Blinding
Headaches
"FOR about twenty years," says Mr. P. A. Walker, a well-known citizen of Newburg, Ky., "one of our family remedies has been Black-Draught, the old reliable. . . I use it for colds, biliousness, sour stomach and indigestion. I was subject to headaches when my liver would get out of order. I would have blinding headaches and couldn't stoop about my work, just couldn't go. I used Thedford's
BLACK-DRAUGHT
and it relieved me.
"About eight years ago my wife got down with liver and stomach trouble. . . We tried all week to help her. . . but she didn't get any better.
One day I said to the doctor,
'I believe I will try Black-Draught, it helps my liver.'
He said that I might try it and to follow directions.
She was nauseated and couldn't eat or rest. She began taking Black-Draught and in two days she was greatly improved and in a week she was up."
Try Black-Draught. It costs only one cent a dose. Sold everywhere.

There is no embargo on poultry

Graham recently took up this matter with the New York authorities and found that they contemplated issuing no such embargo.

County Taxes Over
Double State Taxes

County taxes in North Carolina are now more than double our state taxes. Our state taxes are paid by a handful of men and well-to-do people who have productive properties sufficient to yield net incomes beyond $2,000 a year, by producing corporations, some 1,000 in number, and by wage and salary earners with incomes of more than $1,000 if single persons, or more than $2,000 if married. Altogether it is a small group, closely estimated to be a half million people all told. Right around 80 per cent of our state taxes are paid by fewer than 80,000 people out of a population of 2,700, 000. On the other hand, county taxes are property taxes and everybody pays this tax who owns land or has more than $300 of personal effects.
In seventy-two rural counties it is paid almost entirely by the farmers.
It is paid very largely by the public utility companies and manufacturing corporations in the industrial areas of the state, that is to say in twenty-seven counties.

Amazing Differences.
County tax burdens in North Carolina range from $1.47 per inhabitant in Onslow which foots the list, to $15.25 in Durham which heads the list.
County taxes per inhabitant in Durham are almost exactly twice the average for the state; nearly 50 percent more than in Mecklenburg, around 60 percent more than in Guilford, upwards of 90 percent more than in Forsyth, and more than ten times the percentage tax burdens in Onslow.

An Eye-Opener.
The per capita county tax burden in Forsyth is $8.39, in Dare $8.14, and in Graham $8.52. Forsyth is by long odds the richest county in the state, Dare and Hyde are certainly among the very poorest, but it actually costs less upon an average for a taxpayer to live in Forsyth than among the highlanders in Dare or among the highlanders in Graham. It sets a busy to wondering how such a thing can possibly be true.

In Bladen county the average taxpayer carries a county tax burden a good deal less than the average for the state—$6.91 against $7.82; his burden is less than half that of his fellow taxpayer in Durham and not much more than that of his fellow taxpayer in Wake.

The per inhabitant burden of county taxes is greater in Alamance ($10.66) than in ninety-one other counties of the state. And ninety-five counties run their county governments at less expense per inhabitant than Pitt county. On the other hand, a taxpayer can live in Edgecombe at an average per inhabitant tax expense that is less than half the county tax burdens of the seventeen counties that head the list in per capita averages.—University

Co-Operation

Two fool Jackasses say: Get this dope.
We're tied together with a piece or rope.
Said one to the other, "You may come my way.
While I take a nibble at the new mown hay."
"I won't," said the other, "You come with me.
For I, too, have some hay, you see." So they got nowhere, just pawed the dirt.
And, oh, by golly! that rope did hurt.
Then they faced about, these stubborn mules.
And said, "We're just like human fools.
Let's pull together; I'll go your way, Then you come with me, and we'll both eat hay."
Well, they ate their hay, and they liked it, too.
And swore to be comrades, good and
true.
As the sun went down they were heard to bray,
"Ah! This is the end of a perfect day."
Now, get this lesson, don't let it pass;
All men can copy from the poor Jackass.
By pulling together, 'tis the only way.
To put yourself on the map to stay.
