Buy and Keep War Bonds

H. G. O'Neil
Head, Dept. of Agricultural Economics
University of Florida

FARMERS of this Nation are performing a magnificent job of essential food production during the present emergency, in spite of their great handicaps in obtaining the necessary raw materials, equipment, machinery, and labor. Due to their determination to do a good job and to favorable prices for farm commodities, they are receiving higher net incomes than during the twenty-year pre-war period. The question arises as to the wisest use to make of these net incomes that will hasten the winning of this war and at the same time assist in preventing dangerous inflation during and immediately following the war. Farmers, like all other workers on the home front, are not satisfied with merely doing well the job that is expected of them. They are eagerly on the alert for other ways they may help to bring peace at the earliest moment.

As I see it, the wisest use a farmer can make of his net income is to invest it in the purchase of War Bonds and War Savings Stamps.

Keep the home in condition to produce its own necessities. This is especially so in the case of the purchase of new equipment, machinery and labor. It is being done by all good farmers. Much attention must be given to keeping machinery in good repair and to making the most efficient use of labor.

2. Avoid new mortgage indebtedness, and reduce present indebtedness beyond the original plan, if practicable. Meet all payments for borrowed working capital when due.

3. Place every dollar not utilized in maintaining a healthy farm business into War Bonds and plan to hold on to these Bonds until they mature, or until after the war emergency has passed. This will be the best known method to help finance the war, to help prevent inflation, and at the same time to build up the investor's financial reserves for the post-war period.

You will note that no mention has been made of personal consumption. This is because it should be kept down to the bare minimum. Consumption of luxuries should be reduced to a minimum. The purchase of new automobiles should be postponed until after the war. The purchase of new houses should be postponed until after the war. The purchase of new furniture should be postponed until after the war.

PERSONAL

Eldridge and Roy Hicks of Walnut Cove, Route 1, were visitors Monday. They report their brother Ollie still confined to his home. He had a stroke about a year ago, which has incapacitated him, and keeps him at home, spending his time listening to the radio and talking to his friends who call to see him. Ollie has two sons in the armed services.

Joe France of Francisco was at the courthouse Monday on business. He reports, as everybody else does, fine rains and magnificent crops coming along. Mr. France says the crop in the Francisco section is the best he has seen in Stokes or Forsyth counties. He took his daughter Miss Irene to a Winston hospital a few days ago. She has now returned after a treatment of several days, much improved. Mr. France says he enjoys the hunting stories in the Reporter, and got a specially good kick out of the "Snake Hunt."

W. C. McCullough, Ernest D. Linger and Frank Mabe, Danbury men, were among the big contingent of draftees off for pre-induction examination Tuesday. These men are accepted their call to make 11 per cent. of Danbury's population in the service of the nation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Jones of Walnut Cove attended services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday night, when Rev. Ralph Buchanan closed his regular appointment.

Will Stevens of Lawsonville was here Tuesday. Soil crops of corn and tobacco looking fine after the rains.

Jess Duncan and Alex Brin were in town Saturday from the eastern sections of the county, both happy over the fine rains. They report crops looking good.

Frank Martin was down from the lake Saturday. Says he will return to the area of war work in eastern North Carolina in a few days.

Arthur Mabe, good citizen and progressive farmer of Peter's Creek, was here Saturday. Arthur makes fine tobacco and sells it for good prices.

Uncle Bud Ore and Tom Hicks visited Danbury Saturday. Uncle Bud says he has a fine row of watermelons soon to come in. Better look out, Uncle Bud.

H. G. Alley of Hartman was here Saturday. He reports fine rains and crops looking good. Gilbert has three boys in the service, two more that would be in but were rejected on account of physical defects. The boys in the service are as follows: John, Clarence and H. G. Jr.

Alex Southern, Lefford Mabe and Pains Southern, farmers of this section, visited Danbury Saturday.

Mrs. Lefford Mabe and daughter, Mrs. Homie Mabe were Sunday afternoon visitors from Route 1. These ladies, who are wives of up-to-date farmers, reported excellent rains and smiling crops of corn and tobacco.

Bill Johnson was here Monday from Germantown, Route 1. There ain't but one Bill Johnson in the world, he is a 100 per center, and don't mean maybe about anything.

Rufus Mabe of Peter's Creek was here Monday. Rufus is Constable of his township, and all who know him say his is a splendid officer, not one who snoops around, but one who does his straight sworn duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Duncan were visitors Monday. They are from the Hartman section.

Sheriff John Taylor is attending the national Democratic convention at Chicago. He left Monday, and will return latter part of the week.
