

THE HEADLIGHT.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF WAYNE COUNTY

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Feb. 2, 1893

LOCAL NEWS.

Lent begins on the 15th inst.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet next Monday.

We regret to learn that Sheriff Grant is critically ill with pneumonia.

The public roads leading to this city are in an awful bad condition at present.

We regret to learn of the illness of Mr. J. M. Hollowell, at his home in this city.

Yesterday being the first of February, the collectors were on their usual rounds.

New subscribers continue to come in. We already have booked 63 new names this week.

Mrs. M. C. Walker, of University, is in the city on a visit to her niece, Mrs. A. Roscower.

The County Alliance met in called session at the court house yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.

Market men complain that beef is scarce and of poor quality, while pork has jumped out of all reach.

Prof. Eugene Werner has gone to Fayetteville and taken the management of the Singer sewing machine office there.

We are in receipt of the biennial report of the State Library by Mr. Jas. C. Birdsong, Librarian. It is a well prepared document.

Marked improvements are being made within the store of Mr. L. Edwards, preparatory to his removal from Pulaski, Va., to this city.

Our trucksters are taking advantage of the beautiful weather, now prevailing, and are putting the ground in order preparatory to planting.

The organ for the Hebrew Temple arrived Monday and was placed in position yesterday. It cost $850 and is warranted as a fine instrument.

Our young friend, Tom Hyman, is having a commodious house erected for himself at Dover, which means that he doesn't intend to remain single long.

Eggs are still scarce on this market and command almost any price. From eighth and one-third cents in the Summer to 40 cents in January is a big jump.

The fifty-eight anniversary exercises of the Literary Societies of Wake Forest College, take place on Friday, the 17th inst. Thanks for an invitation.

Miss Ella Crawford, who has been teaching in the vicinity of Mrs. A. B. Thompson, near this city, left for her home at Lexington, Tuesday, to the regret of her many friends.

Our townsman, Mr. N. Schwab, has been appointed general agent of the new American line of steamers, to ply between New York and Southampton, beginning the 25th inst.

The death of Mr. John R. Hood, Jr., occurred at his home in Grant-ham's township, Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, after a lingering illness with consumption, aged 28 years.

The champion hog raiser of this section is undoubtedly Mr. A. T. Uzzell, of New Hope township. A few days ago he killed ten porkers, only 17 months old, weighing a little over 3,000 pounds.

We learn from those who know that the chances of Dr. M. W. Parks, of this county, for securing the deputy collectorship in this district, are most excellent, he being backed by several influential Democrats.

As already announced last week, we shall remove from our present quarters to the spacious Messenger printing house. The various offices and printing departments in our new home will be found the most convenient from any in the State. Drop in to see us. We move to morrow.

Mr. Harry Edwards left for northern markets Tuesday night, to purchase a complete stock of millinery and fancy goods.

The marriage of our young townsman, Dr. Will J. Jones, Jr., to Miss Fannie Broadfoot, of Fayetteville, occurred at Wilson, Monday afternoon, Rev. C. J. Wingate, rector of the Wilson Episcopal church, officiating.

Our Register of Deeds issued the following marriage licenses during the past week: H. L. Deshong to Miss Catharine Klinert; Eugene Grant to Miss Hosey Callows; Wm. L. Hudson to Miss Louisa M. Smith; Robert D. Loftin to Miss Clara A. Smith.

The buggy business conducted by Messrs. J. F. Southerland & Co., has undergone a change Monday, by the retiring of Mr. R. E. Jones. The business hereafter will be conducted under the same firm name with Mr. J. W. Lamb, who has bought a half interest, as partner.

We are glad to see the millinery establishment of Mrs. S. I. Griffin open once more and trust that the ladies of Goldsboro and vicinity will continue to sustain her enterprise by liberal patronage. Miss Pattie Foote, to the delight of her many friends, continues as manager.

In a difficulty between Mr. Gray Speight and a colored railroad employee named Jim Moore, Monday night, the latter was shot, though not seriously, by a pistol in the hand of Speight. Both had a hearing before the Mayor Tuesday and bound over to court in the sum of $100 each.

The Newbern Fair begins the 20th inst. and ends the 25th. A special train will leave here every morning at 8 o'clock, beginning the 21st until the 24th, and return the same day. The round trip, including admission to the Fair, has been placed at $1.70 from this city, $1.50 from Boston and $1.45 from LaGrange.

At St. John M. E. church, in this city, on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. Henry L. Deshong of Paris, Texas, was happily married to Miss Emma C. Klinert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Klinert, of this city, Rev. M. D. Hix, officiating. The happy couple left for Paris, their future home, Monday evening, with the best wishes of their many friends.

A good many of our farmers are complaining about the law now prevailing which empowers each member of the Board of County Commissioners to elect their favorite for cotton weigher. They want the law changed by which the election would fall into the hands of the Board of County Magistrates. If any one is opposed to this change, we should be pleased to hear his reasons.

After a short but painful illness, Mrs. Charles Dewey departed this life Saturday at one p. m., at her residence in this city, in the 40th year of her age. The funeral was held from St. Paul's church, Sunday evening at 4:15 o'clock, Rev. B. R. Hall, officiating. Her remains, followed by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, were laid to rest in Willow Dale cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. A. M. Vail, of Newport, R. I., who died at Chapel Hill, Thursday evening, where she was visiting her niece, Mrs. E. Westcott, were brought to this city Saturday evening for interment. The funeral was held from the Baptist church, Rev. J. H. Edwards, officiating. The deceased was 82 years of age and was a native of New Hanover county, but for the past fifty-two years she has been residing in Rhode Island.

Marion Butler's "nigger promoter," alias Caucasian, will be issued for the first time in this city this week from type and presses bought by unclean hands with Republican boodle. Unless Democrats will give the paper, which was moved here for the only purpose to create strife and discord between our people, a wide berth, the calamity may befall us that we will have to harbor the paper and its anarchistic editor for times to come.

We are in receipt of several communications applauding our action in the Brogden affair, but desirous to give this unfortunate occurrence for Wayne county a final rest, we refrain from publishing anything more concerning it.

The Second Baptist church was organized Sunday night with 33 members, who unanimously called to their pastor, Rev. G. L. Finch, of LaGrange. We now learn that Mr. Finch has accepted the call and will at once make this city his future home.

The teachers of the various local Sunday schools met in the Y. M. C. A. hall last night, immediately after prayer meeting, and organized a Teachers' Normal class for the study of the Sunday school lesson. The class will meet each Wednesday night after prayer meeting, and Rev. Jonas Barclay will have charge for the present.

An elopement, in which the bride stole the groom, occurred at Indian Springs township, Friday, the fugitives being Miss Mollie Grady, daughter of Mr. Daniel Grady, and Mr. Robert Walker. It is reported to us that the young lady, being opposed in the marriage by her parents, secured a neighbor's buggy and drove several miles where her lover was at work, and after securing him drove him into Lenoir county, and had the nuptial knot securely tied by Squire W. S. Uzzell.

Board of Education.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Jan. 26, 1893.

At a call meeting of the Board of Education to-day, at which all of the members were present, C. B. Aycock and George W. Langston, were elected to fill vacancies in the Board of Graded School Trustees.

C. B. Aycock was appointed committeeman in No. 46, white, and No. 1, colored.

Nothing further appearing, the Board adjourned.

OBITUARY.

It is acknowledged by all christians that an Alwise Supreme Ruler, who doeth all things well, is above all and He giveth and taketh away, according to his pleasure.

It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst the old familiar face and christian woman, the dutiful and affectionate wife of Mr. John M. Uzzell, Mrs. Annie Uzzell in the 79th year of her life.

She had been a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church for 25 years and was an honor and credit to the Church as well as to her numerous relatives and friends.

She leaves a husband, worn out with age, over 80 years old, three loving children and several grand children to mourn the loss of so good and faithful a friend of them all.

She lived a christian life always and was true to the end, and always put her trust in God and realized that He was God and her only Saviour. She died happy and seemed to be at rest, yes, perfectly at rest in her last hour of sickness. A FRIEND.

POND'S EXTRACT CO.—"Having used Pond's Extract for a number of years, I fully endorse all you claim for it, but have used it successfully in a way I have never known you to recommend it in your advertisements. I have five children, and have used Pond's Extract with each one when teething, simply rubbing the swollen fevered gums with it. It gives almost immediate relief, and seems to be so soothing, and evidently alleviates the pain. Please don't use my name publicly."
