Jones Nelson Purchases New Combination-Car

Jones Nelson, manager of the Nelson Burial Association, returned Sunday from Piqua, Ohio, where he purchased a new combination-ambulance car.

Those who wish to take a trip in this car will find it an elegant, noiseless machine that will make your last ride comfortable. It glides along swiftly, but soft and silent as a shadow, with motor purring almost indistinctly and if there are any jars you may look for them at your destination—not in this product of motor car perfection.

TOBACCO CROP IS WELL SOLD

JOHN TAYLOR SHOULD BE KEPT IN AS LONG AS HE CAN WIN — THIS IS THE VIEW OF KING CORRESPONDENT.

King, November 25.

More than three-fourths of the tobacco crop is sold in this section, and people are looking forward to signing up 100 per cent. for reduction. They are well pleased with what Franklin D. Roosevelt has done for them.

A good wheat crop has been sowed, and now everybody is fixing to slaughter porkers for Thanksgiving and Christmas. There is more hog and hominy in Yadkin township than has been the case for many years.

Well, the election is over, and several of our citizens are expecting to go to Danbury to see the officers sworn in for another year. I see that John Taylor is elected again with the largest majority as usual. Our Republican friends made a powerful fight against him, and a few sore Democrats. I say keep John Taylor in. He has showed he can beat them every time. The Democratic party will be a fool to swap off a good horse. Keep him in for life time as long as he can win. I don't care if a few sore Democrats are dissatisfied. And we expect the Republicans to want to get him out. Keep him in as long as he can beat the Republicans and hold the party together like nobody else can. I say, hurrah for our Sheriff who can beat them every time.

CLOD KNOCKER.
