"BUNKUM" and the shorter word "bunk" both derive from Buncombe, the name of a county in North Carolina. During a famous debate in Congress many years ago the representative for the district insisted on making a rambling speech when the House was impatiently waiting for an opportunity to vote. The speaker explained his insistence by saying the people of his district expected it of him; so he was bound "to make a speech for Buncombe."

Do not say, "That is an entirely different matter than the one you have in mind." "Than" indicates a comparison. Distinction or separation is indicated by "from." Say, "That is an entirely different matter from the one you have in mind."

Beauty Hints

By Jane Heath

If you were not gifted by Nature with curly lashes and a ravishing, stary-eyed look, don't despair. There's a clever eyelash curler that will do the trick for you. Curved to fit the eye, it trains the lashes upward with a gentle squeeze on the handles. Hold a few seconds—and presto! Another secret of the movie star's dressing-table is yours.

Blue eye-shadow is the most popular color of the half dozen shades offered this season.

When shaping eyebrows with a tweezer, never pull hairs out "against the grain." Always pluck each hair gently in the same direction in which it is growing.
