Proof Of The Pudding

WE are all familiar with the old saying, "The proof of the pudding lies in the eating." And in this connection don't forget that many an otherwise good pudding is proved unsatisfactory by the lack of a suitable sauce.

Preparations of all kinds containing fruits should be served with fruit sauces, with the exception of custards when a highly spiced sauce may be used. Liquid sauce should be served with steamed or baked puddings; and here is a most delectable recipe for such a sauce:

Pineapple Sauce

2 cups Hawaiian pineapple juice
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
Juice of 1 lemon
2 teaspoons cornstarch

Boil the pineapple juice with a piece of lemon rind, and in another pan melt the sugar to a golden brown color; then add the pineapple juice, and boil for a few minutes. Dissolve cornstarch with a little cold water and pour into sauce to thicken, boil for five minutes and remove from fire. Add lemon juice, then strain. This may be served hot or cold with puddings or fritters.

In preparing this sauce do not make the error of using the sweet syrup in which sliced pineapple is packed. The reference is to the natural, unsweetened juice of the luscious sun-ripened Hawaiian fruit which is now available everywhere in tins of convenient sizes.

And if you want a man's idea of what a good pudding should be, here is the favorite of Carl Brisson, Paramount star, whose newest picture, "All the King's Horses," has just been released.

Danish Apple Pudding

Pare and slice six large apples. Sweeten to taste and bake until tender. Place layer of apples in bottom of glass dish. Spread with strawberry or raspberry jelly. Place remaining apples on top of this. Serve with pineapple sauce described above.

Simple, isn't it? But really delicious. It's good hot or cold.
