Listen, Mr. Merchant

No man built into himself alone. Neither can any business live to itself alone. Publicity pumps the red blood corpuscles into the arteries of trade. Any merchant who does not believe in this proposition is headed to wither his publicity and watch his establishment grow pale with age and die.

REAL ESTATE MOVING AT KING

SEVERAL LOTS SOLD, AND NEW DWELLING TO BE BUILT—A. & Y. STATION BURGULARIZED — WEEK'S LIST OF NEW BABIES

King, Oct. 3—The Fidelity class of King Baptist Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Slate for the regular monthly meeting. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Sallie Hoen. Mrs. Dorothy Boyce conducted the devotional. During the business session the class discussed plans to increase the enrollment. Mrs. C. O. Boyce Jr., Miss Edith Brown and Theodore Newsom were appointed to write or make a personal visit to all absentees. After the program the class was led to a tobacco barn where chicken, steak, corn and coffee were served to approximately thirty members and visitors. The supper was greatly enjoyed by every one present.

C. Ross Newsom, who resides in North Side celebrated his eightieth birthday Sunday. A number of close relatives were present to enjoy the occasion.

The following real estate transfers were made here last week: S. W. Pulliam to Dr. Grady E. Stone lot on West Main Street, S. W. Pulliam to Mrs. Minnie Boyce a lot on Main Street on which the purchaser will erect a new home in the near future. Mr. Pulliam also deeded a lot to the King Moravian Church adjoining the Church lot which will be used for parking purposes.

Herman Newsom has accepted a position with the Piedmont Hardware Company. He entered on his new duties Monday morning.

Unknown thieves broke into the Atlantic and Yadkin railway station Wednesday night and carried off a typewriter and adding machine belonging to the agent, Mr. O. L. Rains.

A new addition is being built to the Slate Feed Store on Main street. The growing business of this concern has made larger quarters necessary.

A series of meetings began at the Moraavian Church Sunday night. The services which are in charge of Rev. C. O. Weber of Fair View Church will be continued each night throughout the week.

The King Tigers defeated Walnut Cove in a game at Pinnacle Friday. Final score 4 and 3.

Eugene Lawson member of the Civilian Conservation Corps camp at Franklin in the western part of the state is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Lawson.

Miss Virginia Edwards, of Pinnacle, was among the visitors here Saturday.

The following births were registered here last week, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pyrtle, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Porter Tuttle, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Gray Ham, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Ikey Fulp a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Silas Lane, a daughter and to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kiger, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holder, of Winston-Salem, were weekend visitors to relatives here.
