

BROWN'S WAREHOUSE

JOHN T. SIMPSON and JOE H. GLENN, Proprietors.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 15, 1915.

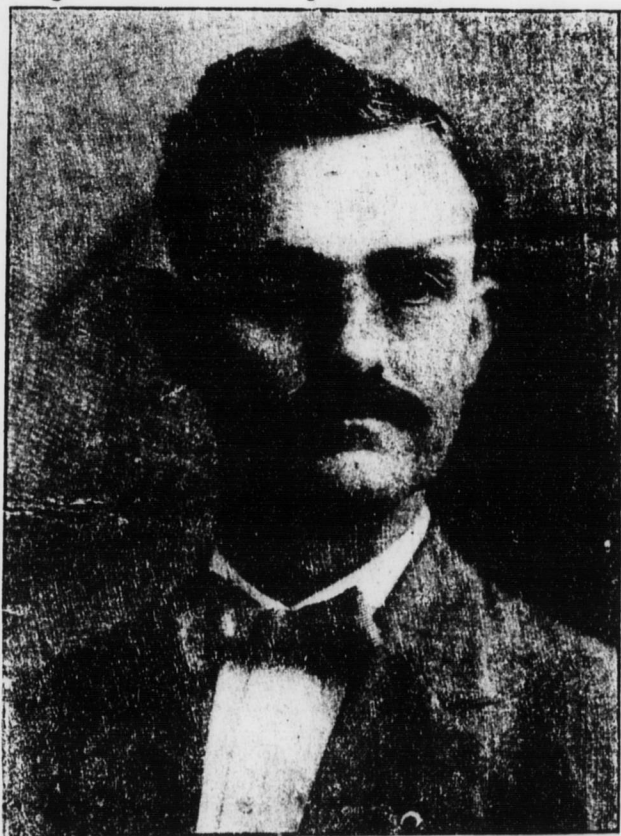

To the Tobacco Farmers:

There is a season now and tobacco sales will doubtless be heavy and we want to assure you that no matter how big the sales are we sell every day whether first or second sales and that we will give your tobacco the same personal attention we give it when we have only a few loads. We know that it takes harder work to sell this crop for the top than it has ever taken to sell any crop before, and we will work harder for you than ever before. We have been averaging from $10.00 to $11.00 per hundred for the last two weeks and have satisfied almost every man who has sold with us. When you get a load ready make up your mind to come to Brown's and then do it. We sell your tobacco for the top. Why take chances by going elsewhere. Hoping to see you soon and with best wishes,

Your friends,

SIMPSON and GLENN

Winston-Salem, North Carolina.
