

HOT POLITICS OUT OF RALEIGH

EDUCATION — Many gentlemen from the length and breadth of North Carolina are taking temporary residence in Raleigh this week and will leave the Capital City two, three or four months later much wiser men. An unusually large number of new members make up this session of the General Assembly and many of these always come with ideas for remaking the laws to correct all difficulties of living in the State. Almost without exception these hopefuls leave for their homes at the end of the session wiser but sadder men. But despite failure of adoption of their proposals the Old Ship of State goes sailing on, and on, and on.

LIQUOR AND JAILS — Word is leaking into Raleigh that federal agents operating in the border-towns of Virginia are going to join forces with North Carolina Officers in breaking up some of the Tar Heel parties staged with "Virginia Liquor." According to well-grounded rumor the federal sleuths will keep eyes peeled on North Carolina cars parked around Virginia liquor stores. When the machines leave the federal boys will telephone their license numbers to arms of the law in this State. Watching the highways the Tar Heel Officers expect to nab more than a few machines and their drivers and seize the contraband. Sounds reasonable, at any rate.

TURNING POINT — All eyes will be upon two men as this session of the Legislature progresses. Upon the success or failure of Governor Eshelby and Lieutenant Governor A. H. Chandler Graham with the voters depends a great deal of North Carolina's political history. Friends of the Lieutenant Governor say he will run for the gubernatorial nomination in 1934 if he comes through the session with flying colors. From circles close to the present gubernatorial throne comes word that Mr. Ehringhaus may be persuaded to attempt to unhorse Senator Josiah Bailey next spring if he has good luck with the General Assembly.

NO SKIRMISH — Everything is all set for a major legislative battle over diversion of highway funds before the 1935 Legislature is very old. Capus M. Waynick newly-appointed Chairman of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, has his forces lined up to protect the highway fund from various and sundry raiding parties but if the enemy combines forces in common cause there may be serious trouble. It will take money to repair roads now in bad shape because of the limit of spending set by the 1933 Legislature. It will take money to increase the Highway Patrol and enforce a driver's license law. But other State interests wish to take motorists' taxes to pay their bills.

DECISIONS — Political wise boys, now gathered in Raleigh from all over the State are expecting Clyde R. Hoey, Shelby silver-tonguer, and Congressman R. L. Doughton to make announcements of their intention as touching the gubernatorial race before the blue birds fly again. Both these political big-shots have told friends that they expected to reach conclusions "after the first of the year." That day has come and gone and a great silence hangs over Shelby and Sparta, North Carolina. "But it won't be long now," say friends and supporters of both potential gubernatorial candidates.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL — Forces that would like to dethrone Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt are busy hunting for a triple-threat to run against the Granville man if he seeks reelection. That is just what he is expected to do unless he decides to run for Governor or listen to those who would send him gunning for Senator Bailey. Some of the friends of Lieutenant Governor Graham would pit him against Mr. Brummitt and up from Craven County has come word that former State Senator Larry I. Moore may decide that he wants to be Attorney General. Meantime, Mr. Brummitt remains silent on his own plans although he fires occasional broadsides of the actions of others.

LONG RANGE — Not even the General in the field of opposition to the State's general sales tax (you've seen their names in print) privately expect the levy to be repealed at this session of the General Assembly. They'll tell you so, off the record. But they are busy laying the ground work of a campaign in 1937. Only angle of attack may be an attempt at revision of the State's entire tax structure and writing into the law a graduated consumption tax that would work like an income tax to increase and lift the "High Heel" state in the center of that particular (that state). But that doesn't mean that lawyers will not be fired at the sales tax this session.

BOYS, GET THE MONEY — This General Assembly is going to have its financial headaches outside the sales tax. Public sentiment is demanding more money for school teachers and those who dish out the higher education. Other State employees also have the public on their side and more money is going to be needed all around. How to get it is going to be a mighty big question in the present session and you needn't be surprised if somebody pops up with the old luxury tax (pet of former John W. Hinsdale, of Wake County) as a supplement to the general sales tax. Also ways and means will be sought for making big corporations cough up some more tax dough.

BIG MONEY — A movement to have the State take over county indebtedness for schools and roads is almost certain to be launched in the General Assembly. With all the other problems of finance confronting the lawmakers this demand is not likely to become reality at this session but sentiment has been moving in that direction for some time since the State took over operation of schools and roads. The most reliable estimate is that taking over local school and road bonds would add $165,000-

000 to the debt of the State government but it might reduce local property taxes to some extent.

HOME-LOANS — Representative Frank Hancock, of the Fifth North Carolina District, is going to bat in Congress for more money to be loaned Tar Heel Home-Owners in distress through the Home Owners Loan Corporation. Mr. Hancock and Senator Robert R. Reynolds got all hot and bother about the way the HOLC was being administered and secured a change of managers. Now the money has about run out and little benefit will come to Tar Heels unless more iron men of the realm can be enlisted in the aid of delinquent mortgages.

DID A JOB — One man who did a big job in North Carolina during the past two years and who is still hard at work but gets little credit for it is Dean I. O. Schaub, of State College, and who heads the Extension Service in this State. Dean Schaub handled the machinery for the AAA tobacco program, the cotton program, the corn-hog program and the other federal agricultural plans that have meant millions and millions of dollars to this State. Dean Schaub isn't thinking for public office but if he did, undoubtedly he would get a big farm vote from the boys who have dollars where last year they possessed only pennies.

Prepares Bill Which Would Bring Increase In Salaries

Raleigh, Jan. 8.— T. E. Cooper, representative from New Hanover county, stated today he is preparing for early introduction in the house a bill that would increase by 30 per cent. the salaries of all school, highway and prison employes of North Carolina. The measure would be retroactive as of January 1, 1935.

The New Hanoverian also announced he will introduce a bill giving 30 days of grace to motor vehicle owners delinquent in the purchase of new state license tags. Under his plan all fines and costs imposed by county or city judges between January 1 and February 1 would be remitted, he said.
