

THE HEADLIGHT.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF WAYNE COUNTY.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., May 11, 1893.

LOCAL NEWS.

The present cold spell is very damaging to the bean and cotton crops.

There are now twenty-three orphans at the Old Fellows Home, near this city.

Mrs. W. E. Lewis left for Durham yesterday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. R. B. Proctor.

A neat cottage is being built for Mr. N. N. Hollingsworth on his lot on South John street.

Mrs. Ed. E. Forstner of Raleigh, is in the city on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins.

Garden peas have been almost a complete failure in this section, some of our truckers failing to meet expectations.

We received a pleasant call Tuesday evening from Mr. W. L. Cantwell, the eloquent editor of the Wilson Advance.

In all matters relating to the promotion of Goldsboro the new city officers will have the hearty co-operation of this paper.

Dr. Wm. Harris, of Wilson, passed through this city, Monday, on his way to Bedford City, Va., on professional business.

Our young townsman Mr. J. C. Eason left yesterday for Midland, Tex., to engage in the stock business. Mrs. Eason will follow shortly.

A fine-silk of a clock used in 1462, in the time of Columbus, can be seen at the jewelry establishment of Watts & Watts, and is quite a curiosity.

Our congratulations to Mr. Arthur Whitely, editor of the Mount Olive Review, in his marriage to Miss Annie M. Pearsall, at Mount Olive, last Thursday.

The new Presbyterian church at Dover was dedicated Sunday by Rev. C. G. Vardell, of Newberna, who was assisted by Rev. Jonas Barclay, of this city.

Memorial Day was fittingly commemorated in this city yesterday. A large number of country people were also present to honor the memory of the dead heroes.

The sounding of the fire alarm Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, was caused by a burning chimney of the residence of Mr. A. D. Ward. No damage was done.

The largest Irish potatoes of the season were shown us yesterday by Mr. Ezekiel Carr, the superintendent of Mr. Asher Edwards' extensive farm, near this city.

Our Register of Deeds issued the following marriage licenses this week: Mark Smith to Miss Dora Newsom, L. G. Waddell to Miss Josephine H. Furrion.

The extension of the Furniture Factory is nearing completion. More workmen and more machinery will be added to the plant to make the supply equal to the demand.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows is in session at Raleigh this week. The Goldsboro lodge is ably represented by Messrs. R. G. Powell, delegate, Junius Slocomb and W. T. Dorth.

A portable prison is being built by the county authorities for the prisoners at work on the county roads. The prison will be transported wherever they go by means of four mules.

The sidewalk between the St. James hotel and the Opera House is in a fearful condition and is a great annoyance to pedestrians. We trust that our city authorities will remedy this evil without any further delay.

The American Newspaper Directory of 1893, just issued, accords the HEADLIGHT the largest bona fide circulation of any paper published in Goldsboro and Wayne county. Here is a point for advertisers.

The Southern Baptist convention will meet in Nashville, Tenn., tomorrow and will conclude its business Sunday night. Rev. J. H. Edwards left here Tuesday evening as a delegate of the Goldsboro Baptist church.

The remains of our former townsman Mr. R. M. Johnson, who died at Asheville, Tuesday morning, aged 62 years, were brought to this city yesterday afternoon and conveyed to Willow Dale cemetery where the interment was made beside his wife.

The appointment of the postmaster here will be made within the next ten days, and it is beyond any doubt that Mr. John W. Bryan will secure the office. The present incumbent, Jas. B. Smith, has recently tendered his resignation, which has been accepted.

The death of Rev. F. H. Ivey, formerly pastor of the Baptist church here, occurred at his home in Augusta, Ga., of paralysis. His remains were taken to Fayetteville and interred in the family burying ground on Saturday.

At the joint session of the Board of County Commissioners and Board of Education, Monday, Mr. E. T. Atkinson, of Fork township, was elected Superintendent of Public Instruction to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mayor Broadbent. The annual salary of the superintendent was reduced to $250, and the office days were fixed for Monday and Saturday in each week. The election of Mr. Atkinson gives universal satisfaction.

We have it from reliable authority that the Alliance-Third party combination, of this county, will in a few days ask for the resignation of Mr. J. A. Stevens, its secretary, and will appoint in his stead that "refractory" apostle, Annanias L. Swinson. It's the truth what hurts!

For exposing that Alliance-Third party combination in these columns last week, the Progressive Farmer, of this week, calls our correspondent, Mr. J. A. Stevens, "a cattle," and demands the proof to his assertion. No doubt, it will be complied with if worth noting.

Several of our subscribers at Walter are complaining about the careless handling of mail matter at that post-office. If Mr. Geo. J. Yelverton, the postmaster, is that anxious to read THE HEADLIGHT every week, we would advise him to subscribe for it and leave other people's papers alone.

Several letters reached this post-office Tuesday night, bearing evidence of that terrible railroad accident at La Fayette, Ind., Sunday morning, as recorded on our first page. A Chicago letter which reached us yesterday morning, has the appearance throughout that it had been next to mud.

The bicycle contest entered into by Mr. Andrew J. Flanner, of Wilmington, and Mr. E. B. Borden, Jr., of this city, from Seven Springs to this city, was carried out Sunday evening, both making the run of twenty miles in two hours and twenty minutes, notwithstanding the road being very sandy.

The marriage of Mr. L. G. Waddell to Miss Josephine H. Furrion, took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Furrion, Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. B. R. Hall, officiating. After the ceremony, a reception followed, which was attended by a large number of invited guests.

Quite a severe wind and rain storm passed over this section Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Howell spent Wednesday in Goldsboro visiting Mrs. D. V. Ingram.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mitchell spent Sunday visiting their aunt, Mrs. Jethro Howell.

Miss Annie L. Howell, of La Grange, is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Mrs. L. S. Benson and the little ones were visiting her cousin Mrs. Jno. Board Saturday and Sunday.

Jethro Howell was in attendance at the quarterly meeting of the Primitive Baptists at Dudley, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Julia E. Howell who is teaching here has been absent from school since Wednesday attending the bedside and burial of the infant child of her cousin, B. F. Scott, near Fremont.

That matrimonially inclined old widower, mentioned some time ago, after swearing revenge on his would-be rival has "betook" himself over the river a courting, but don't say I told it.

Thus far there is no clue to the thief or thieves who stole W. H. Brogden's coat from the house of his son Darius Brogden, about two weeks ago. There were about 500 pounds taken. 20 pieces of his and one piece of his son's.

Misses Nettie and Mary Hollowell, of Lowell, were among us Sunday.

Allen Edgerton came home Sunday from a visit to relatives in Kenly.

Don't forget the contest at Pleasant Grove next Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Joel Lewis, Jr., and wife returned home last week from a visit to relatives in Goldsboro.

Newton Bagley, of Stantonburg, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Sarah Morris, near here last week.

Rev. B. E. Perkins preached at Nahant Sunday at 11 a. m. and at Gurley's school house at 2 p. m.

Miss Nympha Edgerton returned home last week from a visit to relatives in Lowell, Johnston county.

W. H. Edgerton and daughter, Miss Della, returned home Monday from a visit to friends and relatives in Selma.

Mrs. Copeland, who has been visiting her daughters, Messlames Wm. and John Hollowell, returned to her home in Northampton county last week.

Die, near here, last Thursday, little Lillie, the six-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Britton F. Scott. The funeral was preached by Rev. W. W. Rose, of Fremont.

We learn that the neighborhood picnic last Friday on the banks of Little river was a glorious affair. How could it be otherwise under the direction of such expert and popular "pic-nickers" as the Misses Carrie Hooks, Mary Smith and Bessie Baker? "Ye darter" had an invitation, but as "Bill Nye" would say, we were "extremely absent."

For the benefit of the many old students and friends of Guilford College residing in this county, we will give here a part of the program of his commencement exercises: Baccalaureate sermon, Dr. Thomas Hume, on May 28 at 11 a. m. Address to the Literary Societies, Dr. W. S. Creasy, at Charlotte, May 31st. Senior orations on June 1st at 10 a. m., then the Baccalaureate Address by Joseph Moore, A. M., L. D., of Earlham College, Indiana.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss. I, J. C. CHENEY, Notary Public.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for such and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1892.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS.

As Gathered by our Regular Correspondents in the Various Townships.

Pikeville Budget.

But for the rainy, cold weather, cotton chopping would be the order of the day.

P. E. Winstead, J. F. Hoesa and Eddie Smith were visiting in the Pinkney section Sunday.

C. F. Pate, who has been filling a position as telegraph operator at Monks Corner, S. C., is home on a visit.

I learn that Lafayette Eatuman, who was reported so low a few weeks ago, is improving slowly. Hope soon to see him out again.

I am glad to know that Lillian, the little five-year-old daughter of W. L. Pike who had an operation performed on her finger a few days ago, is getting along splendidly.

John W. Rouse, formerly of Goldsboro, has moved here recently and opened a new store which is known as the "Bargain Store." I am glad to know that he is doing well.

Frank Albritton and Robert Lassiter returned Monday to their homes in Greene and Lenoir counties from a visit to friends and relatives in this section. I understand that both are badly "smitten."

Our town election passed off quietly, with the following result: W. H. Ham, mayor; G. H. Flowers, W. B. Albritton and J. W. Rouse, commissioners. The new board held its first meeting Tuesday night.

The appointment of clerk, tax collector, treasurer and policeman, was deferred to a future meeting. The new board is revising and preparing for print a supply of town ordinances.

Walter Jottines.

A. T. Winslow and brother, of Goldsboro, were here Friday on business.

Mrs. Chas. M. Suggs, of Selma, is visiting her mother Mrs. B. F. Hooks.

OBITUARY.

Barney Daniel was born in Wayne county on September 13, 1817, and died March 4, 1893, aged 75 years, 6 months and 4 days. It had been evident for some time that his life was fast ebbing away, but death found him prepared for life eternal. He had been trying to serve the Lord for fifty years. He joined the M. E. church, South, about fifteen years ago. It was largely through his instrumentality and liberality that Daniel's Chapel, on the Goldsboro circuit, was built, which church was named in honor of him. About four years ago he withdrew from the Methodist church and united with the Friends, of which church he remained a consistent member till two years ago. He attended the M. E. church, South, at Daniel's Chapel as long as he was able, and requested that his funeral be held in that church. He loved his Bible and was constantly pouring over its pages. He loved the Lord and was ready when he called for him. Brother Daniel had been in feeble health for several months, but was expecting to be called soon. He told his pastor, a few days before his death, that he was ready whenever it should be the will of the Lord to take him. He suffered a great deal, yet endured faithfully all through his sickness.

He was beloved by all his neighbors. He leaves a wife and two daughters and several grand-children to mourn his departure. His funeral was preached March 4, 1893, by Rev. J. R. Moore, to a large congregation, from Revelation 12:11, "They shall be slain by the sword, and by hunger, and by heat, and by cold, and by the sword of the Lord." etc. He was laid to rest by tender hands to await the resurrection of the just.

At a lady in Jesus, blessed sleep. From which mine ever wakes to weep. M. M. McFARLAND.

Hood's Cures.

In saying that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, its proprietors make no idle or extravagant claim. The advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not done in the bounds of reason, because it is true; it always appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking people, and it is always fully sustained by the testimonials, which in the financial world, would be accepted without a moment's hesitation.

Read the testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla, all from reliable, grateful people.

They tell the story. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.

The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the source of all life, is a very generally attractive department of science, as it concerns so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed to the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to its existence.
