EXPECTING A SQUARE DEAL

The militant Democracy of Stokes county—FIVE THOUSAND VOTES STRONG—expects a square deal at the hands of the sister counties of the 21st judicial district, July 2.

The Democracy of Stokes county has always been loyal to the district, the State and President Roosevelt, and has stood aside when the distribution of political honors came.

Surry has been the home of many and distinguished and worthy officials bestowed by the combined generousities of the district, the State and the Federal government. Today Surry can boast of her honored and distinguished to-be-Congressman A. D. Folger.

Rockingham has been repeatedly favored with gifts at the hands of the people, in which Stokes has often contributed with pleasure. Today Rockingham can point with pride to its Allen Gwyn, soon to sit on the Superior Court bench for a term of six years.

Caswell is proud of its Highway Commissioner appointed by Gov. Hoey. In days past Caswell has been the home of many men prominent in North Carolina history.

What has Stokes had? NOT A THING.

In the June 4 primary Ralph J. Scott, candidate of Stokes for Solicitor, led his next highest opponent, A. D. Ivie, Jr., of Rockingham county, by more than 1400 votes.

Yet Ivie of Rockingham—knowing his county already has the judgeship—wants the solicitorship, too, that both the judge and solicitor may live in Rockingham county.

And Ivie—at the expense of thousands of dollars to the tax-payers of the district, calls a SECOND PRIMARY to beat Scott and secure another honor for Rockingham county.

Is it fair and just and right for the other counties of the 21st district to get ALL, and Stokes NOTHING?

The Stokes County Democratic party is expecting a square deal, and will not FORGIVE or FORGET any combination of district votes that defeats Ralph J. SCOTT.

The Sad Fate Of Two Crows

Joe Hart, of the County-State highway department, relates an interesting incident which he saw with his own eyes near King the other day.

Two crows were fighting desperately in the air, and stopping to rest they alighted on a pair of high tension wires that ran concurrently along the power line. Immediately one of them reached over to seize the bill of the other, thus establishing a circuit. There was a snap, like that made by electric sparks, and rising into the air, a puff of smoke. A few black feathers floated to the ground. The crows had disappeared.

It was really an incident that must attract science, and this newspaper can vouch for the veracity of Mr. Hart. The only people in this section that do not believe are Lon Sisk and Dr. Morefield.

Of course they are only jealous.

Wait a Minute.

The Danbury Reporter is auditing its subscription lists, trying to establish a clean roll of Gold Star subscribers whose names will stand out like beacons in the night, to be later framed and published with a pica border all around.

That you thoroughly understand, we are quite sure.

We have a gnawing ambition to publish a better paper. You know one can write better and more when the bills are paid.

Now we wish to make this explanation. If any one should inadvertently pay more than is due, we promise to not get mad, but will freely forgive, while extending you sweetly in advance.

And when you pay, get a receipt signed by N. E. Pepper, publisher, otherwise it will not be valid. This will be sent you by mail, or handed you in the office.

Presbyterian Revival Services Closed Wednesday Night—Several Accessions to the Churches.

The series of revival services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church here, closed Wednesday night. Strong interest was manifested during the meeting, and large crowds attended the services. Rev. Mr. Cooper of Mocksville, assisted by Pastor Cwan, conducted the meeting. Very able and effective sermons were delivered by Rev. Mr. Cooper. At the close of the meeting a number of persons connected themselves with the Presbyterian and other churches.

Twin Daughters

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Lawsonville are proud over the recent arrival of twin daughters. Mrs. Martin will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Annie Wall who drove off a handsome automobile in the Reporter's popular ladies' voting contest a few years ago.

France and Ward Bring Francisco News

R. F. France and J. H. Ward, Francisco citizens, stopped over a short while Wednesday on their way to High Point where they expected to attend to some business matters as well as visit relatives.

These gentlemen report the work of building two more rooms to the Francisco high school building well underway, which will make this one of the leading schools in the county. Owing to lack of room last session one teacher had to use the auditorium for her classes. Prof. Parker will be principal again for the coming year, while practically all last season's teachers are coming back, with the addition of at least two more instructors.

Crops in the Francisco section have suffered some from the continuous rains, tobacco being inclined to "button out," while corn on flat lands has been unfavorably affected by the flooding.

THE RALLY FOR SCOTT PROMISES TO BE BIG SUCCESS—LARGE CROWD OF WORKERS EXPECTED.

Plans for the rally of Scott workers at the county home picnic ground Saturday night, have matured and everything is now ready for the gathering which is expected to be a huge success.

Both men and women will be present in numbers, and will be abundantly feted by the sponsors Hanes Linville, Reid George, Travis Tuttle, Reid Forrest, Jr., and others. There will be a fish fry, and delicious slaw and invigorating coffee and other things which politicians love, and the occasion will be utilized to organize each precinct to get out the vote for Scott in the Solicitorial primary July 2.

A number of Scott's friends from Rockingham, Surry and Caswell are also expected to be present.

Employers Advised To Learn Numbers Of New Employees

Winston-Salem, N. C. June 20—Employers hiring workers, now, because of seasonal business should learn the account number of each new employee and enter it in permanent records. New workers without account numbers should be referred by employers to the nearest Social Security Board office, where the numbers will be assigned them. This reminder, which comes today from the Social Security Board, is directed especially toward employers who, during the summer months, take on extra employees at hotels and camps or in such industries as ice cream, canning, lumber mill-work, cement, automobile tires, and laundry.

Attention is called to the fact that quarterly wage reports submitted by employers to the Bureau of Internal Revenue for all employees whose wages are for employment covered by Title VIII of the Social Security Act. The amount of workers must be reported, along with the name and account number of each employee. The employer's report of wages paid to an employee must include, in addition to wages in cash, the fair cash value of any other form of pay, such as goods, meals, or lodging.

Employers who are opening their businesses for the first time since the Federal old-age insurance program went into effect on January 1, 1937, should make application at once for an employer's identification number at the nearest Security Board office.

H. H. Leake, lawyer of Winston-Salem, was in Danbury today.

If You're Planning To Build

By W. S. Lowndes, Director, Schools of Architecture and Building, International Correspondence Schools

THE KITCHEN—The Kitchen in the modern house is, in many respects, the most important room in the house. This is especially true in cases where a servant is not employed and where the mistress of the house must attend the cooking, laundry work, and the many other domestic duties. In such instances the mistress must spend a large part of her time in the kitchen, hence this room should be made as convenient and attractive as possible. The kitchen should be reached by a separate entrance where tradesmen can deliver supplies and packages. If there is a basement there should be convenient access to the stairs.

Kitchen Devices—Devices for convenience and ease in performing the operations of the kitchen should be installed whenever possible. Electric ranges, refrigerators, dishwashers and other labor-saving machines should be thoughtfully considered. Ironing boards, apron closets, broom closets, tables, step-ladder chairs, cabinets for miscellaneous foods and spaces for all kitchen utensils can be attractively arranged. Good light should be provided and a pleasant outlook from the windows is most desirable.

A breakfast nook in the kitchen or directly connected with it, is a great step saver, and is convenient for simple meals. A kitchen should not be so large as to require a great deal of walking about by the one performing the cooking and serving of meals. It is important to install a great many electric outlets, for new devices are being invented rapidly.

Colds in chest or throat may become serious. Ease them in 5 minutes with Mustersole, the "counter-irritant"! Applied once every hour for five hours, it should bring relief. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses.
