Death of Hugh Fallin At Madison From Gunshot Wound

The following account of the accidental death of Hugh Dallas Fallin is taken from the Madison Messenger.

The unfortunate man was a son of the late Wm. L. Fallin, of Stokes county, near Prestonville.

The account follows:

Hugh Dallas Fallin, a highly respected merchant of Madison over a number of years, succumbed Tuesday morning to gunshot wound.

Mr. Fallin was repairing a shotgun in his Shoe Repair and Harness Shop. The ejector of the gun didn't work and he had it taken apart. He called in local men to advise him.

A few moments later, the gun on which he was working exploded. Citizens nearby, hearing the sound, rushed in to discover Mr. Fallin dangerously injured.

He was unconscious and died almost instantly.

Chief of Police George T. Martin and Deputy Sheriff John G. Hanner conducted an investigation. They expressed the belief that death was accidental. No evidence showed that Mr. Fallin had been despondent lately or had any reason whatsoever for killing himself.

Mr. Fallin, who was 44 years of age has long been known and respected here as a fine type of citizen and merchant.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Leona Roberts Fallin; two sons, Louis and H. D., Jr.; one brother, Charles H. Fallin, Madison, and five sisters, Mrs. Ida Ward and Miss Bessie Fallin, Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. Ernest Fagg, Stoneville; Mrs. J. C. Newell, Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Frank Poa, Walnut Cove.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 by Rev. Robert A. Gardner, pastor of the Madison Baptist church, with interment following in Riverview cemetery.

POU OUT IN FRONT
AN AUDITOR'S RACE

(By W. S. Penn)

Clayton, N. C., May 13. — It is apparent to the most casual observer that the candidacy of Geo. Ross Pou for State Auditor has met with a most favorable and enthusiastic response from every section of the State. Pou's campaign is being conducted without an alignment with any candidate for Governor and he is not the candidate of any "special group." Pou's record of business efficiency, his promise to "breathe new life" into the State Auditor's office, and the fact that he is carrying his cause direct to the people has made a splendid appeal. Friends over the State are now predicting Mr. Pou will be nominated over all other candidates for State Auditor in the first primary.

Mr. Pou is and always has been opposed to the so-called "Short Ballot" whereby all state officers would be appointed by the Governor with the exception of the seven constitutional officers. "The people should be allowed full voice in the selection of their office holders," said Mr. Pou. "If there is to be any change I favor letting the people vote on more officers rather than less."
