MARTIN MEMORIAL SCHOOL NURSING GRADUATES 24th CLASS

The Martin Memorial Hospital School of Nursing presented diplomas to seven young nurses at the school's twenty-fourth annual commencement exercises which were held at the First Presbyterian Church in Mount Airy at 8 p. m., May 12. The program for the graduation included the singing of "America"; an invocation by Dr. C. N. Clark of the Central Methodist Church; the address by George Kellock Hale, Jr., chairman of the Surry County Chapter of the American Red Cross; a duet by the Rev. Fulton C. Lytle and Mrs. Rebecca Smith. The diplomas were presented by Dr. Moir S. Martin and Dr. Edward C. Ashby delivered the pins. The Nightingale Pledge by the graduating class followed these presentations, and the program was concluded by the singing of "God Bless America" and the benediction by Dr. R. K. Redwine, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Immediately following this program an informal reception was held at the Nurses' Home. Nurses receiving their diplomas included: Miss Ruby Mill, of Mt. Airy; Miss Gladys Bunker, of Mebane; Miss Lena Gilbert, of Stuart, Va.; Miss Doretha House, of Nashville; Miss Thelma Shelton, of Francisco; Miss Lois Bowen, of Mt. Airy; and Miss Lena Watson, of Richlands.

400,000 MEN

Were Too Late Last Year

And 400,000 men will be too late this year! Because that's the average number who knock at the doors of old-line legal reserve life insurance companies each year and are of necessity refused entrance because at some time in the past they crossed that unknown line separating those who are insurable from those who are not insurable, no matter how great their need.

For the sake of your own peace of mind, for the sake of the future well-being of yourself and those looking to you for their future well-being, see your SECURITY REPRESENTATIVE while you are still in the insurable group.

Your SECURITY REPRESENTATIVE is one who would be your friend and render invaluable service to you through SECURITY'S liberal Registered contracts.

SECURITY Registered Policies solve future financial problems.

And that's the news from here.

Team of Mules Killed By Lightning

Early Monday morning about 1 o'clock, lightning struck and killed a good pair of mules, worth $100, for John D. Fulk of Piney Grove.

Mr. Fulk did not know of the damage until he went to his stable after daylight to feed his stock when he found the mules lying dead. Mr. Fulk and his wife were in Danbury this week looking to purchase stock to make crops on.
