The following patients underwent tonsil operations here last week: Annie Ruth Metz and Avanell Coe, of Donnaha; Billy Edwards, of Rural Hall; Mack Baker, of Walnut Cove; Billy Wilson, of Pinnacle: Helen Marie Darnell, of Winston-Salem; Miss Lola Hauser, of Siloam; Elmer Kerney, of Tobaccoville; Mrs. Dolphus Gordon, of Pinnacle and Robert Burrow and Billie Sheiton, of King.

Mrs. Fred E. Shore has taken over the stock of the Home Cafe from L. C. Stinson. Some improvements will be made on the interior of the building and in addition to the Cafe, a stock of fancy groceries will be carried. Mrs. Shore will manage the business and Miss Vivian Lawson has been employed as cashier.

The Jefferson Knickerbockers lost to the Hanes Cubs in a game played at Winston-Salem Saturday. Score 7 and 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Owen, of Donnaha, were among the shoppers here Saturday.

Dudley Hall, planter and merchant of the Oak Grove section, was here Saturday on business. This section was visited by a splendid shower Sunday afternoon.

Savory and Spicy

Savory and Spicy Here are two suggestions which are delicious for every-day meals or for smart entertaining: Onion Rarebit: Slice six large onions thin and sauté gently in a little butter until tender and a golden color. Spread on slices of buttered toast and cover with rarebit made as follows: Melt slowly together in a large skillet four tablespoons butter, one pound of grated cheese, one-half tea-spoon salt, one-half teaspoon Wor-tard and one-half teaspoon Wor-
