FARM AGENT FOR COUNTY

Stokes Commissioners Authorize Employment Of Man To Begin Work July 1—Fishing License Order Is Rescinded By Board.

Beginning July 1st, next, Stokes is to have a whole-time farm demonstrator. This was definitely decided upon at the regular meeting of the county commissioners here Monday when the board authorized the payment of half the salary of a competent man. Assurance had been previously given by the State authorities that half the salary of the demonstrator would be paid by the State department of agriculture.

Prof. M. S. Millsapps, head of the farm extension department of the State for this district, appeared before the commissioners Monday and gave the board information in connection with the beginning of the work.

Mr. Millsapps will assist the board in securing a man and in directing the work whenever his services are needed. He has several good men for the place in view but no one has yet been decided upon. It is hoped to secure a man within the next few days to begin work July 1st.

An order made by the county commissioners at their regular meeting here in May, which required persons who fish with pole to buy license, was rescinded, and henceforth license to fish with pole will not be required. Petitions were circulated in the county asking that the commissioners take this action.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

Annual Association Will Be Held July 9th At Mt. Zion Church, Near Pinnacle.

Officers of the Stokes County Sunday School Association announce that the Annual County Sunday School Convention will be held on Tuesday, July 9, with the Mt. Zion Methodist Protestant Church, four miles south west of Pinnacle, N. C. Helping in the Convention will be Miss Flora Davis, Raleigh, General Superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association.

Also helping on the program will be several of the best known Sunday School workers in the county. The convention is interdenominational, and workers from all Sunday Schools in the county are invited to participate in the work.

In charge of the arrangements for the convention are H. R. McPherson and Frank D. Young, President and Secretary of the County Sunday School Association. These officers are requesting the co-operation of all pastors, superintendents and other Sunday School leaders in the effort to make the convention a success.

The officers have announced that again this year a pennant will be awarded to the Sunday School having in the sessions of the nonvention the largest average attendance of representatives, sixteen years of age and over, according to the number of miles traveled. It is expected that there will be much friendly competition for the pennant among the Sunday Schools of the county.

W. SANDERS HART HAS RESIGNED

Chairman Stokes Highway Commission Quits—Democratic Executive Committee Will Name His Successor.

W. Sanders Hart, who has been acting chairman of the Stokes County Highway Commission since the re-organization of the board in February, has tendered his resignation, effective now. Mr. Hart was not in attendance at Monday's regular meeting of the board.

It is learned that Mr. Hart, who is a leading farmer and merchant of Peters Creek township, stated that he was unable to devote the time necessary to the business of the highway commission.

Mr. Hart's successor will be named by the Democratic Executive Committee of the county, according to the law regulating the highway commission. No suggestion as to who the man will be has been heard here.

REVISING THE JURY LIST

County Commissioners In Special Session For That Purpose Today—Requires Much Work.

The revising of the jury list requires considerable time and much tedious work. The county commissioners are in special session today (Wednesday) attending to that duty, which has to be done once every other year.

In revising the jury the tax books in each of the nine townships of the county have to be gone over carefully and compared with the old jury list. Some are dead, others have removed from the county, while still others have become of age and are eligible for jury duty.

Dewey Venable Taken In Forsyth County

Dewey Venable, of this county, was arrested in Forsyth county, on the Rock Hill road, last Sunday, when Forsyth county officers discovered a gallon of whisky on his car. The car was also seized. Venable gave bond for his appearance in court next month.

Simpson-Bachelor

Of interest to Stokes county people is the recent marriage of William Simpson and Miss Hazel Bachelor, which occurred in the Baptist church at Walnut Cove on May 25th. Rev. O. E. Ward performing the ceremony, with only a few friends being present.

The bride is a charming young lady of Nashville, N. C., while the groom is the genial young son of the late John T. Simpson, of Winston-Salem, and a brother of Mrs. John Taylor, of Danbury.

The young couple will make their home in Winston-Salem.

NEWSY LETTER FROM KING

Birthday Dinner For Mrs. Spainhower—Mad dog killed—Aid Society Meets—Repairing Furniture Plant.

King, June 3.—The Ladies Aid Society of the King Christian church met with Mrs. Key McGee Friday with ten members present. One new member was added. The program was opened by the hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," the seventh chapter of Matthew was then read and discussed by Rev. J. T. Saunders, after which followed prayer.

The society then discussed the business they were doing, there being no further business the society adjourned to meet with Mrs. Ernest M. Griffin for the month of June. During the social hour the hostess assisted by Misses Nell Newsum and Onida Caudle served delicious punch, vanilla and chocolate wafers and nuts. Everyone present enjoyed the meeting immensely.
