HOW TO OBTAIN THESE PRIZES.

Secure subscriptions to the Danbury Reporter. Get them at home or abroad anywhere. Every yearly subscription at $1.50 counts 5,000 votes. Two years at $3.00 counts 12,500 votes. Three years at $4.50 counts 22,500 votes. Four years at $6.00 counts $30,000 votes. Five years at $7.50 counts 45,000 votes. Ten years at $15.00 counts 125,000 votes.

RULES OF THE CONTEST.

Any white person, lady or gentleman, of good character, living in the United States, may enter this contest.

All subscriptions must be turned in to Circulation Manager of the Danbury Reporter once a week, on Saturday. Blanks and receipt books will be furnished every candidate.

No votes can be allowed for any subscriptions obtained before the start today, though commissions will be paid on the cash collected. All candidates must start on this same footing. No partiality or favoritism will be shown any contestant. No person will be allowed to buy votes, but each bunch of votes must be represented by bona fide cash subscriptions.

Now is the chance for those who have the will to win the handsomest prizes ever offered by this or any other newspaper. Get busy today. Ask your friends and acquaintances to help you. This is an opportunity of a life time. To own one of these handsome prizes without any expenditure of money, but only by steady, determined work—now is your chance. If you are not already in it, get in it. You may be the star candidate. You don't know until you try what you can do or how many loyal friends you have.

At close of contest on May 31st the votes of all candidates will be counted by three competent disinterested citizens and the result declared by them.

See us any time for further particulars.

Mrs. Quincy Moore Passes Away

Mrs. Quincy Moore, wife of Willis Moore, of Snow Creek township, died at her home on Monday morning of this week at the age of 29. The deceased had been ill only a few days, leaving an infant only 3 weeks of age.

The deceased was a most excellent Christian lady and was a faithful member of the M. E. church.

The funeral was conducted from the home and burial was in Oak Ridge church cemetery yesterday. Services were conducted by her pastor Rev. M. Williams and by Rev. Mr. Joyce of the Sandy Ridge community, a large concourse of sorrowing friends being in attendance.

A friend of the deceased has sent this paper the following obituary of the death of Mrs. Moore:

It is with a sad and heavy heart that I attempt to write a few lines on the death of Mrs. Quincy Moore. She was born on March 27, 1921, and was the oldest daughter of Mr. Henry Thomas and Mattie F. Corn. The deceased was ill only about 3 weeks.

All that a loving mother and friends could do was done but a pearly gate was opened wide, and a gentle voice said come. She was only 29 years and 11 days old.

The departed was married to Willis Moore Feb. 23, 1929. He is the son of Gabe and Beulah Moore. She had been a member of Smith's Chapel Methodist church since it was organized a few years ago, always taking an active part in the work of the church and the Sunday school. Her life has been a blessing to all with whom she came in contact and her influence will live through the years.

She leaves a husband, one precious little girl, a father and mother, two sisters and 5 brothers.
