Lectures By Missionaries

Last Wednesday evening at the Methodist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stamm, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who for the past seventeen years have been doing mission work in Africa, gave interesting lectures, under the sponsorship of the Union Missionary Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Stamm are stationed at Mopti, French West Africa, and plan to return to their post in a short time, having been on furlough for nearly a year.

Mrs. J. S. Taylor introduced the speakers.

C. Spencer Jones Thanks His Friends For Support

Walnut Cove, N. C. May 28, 1940.

To The Voters of Stokes County, North Carolina:

This is to thank you for the vote you gave me in the primary last Saturday.

I appreciate it more when I think of the strong and honorable man that we were up against.

You and I have enough political and personal friends if we get busy to elect me this fall. I am depending on you to do your best. Let's go!

Respectfully,
C. SPENCER JONES.

Small Grain Farm Tour For June 6

A small grain farm tour will be held in Stokes county on Thursday, June 6, according to an announcement by J. F. Brown, county agent. Outstanding demonstrations on small grain including oats, wheat, barley, etc. will be visited and observed on several farms. Farmers attending will have an opportunity to observe new varieties of grain that have been introduced in the county and see some excellent crops in addition to studying top dressing demonstrations. Those going on the tour will meet at the Milk Receiving Station in Walnut Cove around 9 a. m., and the tour will end around 3 p. m. Everyone is invited to go on this tour. Refreshments will be served on the tour.
