It is understood that as the call of the men proceeds in the order as shown above, each registrant is classified. Later the culling out owing to ineligibility for various causes, is instituted. Finally there is medical examination which weeds out the physically unfit.

In the above lists, the first number is the call number, the second the serial number.

“Wednesday Evening Book Club” Meets

(Contributed.)

The “Wednesday Evening Book Club” met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Taylor with Mrs. Taylor as hostess.

The president, Mrs. Dallas Kirby, presided.

A regular business session was held with many items of business disposed.

The drawing for the Christmas meeting was held and the following committee was appointed to complete the program for the Christmas meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. D. C. Krby on Dec. 11, at 7:30 o'clock.

The secretary, Mrs. A. J. Ellington, called the roll and each member responded with an interesting current event.

Mrs. R. R. King presented her subject, “Wild Flowers of North Carolina”, very interestingly stating that over 500 specimens were found in and around Danbury.

Many flower prints were shown from the book on “Wild Flowers” by Homer D. Hanse.

“Scenic Views of North Carolina” was Mrs. N. E. Pepper's subject and many views were shown with our own Hanging Rock Park playing a big part in scenic views.

During the social hour, a clever flower contest was given with Mrs. Dallas Kirby receiving the beautiful bulb bowl with bulbs as winner.

A delicious salad course with coffee followed with nuts and stuffed dates was served by the hostess, Mrs. Taylor, assisted by daughter Anpelia.
