

THE HEADLIGHT.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF WAYNE COUNTY.

Goldsmo, N. C., July 29, 1893.

LOCAL NEWS.

Fishing parties are the order of the day.

The "is it hot enough for you" feud is still at large on our streets.

Mrs. Horace E. King of Tarboro, is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Several of our merchants have failed to list their Schedule B tax. It had not been at once levied, and will follow.

Country people, except melon raisers, are very scarce in town now-a-days. They are busy at home with their crops.

We learn that Miss Ellie Edgerton, daughter of Mr. R. W. Edgerton, near this city, is critically ill with typhoid fever.

The County Commissioners will elect cotton weighers at their next regular meeting. Several candidates are in the field already.

The postoffice at Dudley is now in charge of a Democrat. Mr. Ira W. Hatch having been appointed postmaster last week at a salary of $125 per year.

A veritable curiosity of a twin cantaloupe, grown on one stem, was laid on our table Monday by Mr. J. H. Griffith, the overseer of Dr. J. E. Miller's farm.

We are requested to announce that owing to the short and warm nights the study of the Union Bible Class of this city, will be suspended until further notice.

All road supervisors are compelled by law to report overviews the first Saturday in August. Blanks for that purpose will be furnished by us to applicants free of charge.

Some sections of the county have been visited by locusts lately, causing farmers to fear that cotton and corn will be considerably damaged, if the raling spell continues.

The Governor has appointed our esteemed townsman, Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, a delegate to the Pan-American Medical Congress which convenes in Washington, D. C., on September 24.

The excursion from here to Asheville on August 1st, will be well patronized from present prospects. The round trip fare having been reduced to $1.50, seems to be the main cause of its popularity.

The new passenger train on the A. & N. C. railroad, since Monday, carries through mail for Kinston, Newbern and Morehead City, and on its return trip takes on passengers from these three places.

The kitchen of Mr. G. W. Richardson caught fire Friday evening from a defective fire. Fire company No. 1, had a stream on the flames within three minutes after the alarm was sounded, extinguishing the fire before any material damage was done.

The chairman of the Board of magistrates has called a special meeting of the Board for Saturday, the 29th inst., to elect a chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, which office was made vacant by the recent resignation of Mr. W. E. Kornegay.

Walter Moore a colored railroad hand, who is charged by the W. & W. R. R. with train robbery, was captured in this city Sunday, and carried to the following morning by Officer Herring to Wilmington to stand trial. It seems that Moore is an old hand at the business.

There will be a musical entertainment in Miller's music store, Friday night, given by local talent, for the benefit of the building fund of the Presbyterian church here. The program, which is varied and attractive, will be in charge of Mr. A. K. Pool, who will be ably assisted by Miss Hill, of Charlottesville, Va.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Moore, of Morehead City, are in the city on a visit to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peterson, Mr. Moore having resigned the pastorate at Morehead City, will shortly leave for Rochester, N. Y., where he will enter a Theological Seminary and also will have charge of a Baptist church.

After an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever, Mr. Frank A. Smith, who for the past three years was a salesman at the stores of Messrs. Best & Thompson, of this city, departed this life at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. M. Smith, in Indian Springs township, Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, in the 26th year of his age. His remains were laid to rest Thursday at 4 p. m. in the family burying ground, in the presence of a host of sorrowing relatives and friends. A suitable obituary will appear in next issue.

A portion of New Hope township was visited by a very destructive wind and hail storm Friday night, extending into a portion of Lenoir county. The crops on the lands of George Garber, B. H. Sutton and Howell Garber were badly damaged. Trees were taken up by the roots, fences leveled with the ground and several outbuildings were demolished.

A colored couple, Snow Best and wife, living in Lenoir county, were badly smothered by lightning, the woman barely escaping from being burned to death by the explosion of a lamp, which she was about to blow out when the flash came.

Our city has been highly honored by the resolution of Mr. W. F. Kornegay, as president of the North Carolina railroad, in recognition of his able and efficient services in the past. Mr. W. S. Chadwick, whose management of the A. & N. C. railroad is most excellent, will continue as its president, we are pleased to learn.

The regular quarterly meeting of the County Alliance was held in Stony Creek township, Thursday. It is reported that there was a pretty good attendance. Dr. J. E. Person was re-elected president, and Mr. E. T. Crawford was chosen secretary. Drs. J. E. Person and W. P. Exum were elected delegates to the Alliance State convention.

A colored man named Benj. Yancy, who recently broke into the W. & W. freight depot here, and carried off a sack of coffee, one barrel of flour and a lot of stuff, was "run down" Monday by Officer Denning, brought before Justice Humphrey on Tuesday and committed to jail for appearance at court, failing to give a justified bond of $200.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina State Weather Service, for the week ending last Monday, show that the weather has been very warm and dry, and drought may be considered to prevail at most places. Local thunder storms have occurred, but the rain-fall has been badly distributed and nowhere up to the normal for this week of July (which is 1.38 inches) except at Wilmington, Lewiston and Lumberton. The warm weather and sunshine would have caused greater improvement in cotton had there been more moisture.

The most disgraceful trial ever witnessed in a magistrate's court here, came off Saturday evening before Mayor Broadhurst, when William Overman, white, of Pikeville township, was arraigned on the charge of abandoning his wife. There was some "tail swearing" done for the purpose of blackening the man's character, in which Aaron Overman, a brother of the defendant, seemed to take the most active part. True or not, that he was continually intimate with his brother's wife, he ought to be taught a lasting lesson not to trifle with a woman's character. William Overman was bound over to court in the sum of $100, which he furnished.

One of our young men must either be a great believer in the waters of Seven Springs, or has found other attractions to that place. Be what it may, we would suggest to our friend, not to be so completely carried away as to leave church here-headed on such a "boiling hot" day as last Sunday.

A large crowd in town Saturday made business brisk. Crops have improved very much in the past two weeks.

Miss Cora Watson is off teaching at Henry Ross's, in Johnston county. Prof. W. L. Smith, of Monroe, is teaching a writing class here this week.

Miss Florence Taylor, of Wilson, was in town last week visiting friends. Miss Mollie Aycock was able to get out walking Sunday after a severe spell of sickness.

Mrs. Jessie Aycock is quite ill, but it is hoped by her many friends that she may soon recover. Miss Nona Taylor, of Wilson, is teaching school near town for J. W. Yelverton and others.

Our farmers are very busy this week curing tobacco, and the merchants are more hopeful of better times soon. Excellent rains Sunday and Monday nights. Hail damaged the tobacco to some extent in the Aycock's church neighborhood, Friday night.

Several of our young people took in church at Saleff last Sunday and are delighted with the excellent sermon delivered by Rev. M. M. McFarland.

Rev. Mr. Gurganus, of Goldsboro, filled the pulpit of the Methodist church here Sunday in place of Rev. W. W. Rose, who is in Warren county visiting relatives.

John H. Hinnant left Monday for Washington, D. C., having secured the appointment as watchman in Hoke Smith's office, at a yearly salary of $720. His many friends here wish him well.

Monuments are never erected to the men who are buried in thought. Elder S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniata Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it and was much pleased by the relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by all druggists.

Nothing will do more to improve the looks than sunshine in the heart.

Mrs. Julia Jones and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Stroud, of Goldsboro, spent Sunday here visiting their aunt Mrs. J. W. Howell.

Mrs. M. K. Crawford, of Lexington, passed through here Thursday, en route to friends and relatives in Greene and Pitt counties.

Mrs. E. L. D. Gurley returned home Monday from a visit to her sister Mrs. A. L. Ormond, who is seriously ill at the home of Rev. Ormond's mother in Pitt county.

The smoke house of Mr. A. L. Sasser was entered by some unknown person or persons Saturday night and a large quantity of meat taken therefrom. Those having meat of their own, had better keep a close watch on it, as this makes the second smoke house that has been rifled of its contents here this season.

Our truckers are now shipping grapes in large quantities. Our young people had a delightful picnic at Jones' mill last week.

Mrs. Frank Simmons, of Seven Springs, accompanied by her children, is here on a visit.

Misses Lucy Wilder and Katie McGee returned Monday from Warsaw, where they have been on a visit to relatives and friends.

The editor of THE HEADLIGHT was in town Saturday morning, entering several renewals, besides looking a large number of new subscribers. It is now "the" paper among our citizens.

We had a nice rain with slight wind Monday evening, but hear that the wind did considerable damage in the country, including the stables of G. P. Hall, besides blowing down fences and corn very badly.

One of our young men must either be a great believer in the waters of Seven Springs, or has found other attractions to that place. Be what it may, we would suggest to our friend, not to be so completely carried away as to leave church here-headed on such a "boiling hot" day as last Sunday.
