Stokes County Young People's Conference

The officers and leaders of Stokes County Young People's Conference just held a meeting in order to plan their annual Young People's Conference in King. The meeting will be held in the King Baptist church. There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions, the evening which will be a banquet session will be held in the King high school building.

Rev. Shuford Peeler and Miss Edith Krider, who are general secretary of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, and Director of Young People's Work respectively, were present at the meeting. The following people were elected to serve as officers:

- General chairman, Roland Carroll.
- Secretary, Bater Hall.
- County Director, Jessie Johnson.
- Registration chairman, Obern Johnson.
- Publicity chairman, T. G. New, Jr.
- Banquet chairman, Rebecca Helsbeck.

Registrars were appointed for the different churches in King and throughout the entire county and quotas assigned to each church. It is hoped to have at least 100 young people present at the conference this year. The principal of the High School has agreed to release from school any pupil who has registered for the conference. A small registration fee will be charged to cover expenses and banquet fees. The program will be of much interest to the different churches, it includes music, a playlet, addresses by ministers and young people, discussion groups led by confident leaders, and a special stunt feature for the banquet. The banquet session will close with a candle-lighting service. Watch for further announcements of other features of the sessions. The meetings are open to members of all denominations upon payment of registration fee.

Stokes Farm News

(S. J. Kirby.)

The adjustment of the tobacco contract acreage figures for Stokes is nearly completed. More than ninety per cent. of the growers have accepted cuts to make this possible. When the other ten per cent. sign the adjusted contracts, checks for rental payments will begin to arrive for distribution among co-operation growers. Every effort is being put forth to complete this work by the first of April in order that Stokes farmers may receive their rental checks.

Production Credit.

Stokes farmers can now file applications for production loans. There are two classes of these loans. There has been some confusion as to which loan producers should attempt to get. The details governing this has been worked out and it is possible to give prospective borrowers definite information on these loans.

Production Credit Loans.

Farmers owning land or possessing collateral in such forms as feed, work stock, cattle, or farm equipment and wishing loans of more than $50.00 should apply for a loan with the Production Credit Association of the Winston-Salem District which comprises Stokes, Davie and Davidson, and Forsyth counties. Applications for these loans may be made out in Danbury through the County Agents office. Money secured from this source may be used for any part of production work on the farm, such as purchase of seeds, fertilizer, stock, feeds, fence, labor, etc. These loans are for farmers who are either land owners or tenants, who have collateral and wish over $50.00 each.

Seed and Fertilizer Loans.

The old Seed and Fertilizer Loan is available again this year as an emergency loan to farmers who do not have collateral, but do have a reputation for paying their debts. Applications for these loans may be made either in Walnut Cove, King, or Danbury. If the borrower is applying for $50.00 or more, he must first make his application with the Production Credit Association. If this application is turned down he is then given a certificate which entitles him to borrow up to $150.00 from the Emergency Seed and Fertilizer Loan.

It is important that everyone requiring a loan with which to finance farm operations this year should file his application at an early date. The indications are that these loans will be granted and the money will be available within three to four weeks after the application has been filed.

New Tobacco Contracts accepted This Week.

Stokes County Tobacco Growers who have not signed acreage reduction contracts will be given the opportunity to co-operate in this movement this week. Any grower wishing to sign a contract may call upon his township committeeman and sign in the acreage reduction plan this week or up until April 1st, according to announcements appearing in the daily papers of the State. This will be the last opportunity offered to tobacco growers to share the benefits offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.
