Mrs. H. J. Dillon Is Hostess to Home Demonstration Club—Other News

Mrs. H. J. Dillon was hostess to the Hartman Home Demonstration Club Tuesday afternoon, June 11, at the Hartman Club House.

Mrs. H. G. Alley led the opening song "The Old North State". Maude Wood presided over the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Frances Alley. Plans were made for further work to be done on the club house.

The meeting was turned over to our Home Agent, Mrs. Lila T. Pearce, who gave a very interesting demonstration on the canning of meats and vegetables.

During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Maggie Mabe and Marie Dillon, served delicious refreshments to the following members:

Mesdames J. E. Wood, H. G. Alley, Banner Wood, Luther Wood, N. D. Priddy, and Misses Jean and Lena Priddy, Beulah Moorefield, Frances Alley, Wilma and Edith Oakley, Stacie, Lettie and Maude Wood, and Mrs. Pearce.

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Richard Moorefield gave her a surprise birthday supper Saturday evening, June 15. A large crowd attended with plenty of good things to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Dillon and Mrs. D. C. Wood visited J. W. Dillon and family of Walnut Cove Sunday.

Mrs. W. E. Joyce will chaperone the crowd.

The first watermelons are on the market here.

ASKING BETTER MAIL FACILITIES

CONGRESSMAN A. D. FOLGER HAS PRESENTED PETITION OF STOKES CITIZENS TO POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT.

A petition signed by a large number of Danbury citizens as well as people of Danbury, Peter's Creek, Snow Creek and Big Creek townships, and all county officials, asking for improved mail facilities to and from the county seat, has been forwarded to Washington.

At present it requires two to three days to get a letter to Francisco in Big Creek township, and an equal lapse of time to receive a by-return-mail answer. The same situation exists between Danbury and Sandy Ridge.

Under the proposed change the Danbury R. F. D. carrier and the Francisco carrier would exchange pouches at a point near Clements ford bridge. Thus affording daily mail communication. At present the daily round of these mail men are separated only a half mile or so.

Also the carrier from Danbury daily approaches to within something like a mile of the circle of the Sandy Ridge R. F. D. route. An exchange of mail bags near Snow Creek would give us a daily service to the Sandy Ridge section.

The petition of the Stokes postal patrons has been presented to the postmaster general at Washington by Congressman A. D. Folger with request for immediate action.

Mr. H. M. Joyce of Danbury is to be thanked for his tireless service in pushing this mail improvement and securing the many signatures to the petition. Mr. Joyce was formerly postmaster at Danbury and is impressed with the need of improvement of mail facilities between Danbury and important sections of the county.

Much Rain

June has been a very rainy month, showers occurring almost every day. Farmers are complaining they are not able to keep out of the grass.

WAR

France, overwhelmed by the Germans, has capitulated, and called for an "honorable peace."

But Germany's armies continue their drive, determined to force a surrendered "unconditionally."

There is a possibility that a big portion of the French army, sworn to fight on, will escape into England and into France's African possessions.

The British, with their islands fortified for the last stand, say they will fight on alone, if necessary. The blitzkrieg against Britain is expected to start any hour. The world has never seen a struggle equal to that which will ensue when the Germans attempt to invade England across the channel.

Russia is moving troops to the German border near Finland. Will Russia and Germany clash.

In the French-German settlement will the French deliver the French fleet to the Germans or will it join the British fleet?

As long as the British-French fleets ride the waves, the allies are not whipped.

Will there be a pool of the French, British and American fleets—the most powerful sea force of history?

Time alone will tell.

W. W. Boyles, Former Stokes Citizen, Passes At Roanoke, Va.

C. T. Boyles, of Murry Hill, N. J., passed through Danbury Sunday on his way home from a visit to relatives and friends in Yalikin township, at Pinnacle. Mr. Boyles told us the sad news of the death of his father W. W. Boyles, which recently occurred at Roanoke, Va.

The Boyleses, formerly of Stokes and among our best citizens, have been away for quite a number of years. Mr. C. T. annually visits his old home county and usually was accompanied by his wife and his father.

Rev. L. F. Cowan filled his regular monthly appointment at the Presbyterian Church here Sunday.
