

Pretty Wedding At Walnut Cove

Walnut Cove, Sept. 7.—The wedding of Miss Kathryn Hutcherson, of Walnut Cove, and Robert Lassiter Young, of Henderson, was solemnized Saturday evening, September 7, at 8 o'clock at the Christ Episcopal Church at Walnut Cove.

The church was beautifully decorated with green and white the predominating colors. The aisle down which the bridal party came was outlined with tulle ribbons with clusters of elements and white asters tied with a bow of tulle at the end of each pew. Huge baskets of white asters and ferns were banked around the altar.

There was a lovely musical program prior to the ceremony with Mrs. Donnell Van Noppen of Mebane, at the organ. The chorister entered singing as the processional "My God, I Thank Thee That Thou Has Made the World So Bright," and O. M. Barnes, of Greensboro, sang "O Perfect Love," and "Father of All Creation."

The wedding party entered to the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin. Miss Elizabeth Sparger, of Baltimore, gowned in yellow, was the first of the bridesmaids to enter, and was followed by Miss Margaret Hutcherson, sister of the bride, wearing pink, and Miss Kathryn Young, sister of the bridegroom, in green. The bridesmaids' gowns were of pastel chiffon and their hats of chiffon were bonnet-fashioned; they carried old-fashioned colonial bouquets. The groomsmen who followed the bridesmaids were John Woodruff, Boyd Height, of Williamston, and Fred Royster, of Henderson.

The maid of honor, Miss Nell Hutcherson, sister of the bride, was lovely in an orchid chiffon gown fashioned like the bridesmaids. Her hat of orchid hair-braid was turned up in front with flowers across the back.

The bride whose beauty was enhanced by her wedding gown, entered and was given in marriage by her father, J. C. Hutcherson.

Her gown was white duchess satin, princess style, with seed pearls and real lace. The veil was lace exquisite creation of Venetian lace and tulle. It was worn cap style with orange blossoms on the side and across the back.

The bride was met at the altar by the bridesgroom attended by his best man, Richard S. Young.

Rev. D. W. Allen, the rector, read the marriage vows, Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as the recessional.

Mrs. Young is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutcherson, of Walnut Cove, formerly of Reidsville, and was educated at Greensboro College for Women. She is known for her charm and talent.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hutcherson entertained at a lovely reception at their home in Walnut Cove. The guests were received by Mrs. A. T. Rothrock and introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Leake Lovin. The receiving line was composed of the wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. Hutcherson, Miss Elsie Young and Mrs. O. M. Barnes, of Greensboro. Mrs. Hutcherson wore a handsome gown of black lace and wore a shoulder corsage of violets.

Mrs. P. W. Davis directed the guests to the bride's book which was presided over by Mrs. C. E. Davis.

Mrs. Anne Fulton Carter received in the dining room, where Mrs. R. A. Hedgecock presided. She was assisted in serving by Misses Hazel and Louise Baker, of Reidsville; Grace Woodruff, Helen Fulton, Thelma Rothrock and Sallie Matt Marshall.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in green and white. The table, covered with a handsome lace, had as a centerpiece a large green bowl of white roses and clematis and tall lighted tapers in green holders with bows of tulle on each side. The refreshments consisted of ices frozen in the shape of wedding bells and slippers, cakes, nuts and mints.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Jacob Fulton.

Miss Hutcherson was entertained the past week by Mrs. Phillip Woodward, of Newport News, Va., at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Woodruff, at a bridge luncheon.

Mrs. Anne Carter and Miss Helen Fulton gave a bridge luncheon on Thursday.

Mrs. Donnell Van Noppen entertained Thursday evening. Messrs. P. W. Davis and George Fulton entertained the wedding party at the home of Mrs. Fulton after the rehearsal on Friday evening.

Chorus Girl, Latest Model

Patsy O'Day

NO BOYISH FIGURE HERE!—Florenz Ziegfeld having set his face against the flat-chested, hipless form as being contrary to any authentic standard of feminine beauty, his crop of 1925 beauties are among the fairest harbingers of the return to the curves of normal feminine curves. Miss O'Day is one of the highlights of the chorus of "Show Girl", the new Ziegfeld show opening on Broadway and hailed by critics as a ring a new mark for musical comedy producers to shoot at.

Party Honoring
September Brides

Walnut Cove, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Joe Zimmerman and Miss Sallie Matt Marshall were the charming joint hostesses at a lovely bridge party recently at the home of Miss Marshall honoring Misses Kathryn Hutcherson and Mary Preston Bynum, September bride-elects.

The lower floor of the Marshall home was thrown ensuite, and beautifully decorated with a profusion of lovely summer flowers.

Seven tables were arranged for bridge and rook and when the afternoon of spirited playing was over, Miss Elizabeth Sparger of Greensboro, was presented with a lovely box of individual bath salts as high score prize. Miss Margaret Hutcherson was consoled for low score with a novelty bridge pad and pencil. Mrs. Howard Woodruff cut the rook prize and was given a pink glass bon-bon dish.

The hostesses presented Miss Hutcherson with a beautiful gold inlaid Mayonaise dish, and to Miss Bynum they gave a pretty pink glass fruit bowl. Mrs. Archie McNeil, a recent bride, was given a pink glass ice tub and tong.

Miss Edith Barker, charming house guest of Miss Marshall, was presented with a lovely pleated georgette evening handkerchief.

The hostesses were assisted by Miss Margaret Marshall in serving delicious refreshments, consisting of frozen fruit salad, saltines, pickles, sandwiches, ice tea, and mints.

Each table had for a centerpiece, a small silver vase filled with orange nasturtimus, further carrying out the color scheme of orange and green used in the decorations and the refreshments.

Enjoying Mrs. Zimmerman and Miss Marshall's hospitality were the charming honorees, Misses Hutcherson and Bynum and Mrs. King Grogan, of Kernersville, Mrs. Tom Preston, of Pine Hall, Miss Elizabeth Sparger, of Greensboro, Mrs. Wade Marshall, of Dennis, and Miss Edith Barker, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mesdames H. H. Davis, C. E. Davis, Paul Davis, Arch McNeil, William Jones, Gilbert Hill, Roy Holland, Howard Woodruff, W. P. Wheeler, George Fulton, Leak Lovin, Jacob Fulton, Ann Carter, Paul Fulton and A. T. Rothrock, and Misses Nann Jones, Nell and Margaret Hutcherson, Nell Chilton, Julia Hairston, and Jimmy Campbell, Walnut Cove.

A German inventor has increased the sound volume of a phonograph by injecting atomized oil and air into the sound box.

"Sneeze gas" in small quantities added to artificial gas will give warning of danger if a gas flame is accidentally put out.

One swallow doesn't make a summer, but sometimes it makes a funeral.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY FAIR

LEAKSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

September 17, 18, 19, 20, 21

Something Doing Day and Night.

The FAIR You Like to Attend.

More Exhibits==More Premium Money.

MORE FREE ACTS

The Grandest Display of Fire Works Ever
Shown in this Part of the Country
Every Night.

Meet Your Friends At The FAIR