

The office of the HEADLIGHT is now in the "Stanley Building," on West-Center street, near Mulberry.

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

LOCAL FLASHES.

Be sure to read our new ads. Are you going to the Newbern Fair next Tuesday? You ought to by all means.

March is named from Mars, the God of War, and was formerly the first month.

Our city population continues to increase, which is a healthy sign of its future prosperity.

Everything was quiet in police circles last Monday. The mayor assures us that the city is now very orderly.

Nearly every important cotton market in this State have cotton compresses, and it strikes us one would pay handsomely in this city.

Mr. A. B. Freeman is now having a very nice two story frame building erected on the corners of William and Mulberry Streets—the old "gunsmith" Baker lot.

Now is the time to be careful about fire. A little attention to stove flues and chimneys, now, before the March winds set in, may prevent a serious conflagration.

The shelves of our merchants are beginning to fill up with Spring-goods of every description, and in a few days consult the advertising columns of the HEADLIGHT, to find out what they got.

The County Commissioners met in regular meeting last Monday. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the usual large crowd of country people was not present.

Mr. R. E. Pipkin has purchased the house of Mr. John W. Edwards, formerly occupied by him as a dwelling on John street, just in rear of Mrs. Finlayson's lot, and has had it moved to the lot on the corner of Chestnut and William streets, where he is having it fixed up for a dwelling.

The Raleigh Evening Visitor is out in a new dress, and is indeed a beautiful paper. The Visitor is one of the most prosperous papers in Raleigh, and an influential and able factor in the affairs of its immediate territory.

Our friends will please do us the kindness to furnish us any news that may occur—such things as they think would be interesting to the public. We hope to be able to make THE HEADLIGHT a first-class paper in every way, and respectfully ask the citizens of Goldsboro and surrounding country to aid us.

Mr. C. Lieberman of Raleigh, the polite and efficient State agent of that excellent Life Insurance Company, the "Penn Mutual," of Philadelphia, is in the city, and we are glad to learn meets with abundant success.

We were very glad to see on our streets last Saturday, our old Saulston friend, Mr. Ezekiel Smith, whom we had not seen for many months. He told us that he had almost lost his eyesight, and, consequently, could not see well enough to read a newspaper, but when we read to him that local declaring our unwavering faith in the Democratic party, and our undying allegiance to that glorious old party, it struck a responsive chord in the old gentleman's bosom, and he immediately gave us his name as a subscriber.

Wayne Superior Court will convene next Monday—providing Judge Shipp is sufficiently recovered from his recent sickness, to hold it. The Judge, we understand, had to close Wake Superior Court, last week, before the expiration of the term, and return home, on account of an attack of erysipelas.

The quarterly report of our worthy County Treasurer, Mr. J. H. Edwards for the quarter ending Feb. 29th, shows that he had then in hand, due the school, $8,212.63. We are glad to see this healthy report. The rising generation must be educated in the ordinary branches of English, and this can be done without the aid of the Blair Bill.

Whenever we commence soliciting any one to subscribe for the HEADLIGHT, and if there be one of our old subscribers standing in hearing distance, near by, he invariably helps us by speaking a good word for the paper, that his family highly appreciates it, that he himself delights in its contents, and then, by these kind words, he aids us in getting the subscriber. Of course all this is highly appreciated, and we hardly ever miss to enter the name upon our list.

We see the name of our friend, of Greene county, Capt. W. A. Darden mentioned in connection with the Democratic nominations to be made at the State Convention, May 30th, for the office of State Auditor. We would be highly gratified to see him nominated. He is one of the ablest Democratic speakers in this section, and would be a "number one" selection for our party to make. He would be an honor to our ticket, and would add much strength to it all over Eastern North Carolina. We think our section is entitled to recognition by the Democratic party of the State.

Mrs. R. B. Proctor, of Durham, after spending a few pleasant days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Capt. W. T. Gardner, returned to her home on Tuesday.

President Cleveland has got the Republican leaders on the wing, by his manly and statesmanlike course since he has been in office, and, in consequence thereof, the Republican party, all over this land, is demoralized. Democrats lets shoot them down with our ballots next November and give Mr. Cleveland a "walk over" for the white house.

As we walked around the city last Saturday, we noticed many marked improvements going on; new houses going up and many old ones being repaired and repainted. On Spruce Street we saw a very fine two story dwelling erected by our worthy Mayor, Mr. J. E. Peterson, and also some very beautiful improvements on his own dwelling.

The city authorities this week, have had a much needed improvement made on the stone foot-way across East and West Centre street, from the corner of the Griffin store in the corner of the Gregory House, to the opposite corner, where formerly stood the hardware store of Jones and Yelverton, by having new stone put on top of the old stone foot-way—thus making this foot-way several inches higher.

We can hardly keep from mentioning that Mr. N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, in his short address, at the Baptist church, last Sunday night, paid our little city quite a compliment in saying that he believed that ere long, with her push and enterprise, Goldsboro would be one of the largest cities in our State. We believe that cotton and other factories would soon put her up toward the "top notch" in this respect.

Judge Phillips, through the columns of the Tarboro Southerner, characterizes as "an outrageous libel" the statement of the Sanford Express that he (the Judge) stayed all night and drank liquor to excess at the house of defendant, Buchanan, just previous to his trial and acquittal before Judge Phillips under indictment for the crime of fornication and adultery. The matter is likely to assume a serious aspect.

We had the pleasure, last Saturday of meeting in this city, with our old friend and college mate, Mr. Joseph Kinsey—the popular and efficient Principal of the Kinsey High School for girls and young ladies at Lagrange. He was here in the interest of his school, and we hope he met with success in the object of his visit. We have known Mr. Kinsey for 27 years and know him to be one of the best instructors in Eastern North Carolina.

The Smithfield Herald has changed hands with its last issue. Bro. F. T. Booker, we are sorry to say, retires from the "field" and in his "Valedictory" transfers the paper to Messrs. Octavius Sadler and John L. T. Sneed. Bro. Sadler has ample experience in journalism, (editorially and typographically,) he having been the editor of the late Rocky Mount Clipper. The last issue under its new management looks as neat and clean as a maiden dressed to her nuptial. They have our heartfelt wishes.

We were very glad to see on our streets last Saturday, our old Saulston friend, Mr. Ezekiel Smith, whom we had not seen for many months. He told us that he had almost lost his eyesight, and, consequently, could not see well enough to read a newspaper, but when we read to him that local declaring our unwavering faith in the Democratic party, and our undying allegiance to that glorious old party, it struck a responsive chord in the old gentleman's bosom, and he immediately gave us his name as a subscriber.

Wayne Superior Court will convene next Monday—providing Judge Shipp is sufficiently recovered from his recent sickness, to hold it. The Judge, we understand, had to close Wake Superior Court, last week, before the expiration of the term, and return home, on account of an attack of erysipelas. The efficient Clerk of this court informs us that there are 66 cases on the State Docket, with many magistrates' warrants yet to come in. All the cases are of minor importance, except two, one for highway robbery, and one for burglary.

It affords us great pleasure to announce that the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead city has been leased last Saturday to Mess. Beermann & Cooke, who will take active charge the latter part of May. Mr. Chas. Beermann is the proprietor of the famous Kimball House in Atlanta, and who doesn't know Mr. Cooke of the Hotel Florence at Raleigh? The gentlemen comprising the syndicate are to be congratulated in their excellent choice. With such famous men as hoteliers, Morehead bids fair to become the Mecca of the Union.

A MEMORIAL EVENT.

A Outline sketch of the installation of Rev. J. S. Dill.—"We bid thee welcome."

The installation ceremonies of the new Pastor, Rev. J. S. Dill, of the Missionary Baptist church, which took place in that church last Sunday night, were very impressive, appropriate, beautiful and grand. It was more like unto a christian "love feast" than anything we have witnessed in this city, among the Baptist, Methodist, and Presbyterians.

Rev. Mr. Dill then stepped forward and in a very eloquent, beautiful, and thrilling speech responded to all those soul stirring welcomes. He seemed as he doubtless was very much affected by all that had transpired. He then pronounced the benediction, and that vast audience dispersed, under the mellowing influence of that grand old sacred song which shall never die out while there are human lips to sound Jehovah's praise—no never this side the pearly gates:

"Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in christian love The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above."

Each one doubtless feeling that it was "good to be there."

Speaks for Itself. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON Feb. 29, 1888.

Miss Julia Castex: The flowers which you were good enough to send to the President and myself while at Goldsborough upon our recent trip to Florida were received and enjoyed, and I desire to express our thanks for your pleasant attention. Sincerely, FRANCES F. CLEVELAND.

The following is a list of the Jurors for March Term of Wayne Superior Court, to commence next Monday, viz: First week:—W. H. Pate, H. J. Hans, A. B. Freeman, Joel Rhodes, S. D. Hankins, L. E. Edgerton, Chas. Dewey, A. Aycock, Hilliard Amerson, Dallas Flowers, H. J. Smith, Bryant Mazingo, A. D. Scott, A. M. Smith, (col.) W. R. Hooks, W. F. Gresham, W. J. Thompson, Junius Stocumb, A. B. Thompson, Kinchen Britt, Benajah Sutton, O. L. Aycock, Major Howell, P. H. Spence, J. J. Langston, J. C. Hooks, B. R. Edgerton, R. H. Shadding, B. T. Person, J. M. Grantham, William Lewis, C. D. Hooks, J. A. Stevens, Garry Aycock, J. M. Wood and J. S. Herring.

Second week:—Giles Kornegar, David Peel, J. H. Wiggs, J. R. Hood, J. J. Street, John Best, G. W. Best, John W. Isler Jr., L. D. Bass, L. D. Giddens, Jno. R. Peel, John H. Thomas, Wm. Potts, Isaac Daniel, J. E. Hicks, B. F. Whitfield, Wm. B. Stith and J. P. Smith.

A few days since, in conversation with one of Goldsboro's business men, he said to us that he did not subscribe for the HEADLIGHT, and that he would not advertise in a paper which had no circulation worth counting on, that he had not advertised in a paper since the Messenger left, etc. We informed him then, and we repeat the assurance now, that if he had reference to the circulation of the HEADLIGHT, he was highly mistaken. A paper that has on its lists bona fide subscribers in every Township in Wayne, and a creditable circulation in Johnston, Sampson, Duplin, Green and Lenoir counties, surely ought not to fall under his condemnation. All this too notwithstanding the fact, that this paper is only eight months old, and has been published in this city only about two months. A paper that receives at least, 50 new subscribers every week, seems to us to be fast ingratiating itself into public favor. "Every child must crawl before it can walk," and we have every reason to be proud of our child, for though it be only eight months old it can stand alone.
