The finest lot of horses ever brought to this city, were unloaded yesterday for Mr. George D. Bennett, which were shipped to him all the way from Kentucky.
That social hop given at the Armory Hall on Monday night, was highly enjoyed by those present, thanks to that peerless "figure-caller," Mr. "Tommy" Holmes.
The sun is shining, the air is balmy, the birds are chirping, and now is the time for our farming friends to obey that injunction: "Make hay while the sun shines."
Our sanctum was graced last Tuesday with the presence of Col. A. C. Davis, the Principal of the Davis School, of Lenoir, who paid our city a "flying" visit that day.
The Goldsboro Savings Bank, from present indications, promises to become a paying institution. The amounts deposited there since its opening on Monday, are going into thousands of dollars already.
That ornamental Soda Fountain at the establishment of Mr. John T. Edmondson, has begun its activity this morning, and with its delightful flavors gladdens the heart of many a "fellow and his best girl."
Miss Ellie Kelly, of Mount Olive, one of the finest and truest types of female loveliness that we have ever seen, is actively engaged as saleslady, in the confectionary department at Mr. John T. Edmondson's.
Mr. L. H. Castex of that popular firm of M. E. Castex & Co., has returned from the Northern markets, and from the immense quantities of goods he is storing it would seem that he has made heavy purchases.
The handsome residence of Mr. I. F. Dortch, on William street, has recently been treated to a new coat of paint, and it now stands there an ornament to that part of the city—as a "thing of beauty which is a joy forever."
Information reaches us that Prof. E. E. Smith, of this city, the well-known Principal of the Colored State Normal School at Fayetteville, has been appointed by the President, Minister to Liberia, of which we are really glad of, as none better could be found to fill this important position. Cultivated, polished, studious and highly intellectual he is destined to make a radiant star in the educational galaxy, and win a reputation, that will be an honor to his race and a glory to our country.

Easter Sunday was duly observed with appropriate services at some of the churches in this city, and the churches wherein it was thus observed were handsomely decorated with evergreens and flowers around the altars and pulpits, also with mottoes suitable for this grand Feast of Easter.
Husbands, live in peace, love and harmony with your wives—this was impressed forcibly upon our mind, when, on last Saturday, "Col." Jim Jones (cold.) was put by Justice Broadhurst, under a fifty dollar bond to keep the peace toward his "better half" for three months, for threatening to extinguish her life.
If our city authorities would pass an ordinance requiring front gates to swing inward, many a citizen would rise up and call them blessed. There is no sense in a gate being made to open in the street, for one half the time many of them are left standing open, to the annoyance of people passing along the sidewalks.
All hands are busily engaged at the establishment of Mr. John T. Southland, unpacking and displaying the large cases of goods which are daily arriving. Mr. Southland will open his "New York Bargain Store" this evening, and intends to "knock high prices higher than a kite," and we believe it too. He is just the man for the business.
As we passed through Walnut street yesterday we noticed that a new firm has begun its active career, next to the post-office. The gentlemen who have formed the copartnership are Messrs. K. There will be at the Baptist church in this city next Sunday morning a memorial service of Dr. M. T. Yates, Missionary to China. Dr. Yates was one of the greatest Missionaries of this century, and as a native of North Carolina, personally known to so many, this service will be timely and interesting. The collection on Sabbath morning will be for Missions.
Mr. Claus Orndt, International Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association for the United States and Canada, held a meeting in the Missionary Baptist church last Friday night. The meeting was well attended, and after forcibly explaining the workings and objects of this association, he organized a branch thereof with 32 members. This we consider a good beginning.
The unwelcome news spread like "wildfire" through this city on Tuesday, that the Rev. J. S. Dill, the beloved pastor of the Missionary Baptist church here, has been taken suddenly ill, and that his sickness was of a very serious nature. Of course, everybody received the news with the deepest regret, and the most ardent wishes for a speedy recovery were heard from every source. Now, we believe there is something in wishing, after all, for as we called at the Study yesterday we found the reverend gentleman reclining in his comfortable rocker, and requested us to announce that, although in a very weak condition, he thinks to be himself again by time we go to press. About this we are truly rejoiced.

Mr. Joseph Edwards, widely known as the "Champion of Low Prices" left for the Northern and New England States last Sunday for the purpose of purchasing his extensive supply of Spring and Summer goods from manufacturers. He has secured two columns in the HEADLIGHT, and immediately after his return home, he will let the public know what treat he has in store for them.
Prof. R. H. Randall and his wife, have succeeded in organizing a large musical class in our city. They teach 10 lessons for $1.50 per pupil, and in addition will present each with the latest edition of the Prof's note books, the price of the book (75 cents) is included in the price charged for the lessons. The class is being taught nightly in the Sunday school room of the Missionary Baptist church.
The services at the Missionary Baptist church, last Sunday night, were of more than ordinary impressiveness. The Pastor, Rev. J. S. Dill, preached a very powerful sermon on the subject: "The mistake of a life," founding his remarks on the eventful biography of King Saul, and after the sermon the ordinance of Baptism was administered to two young men: Mr. Frank Beaman and Mr. William Hummel. The church was fully filled so that some had to be turned off for want of room.
At a meeting of the County Board of Education held last Monday, amongst much important business transacted, the following order was made important to the Public School Teachers of the county. The County Institute will begin on the 20th day of May next in the white graded school building in this city, and will be under the charge of Prof. E. A. Alderman. The Teachers are reminded that the school law requires them to attend this Institute. The colored Public School Teachers of the county are urged to avail themselves of the advantages offered by the Colored Normal School of this city.
An adjourned meeting of the Business Men's Association of this city, was held in the court house last Monday night with President I. S. D. Sauls in the chair, who explained the object of the meeting to be to complete the organization by electing the additional officers required by the by-laws. An election was gone into and the following were elected:
Judge W. T. Faircloth and Dr. W. H. Cobb, Vice Presidents, T. H. Bain, Secretary. E. B. Pewey Treasurer; Sol. Weil, H. L. Grant, R. M. Freeman and J. E. Peterson, Executive Committee.
Col. L. W. Humphrey addressed the meeting at length, giving his views as to the best mode to be devised in order to raise money, on the most feasible terms, for the purpose of building factories in our city, and these views were endorsed by Mr. Henry Weil, Maj. H. L. Grant and Mr. Jos. E. Robinson, in short and appropriate remarks.
These Obscene Pictures.
We are almost certain, that when reading this, most everybody will be grateful to our city fathers for passing an ordinance at their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday night, prohibiting the posting of obscene pictures throughout the city limits under a fine of $10, for each offense, and in addition a fine of $10, for each day thereafter. Such pictures as were posted last Saturday, announcing the coming of "Lilly Clay's Gaiety Company," are a disgrace to our community, and a disgrace to morality. We cannot be bribed to accept complimentary tickets, for the only purpose to "pull" a company, of which we know very little about. THE HEADLIGHT goes into the homes of every family in Goldsboro, and we would be false to our profession, if we should induce them to see a troupe whose advertisements and posters deserve the utter condemnation of the public at large. Our columns are not open to publish their advertisements on one side and rebuke them in another, as it happened to appear in Tuesday's Argus. No, gentle reader, we are not "built that way."
Important Meeting.
The Board of County Commissioners met in regular monthly meeting last Monday. This was a very important meeting and all the members of the Board were present. Tax lists for State and county taxes were appointed as follows:

Tariff Reduction AND Revenue Reform.
The subjects of Tariff and Internal Revenue are engaging the consideration of Congress, Press and People. Just what the outcome of this agitation will be cannot be foretold. But if those familiar with the prices of Wall Paper twelve months ago will call at Whitaker's Bookstore, under the Opera House, and learn the present prices, they will find reason to conclude that some kind of Tariff upon these articles has been reduced, or abolished.
Now is the time to buy. Prices are likely to advance. Large stock from which to select and new patterns recently received. Call and see.
