IT STARTED WRONG!

The Excursion This Morning Had an Accident on the Start.

Willie Ross, Colored, Breaks His Leg by Jumping.

PAINFUL BUT NOT FATAL ACCIDENT

People Who Come and Go—Brief Reviews of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

Willie Ross a colored boy about 14 years of age, met with a painful accident this morning about 8 o'clock.

The excursion train was standing on the track at the depot getting ready to start to Richmond. A large jocular crowd had assembled to witness the departure of friends and among the assembled mass was this boy watching his chum to take in at least, a block or two of the excursion. As the train moved off the mounted the platform and rode until the train got under pretty good headway, waving to the eager crowd he had left behind.

But all earthly pleasures must come to an end. The time for him to leap in safety had already passed, for when he jumped from the car he fell and broke one of his legs.

Warnings are not of much avail of late.

A colored boy took in a block or two of the excursion this morning to his sorrow. When near the electric light house he jumped from the train and broke his leg.

The Atlantic fire company, of New Bern, and representatives of the companies at Elizabeth City and Goldsboro, passed through the city yesterday evening en route to Asheville.

The deep gutter on the side of Mangum street in North Durham is being filled up. Since the recent rains much water has accumulated there and the boys have been running flutter mills, and the frogs have surveyed the surroundings with an eye to locating.

Capt. A. S. Bradshaw, father of G. S. Bradshaw, probate judge of Randolph county, of Dr. W. G. Bradshaw, of High Point, and of Rev. Mike Bradshaw, of the North Carolina conference, died at his home in Randolph county on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bradshaw was not a man of great wealth, but he left a rich legacy to all his children in the way of education. His three sons are graduates of Trinity college, and his daughter, Mrs. Bettie Partridge, of Jonesboro, a graduate of Greensboro Female college.

AS HE TALKED.

What J. O. Foy Says Upon the General Situation as It Now Is.

It was our extreme pleasure to meet Mr. Foy, editor of the Winston Daily Sentinel, at the depot in our city yesterday evening. The train stopped about five minutes, giving us some time for an interview.

Mr. Foy was rather modest, and did not care even to make known his name. He was asked:

What is your opinion of affairs?

"Our country is somewhat divided, or rather quadrified."

What do you think will be the final result of this split up?

"It will wake up some of the dead, but not till it is too late for judgment."

Will Mr. Cleveland be our next president?

"He will."

Will Carr be our next governor?

"Unless the sun ceases to shine he will."

What effect will this Carnegie trouble have upon the vote of Pennsylvania?

Quite Far Enough.

"Mr. Circular, I think this has gone quite far enough!"
"Yes, Evelina," replied the young man, "I think it has, unless you would like to have me see if I could go around twice."—Jester.

A BIG CROWD.

The First Baptist Sunday School at Occaneechee Farm.

To-morrow morning at 8 o'clock, and for 50 cents, the First Baptist Sunday school of this city starts its excursion to Hillsboro.

We learn that Colonel Carr, who has given the excursionists the freedom of his farm, is to-day having the place beautified, and all who go will enjoy it.

The price will be so low—but 50 cents—the time lost but part of a day—the distance so short that it will tire no one—well, THE GLOBE'S advice is, take in this little excursion, and enjoy yourself.

Remember the train leaves at 8 o'clock and gets back to Durham about 6.

THE STATE FAIR.

The New Premium List—Full of New Things and Announcements.

The premium list for the state fair of 1892 has been received. It will, as soon as seen, assert itself to be one of the most interesting documents ever issued by the State Agricultural Society. The premiums are more numerous than ever before and are the most liberal ever offered; and there are premiums for everybody to compete for. We note particularly a cash premium of $200 and a town lot worth $600 to be given to the county making the best exhibit at the fair. Fifty dollars in gold is the premium offered to the lady making the best exhibit of fancy and domestic work. There are in all about eight hundred premiums, exclusive of racing purses which will aggregate $1,700.

There are some special announcements which will interest everybody. The great special attraction this year will be Pawnee Bill's Wild West show. This organization carries fifty wild and wiry mustang ponies and bucking bronchos, fifty Indians from the wild Alkali deserts and prairies of the West, twenty cow boys, twenty cow-girls and twenty famous India scouts, besides a herd of buffalo, all of which will unite in giving real stic illustrations of wild western life. They will show how the settler's cabin is attracted and the inmates killed and scalped; how a stage coach is robbed; how a horse thief is dealt with—the thief being captured after a hot chase, lassoed and jerked off his horse, dragged on the ground and finally hanged to a tree and apparently riddled with bullets. Other thrilling scenes will be presented, such as are famous in song and story. This show will be free to everybody. Railroad rates will be one cent per mile, and special trains will be run. H. W. Ayer, secretary, at Raleigh, will send lists and particulars to all who want them. Other attractions will be in the programme during the week. The city of Raleigh will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary. This will be characterized by gorgeous allegorical floats, trades floats, decorative scenes and brilliant illuminations and fire-works that have never been equalled in the South.

STEVE TO VISIT CLEVE.

The Next President and Vice-President to See Each Other.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A special to The Herald from Bloomington, Ills., states that the cause of Mr. Stevenson not hearing from Mr. Cleveland was due to the accidental misplacing of a letter, which was found last Friday among the accumulated newspapers in Mr. Stevenson's office.

It was written the day after Stevenson's nomination and received in Bloomington June 25. It conveyed Cleveland's congratulations. While reading this letter Mr. Stevenson received another from Mr. Cleveland which invites him and his family to visit the Clevelands at Gray Gables. Mr. Stevenson will accept the invitation after he has met the notification committee in New York July 20.

TO MINCE-MEAT HER!

One Crawford Tries to Kill His Wife Sunday.

The News Not Fresh but Good if They Catch Him.

WAS DRUNK AND RAISED OLD CAIN

What J. O. Foy Said on the General Situation in Winston and the Country at Large.

John Crawford, colored, attempted to make mince-meat of his wife on last Sunday. John had imbibed rather too freely of John Barleycorn and he became insane for the time being, and concluded to dispose of his better-half in a pretty rough way.

The axe being the most convenient instrument of warfare at hand, he seized it and began the work of destruction by a blow at his wife's head; however he missed the head and struck the shoulder, shattering and breaking the bones all to pieces. The woman is in a dangerous condition. It is thought that she cannot live. John made his escape and up to the present time he has not been heard from.

The authorities will put forth every effort possible to capture the would be murderer, and the fact that he was drunk should not lessen the punishment.

DEATH OF MR. S. F. ARENDALL.

He was Formerly a Citizen of Durham and Much Liked.

The News and Observer says: On Sunday morning at Wakefield, this county, Mr. S. F. Arendell, formerly of Durham, died after a long and painful illness. He had been for many years troubled with a bronchial affection which grew into consumption, destroying his vitality and finally ending his life. He was a genial generous man, liberal almost to a fault, and was exceedingly popular with a large concourse of acquaintances and friends. He was about 40 years of age and unmarried. For nearly three years he has been almost an invalid, and his sufferings have been intense. His death was not unexpected, but it has nevertheless sent a pang of deep sorrow to the hearts of his aged mother, his two brothers and a large circle of kindred and friends.
