Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nationwide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

Notes of a Newspaperman:

Peter Donald forwards the story about three GIs just back from overseas who went into the automat and found that the only available table was one that was occupied by a spinsterish female. Wanting a little privacy, they decided to sit down, hoping by means of conversation to make her finish up and leave in a hurry. . . . The first GI said: "Boy, life overseas sure was tough. I didn't have a bath in eight months."

"Think that's bad?" said the second. "I couldn't even wash my hands in four weeks."

"We were so busy," the third added, "I couldn't change my underwear in five months."

At that point, the old gal looked up and said: "Would one of you sinkers mind passing the salt?"

The government has stopped horse racing in America. We wish it were as easy to stop America's Trojan horses.

An American citizen of German ancestry was walking down Powell Street, in San Francisco, when he was stopped by a soldier who asked: "Can you tell me the way to Chinatown?" . . . He replied: "Yes, of course, it is two blocks over and two blocks to the left, but you don't want to go there because you are a Jap" . . . The soldier replied: "And you are a German" . . . The citizen said: "How did you know?" . . . The soldier replied: "I know because I've killed a lot of them the last two months in Italy and I'm on my way home to Seattle" . . . The citizen of German ancestry looked at the uniform of the soldier and saw on it a Presidential citation, the Purple Heart and a few other campaign ribbons.

Telling this story about himself, he said: "Boy, was I embarrassed! The boy was of Japanese ancestry and a member of the famous 100th Infantry Battalion!"

Edward Stettinius, who is certainly the most modest and democratic of our Secretaries of State, used to visit the Broadway night clubs occasionally a few years ago. One night he went into the old Paradise with a male companion . . . Headwaiter Albert Berryman scanned them with an appraising and unrecognizing eye . . . "Hello, Albert," said Stettinius. "don't you remember me?"

"Oh, yes," fibbed Albert (trying to place the man), as he showed him to a none-too-good table.

The part I like is that Stettinius (who was then only chairman of U. S. Steel) knew headwaiter Albert, but Albert didn't know him!

Ernest Hemingway went to Chicago years ago after working in Kansas City. He had lived in Oak Park, Ill., and was an old school-mate of Ted Tod's, now working for Warners' . . . At the time, Tod was working for the Chicago Herald-Examiner as a reporter, and Hemingway hoped Tod would try to get him a job on the paper . . . Tod went in to speak to Frank Carson, the city editor. He told him all about Hemingway—what a good writer he was . . . He said: "He hasn't worked in Chicago, but he knows it, knows names, etc." . . . Carson looked up and ho-hummed: "Does he know any Chicago coppers?" . . . "No," said Tod . . . "Well, I don't care how good a writer he is," replied Carson. "Our reporters have to know the Chicago coppers." . . . So Hemingway didn't get the job. Instead he went to Canada—worked on a Toronto paper and from there started his climb.

If it hadn't been for his not knowing any Chicago policemen, Hemingway might still be working on the Chicago paper.

All this talk of what to do with Germany—and, of course, it is more than talk, it is a grave, great problem—reminds me of this tale . . . An apostle of conciliation once asked the late Georges Clemenceau if his hatred of the Germans was based on knowledge. "Have you ever been to Germany?" he inquired.

"No, Monsieur," replied the Tiger, "I have not been to Germany. But twice in my lifetime the Germans have been to France."

This isn't as good as the "Westinghouse—I'm westing" gag—but it's going the rounds among the icky set—and makes me icky: "We're broom-mates. We sweep together. Dust us two."

It happened at an army training camp, reports Irving Hoffman. The sergeant had twenty recruits lined up for fatigue duty . . . They were not as energetic as the sergeant thought they should be. So he tried to cure them . . . "I've got a nice easy job for the laziest man present," he barked. "Will the laziest man raise his right hand?" . . . Nineteen men raised their right paws . . . "Why don't you raise your hand?" inquired the sergeant of the 20th lad.

Tribesmen Build Road Through West China

When the American Seventh army took Haguenau, they freed 300 Frenchwomen, who were being held in the town jail.

Feeding Grouse Corn on Tree

The winter feeding program of the Fish and Wildlife service calls for helping the birds and small mammals over the tough spots in cold areas. Above, a grouse is seen eating some of the corn placed on the tree. Without extra grain, after storms and blizzards, many of the birds would die. Photo was taken in sand hills of North Dakota.

New Butterfly Tail Airplane

With a V tail, or "butterfly" tail type of only two elements, the latest Beechcraft plane has been successfully tried out. Tests show excellent control and stability characteristics at all speeds. The only trick in the deal is to let the movable control surface know when to act as rudders and when to function as elevators.

Fighting General

Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commander of the 101st Airborne division was in Washington when his division was trapped inside Bastogne. He flew the Atlantic and slipped through enemy lines in a jeep to be with his men, aiding them to win their way out.

Clare Luce Dunks

While visiting G.I.s in Europe, Rep. Clare Boothe Luce of Connecticut, showed the troops that she knew all the finer arts of doughnut dunking, learned in Washington.
