Stokes Will Be In Drought Area

Stokes county will be eligible to receive a proportionate part of the money appropriated by Congress for drouth relief, according to a letter received by County Agent J. E. Trevathan from Director of Extension, I. O. Schaub, Raleigh, N. C. It is understood that the County Agent will be the key man for working out the details for the administration of the funds in the county. It is understood that there will be a County Committee to administer the funds and that a local committee will be appointed in each community. The appointments will probably be made by the county agent with the aid of leading citizens in the various communities.

Recommendations For County Committee.

J. R. Forest, Francisco, N. C., E. W. Carroll, Route 1, Germanton, and Paul Fulton, of Walnut Cove, have been recommended by County Agent J. E. Trevathan to administer the funds in Stokes County. These recommendations are made subject to approval. Mr. Paul Fulton is already actively engaged in an effort to get as much of the appropriation as possible for Stokes county. He is being assisted by several other public spirited citizens of Stokes county and Winston-Salem.

Public Meeting Called At Danbury.

In order to hear from the people themselves regarding the selection of local committeemen to make recommendations for loans under the federal act, there will be a meeting in Danbury Monday, January 5th, at 10 A. M., to which all public spirited citizens and leading business men and farmers are especially invited to attend. Every community in Stokes county that has been affected by the drouth should be represented at this meeting. It is probable that the various local committeemen will be chosen or recommended at that meeting.

Gaston Tuttle Loses Home By Fire

About six o'clock Wednesday morning the residence of Gaston Tuttle, located about 7 miles west of Walnut Cove, was destroyed by fire which caught on the roof from the chimney. Mr. Tuttle arose about 5 o'clock and built a fire in the fire place and went to feed his stock. As he returned to the house he discovered the roof in a blaze and was unable to extinguish it. Two of the children sleeping on the second floor came near being burned. The building was a 2-story, 6-room frame structure. Some insurance was carried on the building but not enough to cover the loss.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY
Fulton Motor Company

On and after January 1, 1931, our shop and parts department goes on a

CASH BASIS

We have not made this decision without giving it study from every angle. We are not like the average merchant. Everything we buy comes Bill of Lading attached, our mechanics and helpers are paid every Saturday. Everything going into a repair job costs us money in advance. Due to this new policy we are going to give a cash discount of 10 PER CENT on all labor, accessories, oils and greases, tires and tubes. This saving is deducted from your bill when you get it.

You will be surprised how cheap you can have your model A or model T Ford repaired and how cheap you can buy a set of Goodyear tires. This new policy does not affect our usual terms on new and used automobiles. We will continue to give liberal terms on cars to responsible people.
