work now. You have the same chance as any other to get the machine.

Mr. N. A. Martin sold one barn of tobacco this week for which he averaged nearly $30.00 per hundred.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Handsome Five Passenger Ford Touring Car, 1916 Model, to Be Absolutely Given Away By the Danbury Reporter to Its Most Popular Reader—Contest Begins November 1, 1915, Closes April 30, 1916.

Beginning November 1, 1915, the Danbury Reporter will inaugurate its fifth and greatest popular voting contest by putting up a handsome 1916 Model 5-Passenger Ford Touring Car to be absolutely given away to the most popular reader of the paper.

In this contest the way will be open for all—men, women, boys or girls—the one receiving the biggest vote to get the car, which will be a brand new machine to be delivered by the Ford agents, Fulton & Joyce, at Walnut Cove, on April 30, 1916.

The rules of the contest will be simple—for every $1.00 paid on subscription to the Danbury Reporter, 1,000 votes will be given. No discounts will be allowed to agents.

Now is the chance for you to win a handsome automobile, the cash value of which will be $480.00. Go to work and make your friends help you, and you will win. The Reporter is only $1.00 per year, and everybody should take it. Early work is what counts the biggest in the end. Call on all your friends to help you, write to those living at a distance.

The result of the voting will be published in the Reporter every week. Get your name before your friends now so that they will not promise their support to some other candidate.

This is the biggest contest ever put on by the Reporter, as the prize is the most costly.

Begin today to gather in the votes. No partiality will be shown to anybody. Everybody will stand on the same footing. Nothing will count for votes except paid subscriptions to the Danbury Reporter.

TO THE TEACHERS STOKES GRANDJURY

Supt. of Schools Asks Them To Open the Moonlight Schools.

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Hoped that Every Teacher Will Accept This Opportunity To Help Stamp Out Illiteracy In Old Stokes.

King, N. C., Oct. 26, 1915.

To the Public School Teachers:

I have to remind you that November has been set apart for the Moonlight Schools of the State.

Please get ready to open your moonlight schools on Monday night, November 1st. It will be best to run these schools only three nights in the week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, as the people will not attend so well on Saturday night.

The teachers who board a long distance from the school house ought to have their moonlight schools in the evening just after dismissing the children for the day. Those who board near the

Mr. E. P. Newsum returned this week from a business trip to Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Ida Beard, of Winston-Salem, was here yesterday.

The high school here is progressing nicely with about 175 pupils enrolled.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barr, a son.

Several from this place attended the Stokes court at Danbury this week.

The cotton crop of the present year, though less than last year's crop by 2,000,000 bales, is said to be worth at least $375,000,000 more than the crop of last year. This being true and other crops of unprecedented abundance being harvested and prices ranging high, there should be no reason why this country can not prosper financially during the next year. It is to be hoped that the wage scale will be restored where such has not already been done. And let the Lord's people be sure to "bring all the tithes into the storehouse," that His work may not suffer.—Christian Advocate.

Mr. J. Irving Bolt, of New York, will arrive here today to spend the winter months at the Dodson Hotel.

WALNUT COVE LETTER

Modern Building For Store, Barber Shop and Cafe to Be Erected On Main Street.

BY MR. D. S. WATKINS

First Electric Sign Is Installed—Arbor Day To Be Celebrated By High School—Mrs. W. B. Vaughn Celebrates Her 80th Birthday—Personals.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 27.—The first electric sign ever placed into use here is being operated on the front of the cafe of Redmon & Tilley. The unique little sign is only a beginning of similar arrangements on many progressive business houses on Main street and attracts a great deal of attention. The electric plant, installed a year ago and operated by Messrs. J. Wesley Morefield & Son, is one of the leading improvements here, and while the plant is only in its infancy it has become a great factor in the progress of the town. The very first thing that impresses visitors who spend a night here is the splendid system of lights both on the streets and in the stores and residences.

Arbor Day, Friday, November 5th, will be fittingly celebrated by the high school. Arrangements are being perfected for the planting of many trees on the grounds, while appropriate exercises will be conducted by the school. An unusual amount of work toward beautifying the grounds is being undertaken this year by the splendid corps of teachers in charge and certainly none is more commendable than that of planting trees.

A great many citizens from here attended court at Danbury this week as jurors, witnesses and spectators. Particular interest was manifested in the suit against V. W. Ham and Roscoe Larimore.

Mr. D. S. Watkins has awarded a contract for the erection of a modern brick building on his lot adjoining Fagg & Nelson, which he will rent for a store, cafe and barber shop. Work on the building will begin immediately.

Mr. J. Irving Bolt, of New York, will arrive here today to spend the winter months at the Dodson Hotel.
