DANBURY, N. C., SEPTEMBER 16, 1937.

Let Stokes Support Allen Gwyn For Judge And Ralph Scott For Solicitor

The primary of 1938 comes on apace.

Let the people of Stokes be prepared to give their support to Allen Gwyn of Rockingham county for judge, and Ralph J. Scott of Stokes county for solicitor.

Allen Gwyn is at present solicitor of this district. He aspires to be judge. His qualifications entitle him to this honor.

Let the people of Stokes give their unqualified support to Gwyn. He is eminently qualified for this position. His political record deserves it at the hands of the Democratic party. His high attainments, his ability, his unsullied integrity, command it.

In return, Rockingham will support Ralph J. Scott for solicitor.

Scott is a young man of marked efficiency. His experience in the practice of law at Danbury makes him highly qualified. He has represented Stokes county in the legislature, with signal ability and with honor to his constituents. His character, his ability, his service, should be recognized and rewarded.

Stokes county deserves this recognition and this honor. What has this county received in the dispensation of public honors and emoluments? Nothing.

Surry has fared well. Porter Graves was solicitor for 28 years. Folger was appointed judge by Ehringhaus. Bivens was appointed judge by Hoey. Other honors have been given to Surry.

Rockingham, the home of congressmen, has been repeatedly honored. Recently it had a highway commissioner.

Caswell county now has a highway commissionership.

Let Stokes county get behind Scott for solicitor 100 per cent.

The Democratic party of Stokes, as well as many prominent Republicans, will stand for Gwyn for judge and Scott for solicitor.

Wakes The Wrong Passenger.

This week's issue of the Union Republican contains an editorial reference to Senator Robert R. Reynolds that is unquestionably a violation of the laws against libel. If the Senator does not demand a retraction and damages for this malicious thrust, he will be untrue to his friends as well as himself.

The Union Republican never publishes an issue without vilely slandering some honorable Democratic official. We predict that the Bob Reynolds incident will result in the yellow sheet eating its own gorge.

Hints for Homemakers

By Jane Rogers

NO more wilted cucumber pickles at the top of the jar! This welcome news greets every housewife who undoubtedly has had the disconcerting experience of opening a delicious looking jar of pickles only to find that the top layer is not immersed in pickling solution and has become soft.

A new process for hermetically sealing foods packed in glass called vapor-vacuum sealing now keeps cucumber pickles crisp on top as well as at the bottom of the jar. The seal is made with a very high vacuum to retain the crispness of the cucumber, and the vacuum is accomplished without any loss of the pickling solution, which would leave slices of pickles in the head-space, without liquor, to get soft and rancid.

Interesting, also, is the new easy to remove cap which the high vacuum created in the headspace of the jar makes it possible to apply. This type of cap can be removed without damage to fingers, merely by lifting with the broad side of a sturdy table knife. The cap can be replaced securely after each opening of the jar because it is not bent when first removed.

What's What About Social Security

As another service to its readers, the Reporter each week will give authoritative answers to questions on the Social Security law. By special arrangement with Mr. J. N. Freeman, Manager of the Social Security Board of office at 439 Nissen Building, Winston-Salem, N. C., the Social Security Board has consented to pass on the accuracy of answers to questions on Social Security, which may be asked by employers, employees, and others, thru the Reporter. Address inquiries to The Editor, the Reporter. Answers will be given here in the order in which questions are received. This is an informational service and is not legal advice or service. In keeping with Social Security Board policy names will not be published.—Editor.

(41) QUESTION: How many forms of taxes are there in North Carolina under the Social Security Act?

ANSWER: There are four separate and distinct taxes; (1) an income tax on employees, which is now one per cent. on the first $3,000 earned; (2) an excise tax on employers of one or more. This is also one per cent. at the present time on the first $3,000. The Federal tax on employers of eight or more, for the year 1937, is two per cent. of total wages. There is also a tax imposed by the North Carolina Unemployment Compensation Commission of one and eight tenths per cent. based on total wages. The Federal tax just mentioned allows an employer of eight or more to deduct up to 90 per cent. of the amount of this tax provided such deduction is paid into the Unemployment fund of the State.

(42) Q. In filling out my application for a Social Security account number I gave my correct age, with the understanding that this information would be kept secret from my employer. Now I hear that the Board will turn over the records to the employers if they request them to do so. Is this true?

A. This is not true. The age of any individual who has filed an application SS-5 will not be revealed by the Social Security Board.

(43) Q. Will I be able to draw benefits when I become 65 if I continue to work?

A. Under the terms of the Social Security Act, you will not be paid benefits as long as you continue working in an employment that is not specifically exempted from the Act, but when Chicken Stew.

Misses Juanita Richardson and Geneva Myrt gave a delightful chicken stew at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Richardson on Walnut Cove Route 1, Monday night, Sept. 13th. A large crowd attended and a good time was had by all. The stew was simply delicious, which goes to show that there are some good cooks here yet. Each one had enough to eat and seemed to enjoy the occasion. Games were played on the lawn and in the house. They could be heard continuously, gay laughter of the young folks, especially when some unlucky one slipped and fell upon the dew-wet grass.

As for the kiddies they were playing marbles on the floor and shrieking in delight.

Even the older ones had a jolly time talking and of course, cooking the stew, (who could expect the young people to do that?—Even if they could.

Guests who attended this delightful occasion from out of this section were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duggins, Mr. Thomas Adams and Miss Lucile Trout, of Ogburn Town, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woosely and Mr. Earl Shumate of Winston-Salem, and Jas. Ray and brother of Fayetteville.

you retire from active employment you will receive a monthly qualify.

(44) Q. My father is now 67 and out of work. Will he be able to draw old-age benefits from the government?

A. No, since he is beyond the age requirement of 65, he cannot qualify.

QUESTION:
Is it worth while for Camel to spend millions more for finer Tobaccos?

ANSWER:
Camels are the largest-selling cigarette in America!

It is homespun fact that nothing man does to tobacco can take the place of what Nature does. People prefer Camels because Camels are made of FINER, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—into which Nature put extra goodness.
