EXTENSION WORK
From the County Agent

By E. S. STOKES, County Agent and R. C. WHITAKER, Asst. Agt. H. R. Niswonger, Extension Horticulturist, visited several farmers and discussed with them their orchard care and production. He was well pleased with the work which our orchard people are carrying out this year. They are doing everything possible to produce fruit this year to aid in the war effort. Moir Martin and Mrs. M. A. Sheppard, both of Lawsonville, have already sprayed and fertilized their apple orchards. Both of these farmers have planted more apple trees this year.

Hugh Roberts of the Portland Cement Association, Atlanta, Ga., spent most of the week in Stokes county. He discussed with farmers and showed pictures on the advantages of proper and durable silo and farm building construction. Mr. Roberts also stressed various crops that can be used for silage and the proper methods of their preservation. Practically every community was visited and 1,680 people were contacted. One hundred and ten were adult farmers and approximately 400 were older farm boys.

Dick Neal, son of Marvin Neal of Walnut Cove, purchased a registered Guernsey heifer from Roy Peddycord of Kernersville this week. Dick is a member of the Walnut Cove 4-H Club.

Stokes county's second registered dairy cattle sale was a thorough success. It was a non-profit auction with the animals being sold to 4-H Club and FFA members. Twenty head of Guernsey heifers and 18 head of Jerseys were sold. Three bulls were sold by personal consignment.

Professor R. H. Ruffner of the Dept. of Animal Husbandry, State College, was the auctioneer. W. W. Fitzpatrick of Quail Roost Farm, Durham, read the pedigrees. Other assistants in the sale were R. A. McLaughlin, Yad-kin county agent, J. A. Arey, Dairy Extension Specialist of State College, A. C. Kimrey from State College, John Brown, Field Representative of Coble Dairies, S. B. Brandon, vocational agriculture teacher of the King school, and the local county agents.

The cattle averaged just under $150.00 a head. Sixteen remained in Stokes county. Of these, five were Guernseys and 11 were Jerseys. The Guernseys were purchased by Elwood Nelson of Lawsonville, Grier Hunt of Pinnacle, Ellis Boyles of King, Robert Brown of Germanton and Robert Coras of Stuart, Va. The Jerseys went to the following: Joe Marshall of Walnut Cove, Jimmie Ingram of Tobaccoville, Noel Duvivant of Westfield, Wilson Gibson of Rural Hill, Moir Sizemore of Germanton bought two animals, Richard Johnson of Germanton, Vance Sizemore of King, Treva Webster of Germanton (the only girl who bought), Robert Smith of King, and Elmer Fagg of Walnut Cove.

Saturday, April 22, Precinct Meetings.

Saturday, April 29, County Convention.

It is the duty of each Precinct Chairman to call a meeting of Democrats in his precinct on Saturday, April 22. At the precinct meeting, at least five Democrats shall be elected who shall constitute the precinct committee. Then each precinct committee shall elect a Chairman, who automatically becomes a member of the County Democratic Executive Committee. It is the duty of the Precinct Chairman thus elected to furnish the Secretary of the County Convention a written list of the names of the precinct committee members. This is very important because the County Chairman is required to make a full report on the county organization to the State Chairman before the State Convention on May 4.

All Democrats in the several precincts are urged to attend their Precinct Meetings on Saturday, April 22, the place and hour of such meeting to be fixed by the Precinct Chairman.

The County Convention will be held on the following Saturday, April 29, at 2 o'clock, at the court house in Danbury. The Convention will elect delegates to the State Convention, and will transact various other business of interest to the party. All Democrats are urged to attend.

Sincerely yours,

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A dog story with a happy ending

Lem Martin's dog went on a rampage last week... killed four of Ed Carey's best hens. Naturally, Ed was pretty mad. Went around vowing he was going to get his shotgun and blow the blazes out of Lem's dog when he saw him. And Lem says, "Let him try it and I'll blow the blazes out of him. Ought to keep his chickens locked up, anyhow."

But Ed and Lem are really mighty sensible fellows. And the whole thing was settled when Lem invited Ed over for a glass of beer, and they sat around chatting over the quarrel as if it were a kind of joke.

"Shucks," says Ed, "them hens didn't amount to much anyhow." And Lem says, "Just the same I'm bringin' you a barrel o' apples to pay for 'em."

From where I sit, it would be a lot better for the world if folks would settle their arguments peaceful-like—sitting around over a friendly glass of beer—instead of going off half-cocked, and making mountains out of molehills.
