NEW POWER LINE NEAR KING

EXTENDS FROM SCHAUB PLACE TO MOUNT PLEASANT CHURCH — NEW HOME FOR KING — OTHER ITEMS FROM BUSY TOWN.

King, March 21.—James Sisk, aged 72 died at his home here Saturday following a lingering illness of several months. The deceased who was one among King's best citizens, is survived by the widow, several children and a number of grandchildren. Funeral service was conducted at Volunteer Church near Pinnacle Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock and burial followed in the church cemetery.

Friends will be pleased to learn that there is continued improvement in the condition of Miss Kate Stone, who has been very sick at her home on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Spainhower of High Point, formerly of King, were week-end visitors to relatives here.

A new power line extending from the James S. Schaub place to Mount Pleasant Church has been approved by the Duke Power Company and construction work is expected to be commenced at an early date. The new line will give lights and power to about ten farm homes.

Miss Lucille Kapp, trained nurse of Richmond, Va., is spending a few days with her parents near Five Points.

Mrs. Nelia Pulliam remains quite sick at her home on Main street.

Joseph E. Stone has purchased from C. T. McGee the Banks Turner farm, one mile south of town.

Death Claims F. D. Myers Of Germanton

Franklin David Myers, 76, Germanton, died Saturday afternoon at his home following an illness of two years and a critical illness of three weeks.

Mr. Myers was born in Forsyth county April 15, 1863, the son of William and Elizabeth Weisner Myers. He lived near Germanton since 1906. He was a well known farmer. He was a member of Germanton Baptist Church.

Mr. Myers was twice married, the first time to Miss Mary Alice Charles, who passed away. The second time he was married to Mrs. Jennie Cumbie. She survives him.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. C. J. Foy, Winston-Salem, and Mrs. J. L. Schenck, Greensboro; one son, Gilbert G. Myers, Salisbury; one stepdaughter, Mrs. E. H. Little, Winston-Salem; six grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder and Mrs. Millie Swaim, both of Route 5.

The funeral was held at the home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Ilovis of Kernersville, was in charge. Burial was at Red Bank Baptist Church cemetery.

Announcement

Subject to the action of the Democratic primary, I hereby announce myself a candidate for county commissioner of Stokes county. I will appreciate the support of my friends in Stokes county.
