DEMOCRATS WIN IN COUNTY

Democrats Win Stokes Back After Forty Four Years

With Exception of One Republican County Commissioner, All Democrats in Stokes Elected by Majorities Ranging as High as 848 for Taylor, Sheriff

Stokes county was swept completely back into Democratic control Tuesday after being in the hands of the Republicans for 44 years. Every county officer, with the sole exception of Jacob Fulton, Republican commissioner, is now Democratic.

John Taylor, Democrat, is re-elected Sheriff with a majority of 846; J. Watt Tuttle, Democrat, is elected Clerk of the Superior Court with a majority of 166; Pinnix Bailey, Democrat, is elected Register of Deeds with a majority of 196. J. A. Joyce and F. P. Stone, Democrats, are elected county commissioners. Jacob, Fulton, Republican, is re-elected county commissioner. H. H. Leake, Democrat, wins over Slate for the lower house of the legislature. John H. Folger, Democrat, is elected to the State Senate from Stokes and Surry by a majority of 2,900. His majority in Stokes was over 400.

Bailey for U. S. Senate carries Stokes by a small majority. J. D. Humphreys is elected Judge by a majority of more than 125,000. His majority in Stokes is 613. Hancock for Congress and Younce for Solicitor both carry Stokes by good majorities.

The result in Stokes was a great surprise to almost everybody. Taylor's and Tuttle's election was generally expected, but few people imagined an upheaval reversing the heavy Republican majorities of two years ago, when Hoover carried the county by about 1800.

On account of labor troubles this issue of the Reporter is effected under great difficulties. Next week it is hoped to print a complete tabulated vote of all candidates at each precinct in the county.

Democratic Landslide Gives Bailey Over 120,000 Majority

Most Decisive Victory of Twenty Five Years, Republican Strongholds for Three Decades Having Lost All. Defeat Without Parallel

Charlotte, Nov. 5.—With delayed returns emphasizing the Democratic landslide in yesterday's election Josiah W. Bailey's majority over Representative George M. Pritchard, the Republican candidate, was over 120,000 on the face of incomplete and unofficial returns tabulated here tonight late.

With 1,312 precincts reporting out of the State's 1,811 precincts the vote stood: Bailey, 262,805; Pritchard, 142,268 giving Bailey a majority of 120,512 over Pritchard.

Raleigh, Nov. 5.—Orphaned by yesterday's nation-wide debacle, eight Republicans, six in the house and two in the Senate, will be the representatives of the party which in 1928 carried the State on the presidential ticket.

These figures are furnished by State Democratic Chairman Odus M. Mull, who directed the campaign and checked all the returns before giving out the statement tonight.

Asheville, Nov. 5.—Buncombe county has returned to the Democratic fold from which it departed in 1928 for the first time in 30 years. Complete unofficial returns tonight showed that every Democratic candidate had been elected.

North Carolina Elects All Democratic Congressmen

Hancock Is Easy Winner—Bulwinkle in the Ninth and Weaver in the Tenth Both Win—Jonas and Jackson, Their Opponents, Snowed Under

North Carolina will again have a solid delegation in Congress.

Representative Charles A. Jonas, Republican, the only Republican nominee for Congress who was conceded a chance to win, was badly beaten in the ninth district by former Representative A. L. Bulwinkle.

Former Representative Zebulon Weaver, who was retired from the 10th district in the Republican landslide two years since, was re-elected Tuesday over Brownlow Jackson.

"Farmer Bob" Doughton, the veteran from the Eighth district, was never in danger of being beaten, but he goes in again by greatly increased majority.

Walter Lambeth, of Thomasville, candidate for the long term and Hinton James, of Laurinburg, candidate for the short term, both Democrats, were both elected by large majorities in the Seventh district.

Frank Hancock, of Oxford, was an easy winner in the 5th district for the unexpired term of the late Major Stedman and for the long term.

SOCIAL AFFAIR AT WALNUT COVE

Mesdams George Fulton and William Jones Entertain Delightfully At Country Place of Mrs. Fulton.

Walnut Cove, Nov. 5.—Mesdames George Fulton and William Jones were charming hostesses on Thursday evening when they entertained at the attractive new country home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fulton near town on the Madison road. The Hallowe'en season gave the inspiration for the decorations of quantities of autumn branches in their colorful hues, lovely chrysanthemums, pumpkin all forming a very beautiful and effective setting for nine tables of bridge and additional tables for set back.

Mrs. John Lewellyn served delicious punch from a bowl in an inviting nook at the entrance then each guest received a merry-making Hallowe'en favor. Tallies directing to the bridge tables were suggestive of Hallowe'en. After several progressions, Mrs. E.D. Matthews, of Winston-Salem, received a double deck of cards for scoring highest among the ladies. Gentlemen's high score prize, a carton of cigarettes, went to Mr. Julian Vaughn, of Winston-Salem, while Mrs. Paul Fulton received an ash tray as consolation.

At the refreshment hour a tempting and elaborate buffet supper was served from a table having as a centerpiece a bowl of luscious fruit.

About fifty guests enjoyed the delightful occasion.

DRY MAJORITY YET IN CONGRESS

Eighteenth Amendment Apparently Safe, Though Several States Sent Wet Recruits In Tuesday's Election.

According to the Associated Press Tuesday's election produced accretions to the Senate wet group from Ohio, Massachusetts, Illinois and Rhode Island, and at least one dry gain—from Iowa.

Many prominent dries were returned to the Senate, too, and the big arid majority in that body is expected to be continued.

The preponderant prohibition majority in the House also was cut. But while the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment was claiming big net gains in both Houses, the Anti-Saloon League pointed out that the wets still were far below the necessary two-thirds majority needed to submit a repeal amendment to the States.

Community Singing.

At Walnut Cove Baptist church next Sunday at one o'clock, P. M., there will be a community singing, led by Mr. Morris, of Forsyth county. Prominent singers from several counties will be present. Some fine music is expected and the public is cordially invited to attend the singing.

Marigold Rollins, 11, is the first girl to be appointed a page in the Texas legislature, and is detailed to serve the women members.

GEO. A. YOUNCE WINS IN ELECTION

His Majority Is Around 6,000 Over J. W. Hall In the Three Counties Of This District.

Greensboro, Nov. 5.—George A. Younce, Democratic candidate for Solicitor, in the 12th judicial district, won over his opponent John W. Hall by probably 6,000 majority or more, according to incomplete returns received here.

Forty three of Guilford's 48 precincts gave Younce 11,681 to 8,066 for Hall, his Republican opponent. It was said that Younce's majority in Davidson would be about 1,900 and in Stokes about 500.

Ladies Have Interesting Meeting

Walnut Cove, Nov. 3.—Mrs. N. P. Stone and Mrs. A. G. Jones were joint hostesses on Tuesday afternoon to Nancy Jones Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. Jones in Stokesburg. The president, Mrs. Jones, presided, and roll call was as usual responded to with a Bible quotation. Hymn No. 37, "More Love To Thee," was sung. Devotional—the Golden Rule, Matt. 7, 1-12 and Luke 6, 31-42. Questions on missions conducted by Mrs. Jones. Eight reasons for joining the Missionary Society, Mrs. J. L. Welch. The Home As a School of International Brotherhood, Mrs. H. H. Davis and Mrs. H. R. McPherson.

The society was glad to welcome two new members, Mrs. L. H. Floyd and Mrs. L. Welch. Mrs. Stone, assisted by Miss

FRANK HANCOCK IS STRONG WINNER

Majority Was Apparently Over 20,000, With Many Precincts Not Reporting.

Greensboro, Nov. 5.—Frank Hancock, of Oxford, Democratic candidate for Congress from the 5th district, yesterday continued to increase his majority over John F. Reynolds of Wentworth, his Republican opponent for Congress, as returns from the election trickled in.

According to the tabulations last night, Hancock had a majority of approximately 12,000 with only 134 of the 225 precincts to be reported.

However, figures compiled by the Daily News from other sources indicated that the Democratic majority would likely reach 20,000 or more.

John H. Folger, of Mt. Airy, newly elected State Senator, was a visitor here Wednesday.

The Woman's Union Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. H. M. Joyce with good attendance. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. G. Pe-tree.

The cafe here which has for some time been operated by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Pyrtle, is today being vacated by them. It is stated that it will be reopened within a few days, but no definite announcement as to who the new proprietor would be.

Nannie Jones, served a delicious salad course.

The society will meet in November with Mrs. P. W. Davis.

Walnut Cove Has Big Chicken Hatchery

Walnut Cove, Nov. 5.—The Trevathan Hatchery here has just installed a new 5,000 egg section to their Jamsway Incubator Hatcher, bringing the total capacity of the hatchery to 11,000 eggs. They will buy eggs from the Stokes county poultrymen during the winter and spring. Only pure bred eggs will be received.

Edisons experiments in producing rubber from goldenrod are being watched with interest by the scientific and industrial world.
