

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson Entertain Friends

King, April 2.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Patterson entertained at a delightful party recently in honor of their daughter, Miss Inez Patterson, in honor of her 16th birthday. The home was decorated with lovely ferns and Easter flowers. The color scheme being pink and white. The guests were invited into the dining room where a central decoration for the table was very pretty. A delicious ice course was served to the following named guests: Miss Patterson, the honoree and Misses Pansy and Nellie Covington, Beulah Barr, Myrtle, and Geneva Jones, Lillian Boyles, Myrtle Mabe, Miss Johnson, Nene Patterson, Edith, Mary Lee and Dennis Jones, Maudie and Josephine Slata, Messies Raymond and Clyde Boyles, Boyd Ferguson, Clyde and Norma Bennett, Robert Patterson, Robert Barr, Bill Tuttle, Cate Kiser, Red and Johnnie Slata, Palmer Covington and Carlie Jones.

Revival Services At Stony Ridge Church

On Sunday, March 20th, we closed one of the greatest revivals at Stony Ridge Baptist church we have had in several years with seven additions to the church. We expect others to follow. The church seemed greatly revived and everyone seemed to enjoy the services.

At the close of the meeting the pastor received a real pounding, which consisted of flour, meat, chickens, sugar and various other things, too numerous to mention, for which he was truly thankful. There are some of God's anointed around old Stony Ridge.

May God ever bless and keep these good people in my prayer. J. F. MANUEL, Pastor.

Coming Marriage.

BERNARD WRIGHT

Candidate For the Nomination For

SOLICITOR

In the Primary of the Democratic Party June 7, 1930.

This Is the Twelfth Judicial District and Composed of the Counties Of Stokes, Guilford and Davidson.

The following statement was prepared and paid for by friends of Bernard Wright.

Bernard Wright is a native of Greensboro, North Carolina, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem G. Wright. He received his elementary education in the Greensboro public schools, and at Woodberry Forest School, Virginia. He attended the University of North Carolina, receiving both his academic and legal education at that institution. In 1924, he entered the active practice of law in Greensboro, N. C. Mr. Wright was married in 1925 to Miss Mary Louise Everett, a daughter of the late Honorable W. N. Everett, formerly Secretary of State. Mr. and Mrs. Wright have two children, both boys. Bernard Wright exemplifies the highest type of young manhood. He rings true. He has been faithful in the discharge of his civic, religious, professional and political obligations. He has for several years been a useful member of an active Greensboro civic club; in his church, his worth has been recognized and he enjoys the distinction of being the youngest member of its board of deacons; he is an active member of the Greensboro Bar Association and the Greensboro Barristers Club; and during the past four years he has efficiently served as secretary treasurer of the Democratic party in Guilford County. In brief, Mr. Wright has well demonstrated his sterling qualities of character, stability and personal responsibility which are essential for one aspiring to a position of such high public trust as the office of Solicitor.

BERNARD WRIGHT'S QUALIFICATIONS AS A LAWYER

The opinion of his brother lawyers of the Guilford County bar is an accurate and reliable test of Mr. Wright's qualifications to hold the office of Solicitor. For some time he has been acting Solicitor of the Greensboro Municipal Court. The Democratic lawyers of the Greensboro bar, by a large majority, have unqualifiedly endorsed his candidacy. Included among the large number of lawyers who are supporting him are the following:

- Geo. C. Hampton, Jr. Ben T. Ward James E. Hoge
W. A. Hovatt E. D. Broadhurst Regor W. Harrison
W. C. Boren Fred C. Odell Thos. J. Hill Chas. A. Hines
H. S. Parker, Jr. R. C. Kelly Chas. E. Stroud Andrew Joyner, Jr. Don C. McRae

It is the earnest desire of all good citizens that our laws shall be fairly and courageously enforced. Our Solicitor, heading up as he does the law enforcement machinery of our district, should not only be a good lawyer, but spotless in his personal character and habits. Bernard Wright meets these tests. He is honest, energetic, sober, courageous, just and fair. His character is beyond reproach. He has so lived that he can prosecute all offenders without restraint or embarrassment. In every respect he is worthy of the high and important office to which he aspires.

We, the undersigned, commend Bernard Wright to the Democrats of the Twelfth Judicial District as being worthy in every respect to be one of the standard bearers of the party as its nominee for Solicitor.
