Portrait in Platinum

JEAN HARLOW

NOT the most unfortunate of young ladies is Miss Jean Harlow, she of the platinum top, sterling silver personality, and solid gold movie contract. There is no brass in Miss Harlow's makeup. Slim and dainty, she takes life with a quiet zest, and begins each shining day with a cup of fragrant coffee, as shown in the above diagram. In the trunk space usually reserved by traveling actresses for spangles and sequins, Miss Harlow packs aprons and house dresses, and when she stops at hotels they are apartment hotels with kitchens where she can putter in the pantry. She likes to cook, and it is estimated there are 4,877,888 young men who would like her to cook for them. This is considered to be impossible by Miss Harlow and her mother and father, who travel with her. She particularly likes to make her own coffee because she likes her own coffee.

UNABLE TO WALK WITHOUT HELP

Now perfectly well after simple home treatment

All the way from Ireland, J. McKenna of St. Patrick's House, Kilmainham, Dublin, sends this report of a remarkably quick and complete recovery from an acute attack of sciatica. "I was very bad with sciatica in my hips and legs and was unable to walk without assistance," he writes. "I took a friend's advice and got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, and am now perfectly well."
