The Oldest Inhabitant Gone. Amos Andrew Parker of Fitzwilliam, N. H., died Friday.

He had several titles to fame, the chief-est being that he was probably the oldest person in New England. He had reach-ed the truly remarkable age of 10t years 7 months and 4 days, and up to the very last all his bodily and mental faculties were in an excellent state of preserva-tion. He was graduated from the University of Vermont in 1813 in a class of members, the next oldest of whom
