David Samuel Duncan.

David Samuel Duncan was born February 12th, 1877, and died March 23, 1916, making his stay here 39 years, 1 month and 11 days.

He was married to Miss Hattie E. Lawson January 6, 1912. To this union were born two children, a boy and a girl. He also leaves an aged and very much afflicted mother, Mrs. Minerva Ann Duncan, to mourn their loss, she having cancer in very bad form.

He was first taken with pneumonia and was not thought to be serious, but complications arose and it seemed that all that doctors, relatives and friends could do, could not stay the hand of death and he didn't live quite two weeks after he was taken sick.

He requested his father-in-law, Mr. Lawson, to take care of his wife and children. He being the only child, and his father having preceded him to the grave, he especially requested that his mother be well cared for the rest of her days.

David was an honorable, upright citizen and is greatly missed, both by the family and neighboring friends.

The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground under the auspices of the Junior Order of Dillard in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends.

A FRIEND.

The Soy Bean Industry.

Farm Extension News.

It is interesting to observe that notwithstanding the wide adaptation of conditions in this country to soy bean growing, twenty million pounds of soy bean oil, worth nine million dollars, were imported into the United States during the year 1915.—It is also interesting to observe that during this same year 5387,867 bushels of soy beans, worth $7,103,000, were imported from the Orient into Great Britain. The latter were paid for at an average price of $1.21 per bushel. Does it not seem highly important for our people to produce enough of these demands, but also to be in position to compete for the European trade if a visible to do so?

Ballots At the Primary.

Raleigh News and Observer.

A ruling of Attorney General T. W. Bickett that registrars in the approaching primary have no right to distribute the official ballots, is being printed for the use of the election officials in the various counties. Attorney General Bickett's opinion reads:

"Replying to your inquiry of this date. I beg to advise that in my opinion the registrar has no right to distribute the official ballot, but must keep them in his possession, subject to his control and the control of the judges of election; until the elector comes up to vote. The elector then states with which he affiliates and is handed the ballots of that party. He can take the ballots and mark them secretly if he desires, and he can call on the judges to assist him, and there is nothing in the law that forbids him calling on any friend of his to assist him in the preparation of the ballot if he so desires."

The South.

The South is a land that has known sorrows; it is a land that has broken the ashen crust and moistened it with tears; a land scarred and riven by the plowshares of war and billowed with the graves of her dead; but a land of legend, a land of song, a land of hallowed and heroic memories.

To that land every drop of my blood, every fibre of my being, every pulsation of my heart, is consecrated for ever. I was born of her womb; I was nurtured at her breast, and when my last hour shall come, I pray God that I may be pillowed upon her bosom and rocked to sleep within her tender and encircling arms.—The late Senator E. W. Carmack, of Tennessee.
