

DANBURY REPORTER

Volume 55.

Danbury, N. C., May 1, 1929.

No. 2, 967

CHOOSING THE SUPERLATIVES

Walnut Cove High School pupils Have Interesting Contest—News Items and Personals.

Walnut Cove, April 30th—Of the many interesting events of the year in the high school here none has surpassed the selection of the superlative types of the high school pupils by a popular vote. In an election held recently the oct conte follows:

1. Prettiest girl—Saxon Voss.
2. Best looking boy—William Sands.
3. Most attractive girl—Grace Woodruff.
4. Most attractive boy—Walter King.
5. Best all-round girl—India Manuel.
6. Best all-round boy—Odell Neal.
7. Most refined girl—Thelma Rothrock.
8. Most refined boy—Odell Neal.
9. Most athletic girl—Grace Woodruff.
10. Most athletic boy—George Martin.
11. Wittiest girl—Nell Fowler.
12. Wittiest boy—Paul Davis Jr.
13. Best student girl—Margaret Turner.
14. Best student boy—Odell Neal.

On Saturday, May 4th, Thelma Rothrock and George Hutchinson will represent Walnut Cove high school in the recitation and declamation contest among high school pupils of the state to be held at Guilford College. Paul Davis Jr. and Thomas Hardy Rothrock will enter the tennis tournament.

Mrs. Anne Carter and little daughter Anne Hollingsworth spent the week-end in Winston-Salem with Mr. and Mrs. William Graves.

L. B. Neal submitted to a tonsil operation in a Winston-Salem hospital Saturday and is recuperating nicely.

Mrs. John Burton and little son John Jr. of Leaksville spent the week-end with Miss Lucy Burton.

Mrs. Donell Van Noppen and baby of Mebane are visiting Mrs. Van Noppens mother, Mrs. J. G. Fulton.

Friends of Mrs. Frank Petree will be glad to know that she is recovering nicely from operation at City Memorial hospital Winston-Salem.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to extend, to our many friends and neighbors, our sincere thanks for their kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and after the death of our beloved father and grandfather, A. T. Edwards. We want to thank them also for the many beautiful floral tributes.

THE FAMILY.

Try a Want Ad in the Reporter

CHANGES AT LAWSONVILLE P. O.

Postmaster Roy Martin Sells His Store and Residence To R. T. Spencer and the Latter Is made Postmaster.

Roy Martin, former postmaster and merchant at Lawsonville, last week sold his store and goods and his residence to R. T. Spencer, of the Lawsonville community, and Mr. Spencer has already been appointed postmaster at Lawsonville to succeed Mr. Martin.

It is expected that Mr. Spencer will remove to his new home at once and take charge of the merchandise business and the postoffice.

Mr. Martin stated that he had not definitely decided upon any plans as to his future residence or business.

Double Marriage Here Saturday

A double marriage occurred here in the Register of Deeds office Saturday when 2 couples accidentally appeared at the same time to buy license. Soon Pastor Ellsworth Hartsfield was found and the ceremonies were performed in the presence of a number of witnesses.

The couples marrying were Herbert A. Howell, of Winston-Salem, and Mary Ethel Shelton, of Walnut Cove, and Lester Mabe, and Polly Nelson of Stokesdale.

On Monday of this week J. M. Mabe and Nellie Southern, of Walnut Cove, were married here by Justice of the Peace James B. Joyce.

License was issued Saturday by Register of Deeds R. N. Browder for the marriage of David James, of Rural Hall, and lem.

Much Interest Shown In Revival Services

The series of revival services being conducted at the new Baptist Church here by Rev. Fred N. Day, of Winston-Salem are still in progress and the attendance and interest has been good since the beginning ten days since. Mr. Day is preaching forceful sermons and they are being greatly enjoyed by the people of Danbury and community and no doubt much good is being accomplished. No definite announcement has been made as to just how long the services will continue.

Baptist Association At Clear Springs

The annual association of the Primitive Baptist for this district will begin at Clear Spring Baptist Church at Meadows on Saturday before the third Sunday in May and continue through Sunday and Monday. A large attendance is expected.

Twenty boys of Randolph county will form a Guernsey calf club and have instructed the county agent to buy heifers for them.

WORK BEGINS ON BALL PARK

Danbury Boys Form Organization For Promotion Of Baseball—First Game With Sandy Ridge Here Saturday.

Danbury baseball enthusiasts started work yesterday on the building of a baseball park just east of town on Dan river. Lumber has been placed and the erection of the fence to enclose the grounds was started yesterday. The site selected is a good one and the boys expect to have good crowds at every game.

The first game of the season is expected Saturday next when Danbury will play Sandy Ridge a 3 o'clock. It is expected to have the grounds enclosed by that time and good attendance is expected.

Ladies Meeting.

Walnut Cove, April 25th—Mrs. Joe Welch was hostess Thursday afternoon to the Nancy Jones Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. The president, Mrs. A. G. Jones presided.

The Bible lesson was taken from Mark 12: 41-44, Luke 7: 36-50, John 12: 3-8.

The topic for discussion was, "Our Women and their Ability." Mrs. Frank Marshall gave a report of the corresponding secretary Mrs. H. A. Dunnun and Mrs. Norman Stone gave an interesting report by Mrs. J. Dota Stutz.

The society has contracted for a lot of excellent furniture polish to sell and all those in need of furniture polish can buy as much as they desire from the ladies of the society in pints, quarts or larger amounts. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Deputy Sheriff Wall Has Operation

Deputy Sheriff Mack Wall, of Beaver Island township, recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Leaksville hospital, and is recovering as rapidly as possible.

Pinnacle News

The Pinnacle high school nine defeated a Perch and Pinnacle team Friday afternoon with the score 6-3. A game had been scheduled with King but was called off.

Wednesday afternoon Pinnacle high school defeated Walnut Cove high school in an exciting game of baseball. At the beginning of the second inning Walnut Cove was two runs ahead, but by the seventh inning the score was tied 7-7. At the end of the ninth inning the score was still tied. But in the tenth inning Pinnacle broke the tie making the score 8-7.

Ten co-operative carlot shipments of sweet potatoes have been made from Granville county this spring.

STILL TAKEN SATURDAY NIGHT

Was On Furnace But Operator Found Monday and Beer Site Found Monday and Beer Poured Out.

Stokes officers say that since the leaves on the trees have come out and it is not so easy to see through the woods the whiskey-makers are starting to work again, and they are getting reports almost every day.

On Saturday night Deputies Cleve Lawson and Corbett Pridley and Constable Rufus Mabe found a still on the furnace a mile or two west of Walnut Cove and several barrels of beer which was about ready to be used. The operators were not around and no arrests have been made.

Just east of Sandy Ridge on Monday of this week, the same officers found a still site and destroyed two barrels of beer. The still was not found.

Pneumonia -Influenza Took 615 Lives in March

Raleigh, April 22—Reports to the state board of health today showed that pneumonia and influenza killed 615 people in North Carolina during March. The total was said to be slightly higher than for the same month last year. Pellagra continued its increasing toll by taking the lives of 57 persons against 35 for March 1928. Twenty-four homicides were listed, and six additional deaths from gunshot wounds of doubtful nature. There were 14 suicides; ten deaths ascribed to accidental gunshot wounds, and ten each from drownings and railway accidents.

Attorney J. A. Tucker Locates In Danbury

Attorney John A. Tucker, of Milton, Caswell county, has located in Danbury for the practice of law. Mr. Tucker arrived here this week and has opened an office over Martin's store. Mr. Tucker is a young man and was granted license for the practice of law at the Aug. 1927 session of the State board of examiners. Mr. Tucker's father was private secretary to the late Gov. Wm. Kitchin while he was a member of congress from this district.

Tobacco Planting Will Begin at Once

A number of farmers in this section state that they expect to plant some tobacco this week or next if weather conditions will permit. Plants are growing rapidly and looking well, as a rule.

A memorial is to be raised to Baron Munchhausen in his native city of Bodenwerder, on the Weser River. It will depict the famous horse that kept on drinking after it had been cut in two.

TOBACCO FACTORY OPENS AT KING

Boy Gets Leg Broken—Mrs. Arthur Briggs Dead—AMarriage—Other King Items.

King, April 29—Mack, the young son of S. A. Westmorland who resides three miles west of town had the misfortune to get his leg broken last Friday. The boy had started to the saw mill with a wagon and team after a load of lumber, he was sitting on the running gear of the wagon with his feet hanging down one foot caught between the brake bar and a stump breaking his leg just above the ankle.

The boy was removed to his home and doctors Stone and Helsabeck were called who set the broken member and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

The Blue Ridge Tobacco Co. whose factory is located on east Main Street has been put in operation. Several hands are employed, mostly girls. Other hands will be added when the factory gets in full swing. They are manufacturing granulated smoking tobacco and are starting out with three brands—Blue Ridge Mixture, Carolina Queen and Yaddin Valley Mixture.

Otis Wade of East Bend who will move his family here later is president and general manager of the new corporation. Mr. Wade has had years of experience in the manufacture of smoking tobacco. The new concern had a number of orders on file when the factory started.

The following births were registered here last week: to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stone a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hall a son and to Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Robertson a daughter.

The remains of Mrs. Arthur Briggs aged about 40 years who died at the City Hospital at Winston-Salem were brought to their home near here Thursday and the funeral service was held at Mount Olive Church Friday afternoon at two o'clock and the service was in charge of Rev. R. J. Barber of King. The deceased is survived by the husband and four children one of which is an infant.

Mr. William Moore of Winston-Salem was among the visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. B. J. Stone is spending several days with her daughters, Mrs. S. O. Schaub and Miss Clodie Stone at H. Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Everett Oates of High Point and formally of King were visitors here Friday.

H. H. Leake cashier of the bank here has returned from Raleigh where he spent several days on business.

Miss Mary Council who is teaching in the high school here spent the week-end with her parents in Mount Airy.

T. S. Petree of Winston-Salem was a visitor here Friday evening.

H. D. Pulliam of High Point spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Pulliam here.

Work on the new home of Brady Delp on Pine Street is nearing completion.

Burford Wall and Miss Margaret Kirby were quietly married Saturday. The marriage took place at Rural Hall with Rev. W. R. Jenkins officiating. The bride is the attractive young daughter of Mr. R. H. Kirby of King while the groom is the promising young son of Mr. J. Right Wall of Forsyth Co. Both the contracting parties are popular and their many friends wish for them a long and happy married life. After a short honeymoon they will be at home on Tobaccoville R. F. D. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kiser of Winston-Salem were week-end visitors here.

O. L. Pulliam of Winston-Sa-

TOWN ELECTION AT WALNUT COVE

Two Tickets In Field For Town Commissioners So Far—J. Frank Dunlap Heads Both For Mayor.

The town of Walnut Cove is preparing to have a municipal election on May 6th and so far there are two tickets in the field for town commissioners. Ex-Sheriff J. Frank Dunlap heads both of these tickets for mayor. The names of those proposed for town commissioners on one ticket are C. J. Helsabeck, Bill Smith, G. W. Neal and E. F. Michael. Those on the other ticket are W. L. Vaughn, J. L. Mitchell, H. H. Davis and J. W. Allen.

It is not believed that there will be great effort put forth in behalf of either ticket as all of the candidates are good men and any of them will make efficient officers.

John M. Taylor's Lake Stocked With Fish

John M. Taylor, of Winston-Salem, who owns a private lake a mile south of Danbury, just off the concrete highway, was in Danbury Tuesday and while here placed another lot of fish in his lake. These were caught in the lake just this side of Greensboro. While here Mr. Taylor also caught a number of fish in the stream just south of here, and these were also placed in his lake. He gave us his opinion that his lake was now fully stocked with fish and those who know how many he has placed in it from time to time certainly agree with him. Mr. Taylor, who is a retired capitalist, takes great interest in his lake and he is getting a most attractive place there, with buildings for camping, cooking, etc.

lem was here Saturday looking after some business matters.

Clyde Mickey of Winston-Salem spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mickey who resides near here.

W. G. Tuttle and family of Rural Hall spent Sunday here the guests of relatives.

The wheat crop which was damaged considerably by the recent cold snap is not looking very promising at present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kirby of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with relatives in Walnut Hills.

Misses Ethel Kirby, Alma Hendricks and Percie Kirby all of Winston-Salem spent the week-end with relatives and friends here.

Farmers in this section have begun to plant corn. About an average crop will be planted.

Paul White of Winston-Salem spent Sunday here the guest of his mother, Mrs. C. F. White.

The woman's Missionary Society of King Baptist Church met with Mrs. Sadie Spainhower at her home on Saturday evening April 28th. A very interesting meeting was held and after the business part of the meeting was over Mrs. Spainhower assisted by her sisters Misses Mildred and Gertrude Carroll served tempting refreshments. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. H. Hauser on May 23rd. All members are especially requested to be present at this meeting.