IT SEEMED TO BE IN IT FOR GAME

People Who Come and Go—Brief Reviews of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

We learned yesterday evening from a resident of the neighborhood, that a regularly organized band of robbers had been operating about 17 miles below

Robbers and that they were now about to come to grief.

Three of the parties are in custody and the others are being looked after.

Tom Rouse, Daniel Boone and Jim Mitchell, all white, have been captured and there are two or three colored men belonging to the gang that are still at large.

These men made their start by stealing an ox from Mr. James Waters, which they took to Goldsboro and sold to a butcher.

The butcher, suspecting some crookedness, did not slay the ox at once, but put him in a pasture. He paid $12 for the animal. At night the parties from whom he bought went to the pasture and stole the ox and sold to another man for $14.

Jim Mitchell, finding himself in close quarters when upon trial in a magistrate's court, turned against his fellows and revealed the entire secret.

They were, said Jim Mitchell, to kill, steal, burn, or do anything that was best to accomplish their ends. Idleness, to a very large extent, is the mother of most such gangs.

LIVE LOCAL LINKS.

The Day's Record of Current Events in the City and Vicinity.

The excursion to Norfolk will be soon to go, and all should wait for it.

It must be admitted by all that Dr. Johnson has the best pavement in town.

Burlington will celebrate the Fourth of July, and Durham's band will make the music.

The street car made a trip from East Durham to Trinity college in eight days. Who can beat this record?

THE WEEKLY GLOBE, which went out this morning, contained ample evidence that the Reams warehouse is doing business.

Mrs. L. E. Stacy, wife of Rev. L. E. Stacy, of the North Carolina conference, died at Farmington, in Davie county, last Saturday morning.

The excursionists returned from Norfolk about 7:30 o'clock last evening and report a grand time. No lives were lost and all feel amply paid by the trip.

Regular meeting of Durham Lodge No. 75, I. O. O. F., to-night at 8 o'clock. Work in second degree and election of officers. A full attendance requested.

To close out their stock of baby carriages at once, The Cheek Furniture Co. offers the greatest inducements ever before offered. Easy payments if desired.

The bicycle craze has struck Durham, and men and boys, small girls and large girls, are all riding them. Of these latter, Miss Mamie Dowd is the champion wheelist.

Durham has a new book of ordinances. Many of them are as old as Colonel Noah's flood. The new Sunday ordinance did not get in the page of the last book.

The Duke factory is closed down today to take inventory and Col. C. A. Jordan explained that the book-keepers have no time to let the breeze blow through their chin whiskers.

The walls of Trinity M. E. church have been raised to the proper height for the window and door frames and it will not be many days 'till we will have some idea how new Trinity will appear.

Col. V. Ballard, who went on the Bonanza excursion, reports a delightful trip—the most pleasant, in fact, that Durham has enjoyed for many months. The coaches were comfortably filled and the mob was avoided.

Colonel Alex Cave says that a goose which is set of a mornin' always brings high gored goslings. A high gored goslin is one, he says, that twists its neck out of place and dies with the wheezes. This may or may not be true.

Mr. S. W. Westbrook, of Richmond, now representing the Richmond Trade Journal, was in the city to-day and gave The Globe a pleasant call. The Journal was originally started in Durham and went from here to Winston—thence to Suited Him.

Kind Party—What are you crying that way for, little boy?

Little Boy—"Cause it's the only way I know how to cry.—Life.

Richmond. Under a new organization Westbrook says the business is growing rapidly.

—James Gattis, Jr., will at an early day be numbered among the wheelmen of the South. He began yesterday to take lessons and to-day he gets around at a lively rate. We expect him to take the primum as champion rider of the South at the World's fair next year.

—THE GLOBE these days hums along in its always cheerful way, and to-night it has a better foundation than ever in its history. This means that THE GLOBE is in it for all time. It pays its bills with cash, it does business for cash, and it will loan money if the security is satisfactory.

—The county commissioners will meet Monday. At that time they will consider, we understand, the advisability of placing the cement pavement around the court house. The people who wade through the mud at times, getting to the court house, will, to a man, say put down the pavement.

—The Richmond and Danville Railroad company receivers have been authorized by Judge Bond to issue $1,000,000 receivers' certificates to be used exclusively for the purpose of paying pay-rolls and vouchers. The receivers are given discretion to pay the car trust installments and leased line rentals out of the earnings, but no authority is given to pay the interest on the Danville sixes due July 1, and the interest on these bonds will be defaulted.

—Secretary Tracy was called upon to decline a novel request made in connection with the launching of the battleship Texas. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union wanted her christened with water instead of wine, "as an object lesson," and for the further reason that such an event "would carry its influence on a great public occasion like this." And we have wired Colonel Jim Southgate, now at Cincinnati as a delegate to the prohibition convention, to roast Tracy for all he is worth, which is a great deal.

POLICE COURT.

What the Grist Was at the Mayor's Office This Morning.

One case in police circles came up for trial this morning. The parties implicated are Thomas Yeates, Beula Mason and Della Fuller, all colored, for an affray. They were fined $1.00 each and cost, making a total of $8.20.

TOBACCO TALK.

Rev. Alex Walker Gives His Views on the Tobacco Market.

The receipts of leaf tobacco continue fairly good, and prices are well sustained. There is no noticeable change since our last report. The new crop is nothing more or less than what you might call an average crop in quality or quantity. The seasons thus far have been good, and crops of all kinds are looking very well, and there is no cause of complaint.

Col. L. J. Allred Writes:

I am in my seventy-third year, and for fifty years I have been a great sufferer from indigestion, constipation and biliousness. I have tried all the remedies advertised for these diseases and got no permanent relief. About one year ago the disease assuming a more severe and dangerous form, I became very weak and lost flesh rapidly, I commenced using Dr. H. Mozley's Lemon Elixir. I gained twelve pounds in three months. My strength and health, my appetite and my digestion were perfectly restored, and now I feel as young and vigorous as I ever did in my life. L. J. ALLRED, Door keeper Ga. State Senate, State Capitol, Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 5, '91.

A Mother's Report.

Mrs. N. A. McEntire writes from Spring Place, Ga.: For many years I have been a great sufferer from indigestion, sick-headache and nervous prostration. I tried many remedies, but got no permanent relief until I used Dr. Mozley's Lemon Elixir. I am now in better health than for many years. My daughter has been subject to chills and fever from her infancy. I could get nothing to relieve her; the Lemon Elixir has restored her to perfect health.

Sold by Druggists, 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga.

If you are melancholy or down with the blues you need Simmons Liver Regulator.

If you would be rid of chills and fever take Simmons Liver Regulator.

GUTHRIE'S ROOSTER!

Major Guthrie Quotes the Ancients on Chickens

And Tells a Wonderful Yarn About His Experience.

A PICTURE OF THE BEAST IS GIVEN

Mr. Shelburn Will Arbitrate the Business and We Soon Shall Understand It All We Guess.

A brief talk this afternoon with Major Guthrie disclosed the fact that he did not know much about the chicken business. The fact of the business is, he is densely ignorant concerning the fowl as she is raised, and we propose at an early day to tear down the whole front of his office.

The major says that a chicken under the law and elsewhere is not what we Latin scholars would call croweresequeat, but that they belong to the genus homo-sauerkraut. This may or may not be true, and Colonel Shelburn must soon decide these little points.

Major Guthrie says that when he was in the North Indies he successfully captured a rooster that weighed 200 pounds and which had spurs twenty feet in length.

The major has a chickeny back of his office and proposes to demonstrate these facts.

We shall wait until we see what we shall see.

A VIRGINIA ROMANCE.

Eloped from Petersburg and Married in North Carolina.

PETERSBURG, Va., June 29.—For the past three years Mr. James T. Hargrave, a well-known young man of this city, has been a suitor for the heart and hand of Miss Estelle Winfred, a charming and attractive young lady of this place. Mr. Hargrave's courtship proved successful, and the couple became ardent lovers. This morning they met by appointment at the Washington street depot, and took the ten o'clock southbound train over the Atlantic Coast Line for Weldon, N.C., where they were married by a minister of that place. The groom is in his twenty-fourth year, and a son of W. T. Hargrave, a prominent merchant of this place and an ex-member of the city council. The bride is twenty years of age, very pretty, and a great favorite with all who know her. The elopement has been much talked of. The couple are expected to arrive home this evening.

AS WE GROW.

The Boom Now on Those Who Are in the Profession.

Now that it is given up by every one that a big boom is about to be inaugurated in Durham and that property is compelled to advance to double and treble its present value, it is the duty of every man, old or young, who expects to ever own a home, to secure it now while it is within his reach.

Dr. J. L. Watkins is building houses on very desirable lots and selling on easy terms to a number of our young business men. If you want a home, and what man or woman does not? See Dr. Watkins and even on a small salary he will make it possible for you to own one.

RAISE YOUR RACKET

GROCERIES ON PARADE

That isn't a political turnout. We are not a candidate for public office; we are a candidate for your patronage. We have taken the liberty of placing ourselves in nomination for this distinction, and it is only fair that we should tell you what our platform is. It isn't a very long one: Honest Goods, Honest Prices, Enterprise and Straightforward Dealing. That's the platform we stand on, and that's the platform we propose to stick to every time. If it isn't a winning combination, it ought to be. In the meantime, does it interest you to know that we now have especially low prices for the summer months?
