A Treat From Victorian Days

By Jane Rogers

TAKE a tip from the vogue for the customs of our Victorian forebearers. When the children clamor for "something to eat" in mid-afternoon give them that good, old-fashioned delicacy a piece of bread and butter liberally sprinkled with brown sugar. It's economical, chock full of energy, and the children will greet it with cheers just as their grandparents used to in the days when Victoria was queen.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER DEED OF TRUST

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust executed to me on the 22 day of January, 1926, by N. E. Preston and wife Vassie Preston, which is recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds of Stokes County, N. C., in Book 76, page 34, to which reference is hereunto made to secure the payment of the sum of $545.00 therein recited default having been made in the payment of said debt at maturity, and the holder thereof having applied to me to foreclose the trust deed for the satisfaction of said debt secured by same, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court house door of Stokes County, N. C., on at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., the lands conveyed in the trust deed to-wit:

Adjoining the lands of W. J. Fulk, R. J. Knight and others and bounded as follows: Beginning in the center of the Hollow road in the Martin line, runs North 47 degrees East 3 chains and 50 links to a rock, thence North 60 degrees East still on with the Mustin line, 5 chains and 50 links to a rock in W. J. Fulk's line, thence South on Fulk's line 91 links to a rock, thence South 50 degrees East still with Fulk's line, one chain and 38 links to a rock, thence South 45 degrees West 7 chains and 50 links to a rock in the center of said Hollow road, in Mustin line, thence North 50 degrees West with said road 4 chains to the beginning, containing 2 1/2 acres more or less. Being the same tract of land conveyed by deed from J. R. Forrest and wife to N. E. Preston, to which reference is hereunto made. See also deed from P. L. Culler and wife to J. R. Forrest, recorded in the Register's office of Stokes County, N. C., in Book No. 61, page 197 for same tract and boundary of land.

This September 18, 1934.

J. W. HALL, Trustee.
