Don't Wait.

If you've anything good to say of a man, don't wait till he's laid to rest. For the eulogy spoken when hearts are broken is an empty thing at best. Ah, the brightest flower now drooping lonely. Would perfume the mountain side. If the sun's glad ray had but shown to-day. And the pretty bird espied. If you've any news to give to the poor, don't wait till you hear the cry of woe in distress in this wilderness. Less the one forsaken may die. O, hearken to poverty's sad lament, & be swift her words to ally: Don't spurn God's poor from the favored door. As you hope for mercy one day. Don't wait for another to bear the burden. Of sorrow's irksome load: Let your hand extend to a stricken friend. As he tatters and aches a life's road. And if you've anything good to say of a man, don't wait till he's laid to rest: For the eulogy spoken when hearts are broken is an empty thing at best.

Finance and Trade.

New York, Jan. 22, 1894. Business recuperation has made further progress during the last week, although the pace of the improvement has not satisfied expectation in any department. The action of Secretary Carlisle in issuing a $50,000,000 loan, and the indications that it will be promptly absorbed by capitalists, have strengthened confidence, which had been impaired by the inadequacy of the Government revenues and the steady shrinkage in the Treasury gold reserves. The favorable effect upon financial sentiment of Secretary Carlisle in issuing a $50,000,000 loan, and the indications that it will be promptly absorbed by capitalists, have strengthened confidence, which had been impaired by the inadequacy of the Government revenues and the steady shrinkage in the Treasury gold reserves. ARP IN FLORIDA.

He is bewildered at the magnificence of the Tampa Bay Hotel.

I saw two fishermen unloading a cargo of fish from their boat at Tampa. The barrels were all marked for Charleston. I interviewed these fishermen and they told me they caught as many as 70,000 in a week down at Sarasota bay. Now I am done with fish stories. I left my folks fishing at Clear Water, but they are not so wild about it now and will soon get tired. I saw a girl hang an enormous trout and she held him and played him around until he got tired and a boat was sent out to secure him. I guessed he weighed fifteen pounds and others guessed twelve and ten, but when he was put on the scales he came down to nine. An old fisherman remarked that it was a sin to weigh a fish, for they always fall short.

Tampa is lively. The hotels are filling up, trade is good and money circulating just like it used to before the panic. Most of this money comes from abroad and is quickly scattered around. Every other house is either a hotel or a boarding house. The strangers come from everywhere up north and many from Georgia and Tennessee. I came down with a man and his wife, who were from north Michigan, and had never been South. I entertained me to see their amazement, for he said he had just put up 180 tons of ice before he left home. They are delighted with the country and with the people. He said everybody was so kind and nobby and that he had no idea of finding such good people down South. I think that his wife was almost afraid to come, but she is in bad health and she had just as well risk the rebels in Florida as death at home, and so she came. She has improved much within a week.

A NATION'S DOINGS.

The News From Everywhere Gathered and Condensed.

Overflowing rivers in Washington and Idaho are doing great damage. Grip is killing Indians like sheep on Pine Ridge Agency in Nebraska. For beating his aged mother to death, John J. Welch is under arrest at Boston. Chloroforming murderers instead of hanging them is proposed by an Ohio legislator. In an accident on the Narrow Gauge road at Cazadero, Cal., Monday, seven men were killed. A Jersey Central train killed John Devany, of Ashley, Pa., Friday, while he was walking along the track. While going home from his store, Friday night, W. C. Clark, of Burton, La., was killed by unknown assassins. Five masked men held up a train near St. Joseph, Mo., Thursday night, and escaped after looting the express car. A cigarette, loaded with powder for a practical joke, exploded and blinded Irvy Harp at Malvern, Ark., on Saturday. In a desperate fight with officers at Mercer, W. Va., Saturday, two bandits named Mullen were killed, with Sheriff Hall. Continued ill health induced Meyer Nusbaum, a Philadelphia book-keeper, to blow out his brains Tuesday night before a mirror. Some unknown person murdered David Monney, aged 66, near Savannah, Ga., Saturday night, as he was approaching his house. With chloroform and prussic acid, H. B. E. O'Dell, a Chicago real estate man, ended his life at Port Huron, Mich., on Tuesday. Burglars raided Courtland, Ala., Sunday night. Every business place was broken into, wagons being used to carry off the plunder. While skating on this ice near Providence, R. I., Monday, John Berry and Philip Nadeau, two boys, broke through and drowned. Battling with four escaped convicts, at Gorthite, Ala., Friday, Deputy Sheriff Dexter was killed, while one convict was fatally hurt. A kitchen stove fired Mrs. Mary Moulton's dress at Shalokin, Pa., Friday, and before help could reach her she was burned to death. Fighting over old family troubles, Milton Bond and Charles Colt, brothers-in-law, of Sullivan, Ill., fatally shot each other Friday night. Three throats were fired at Mrs. William Givens, of Atlanta, while asleep Thursday night, and her husband was arrested for the shooting. Following a quarrel over the small sum of $2, Gustavus Bergerman, of Stirling, N. J., was shot and killed, Friday, by his younger brother, Charles. While being initiated into sixteenth degree Masonry, Monday night, W. H. Boothroy, a Detroit publisher, dropped dead from fright. While out gunning near Newman, Ill., Tuesday, Edward McFall, aged 17, had both eyes shot out by his nine-year-old brother in an accident. A mob captured M. G. Gamble, colored, near Pleasant View, Ky., Monday, and strung him up for criminal assault upon a young white girl. Two little girls were burned to death at Des Moines, Ia., Sunday night. Mrs. Dobson, the mother, went to church and left them alone in the house. For being too intimate with Mrs. James Graves, his cousin's wife, Jas. Hendricks, of Cedar Hill, Tex., was shot dead Monday night by the outraged husband. After three years' silence, Rev. Benjamin Baldwin, a Methodist clergyman, confesses to the killing of William Henshaw, of Richmond, Ind., his rival in love. For killing his uncle, his aunt and four little cousins, almost the whole Kreider family six months ago, Albert Bomberger was hanged last Friday at Cando, N. D. While temporarily deranged, Mrs. Sarah Plummer, living near Pawhuska, O. T., threw her two children into the river, Saturday, and then blew out her brains with a shot-gun. Returning from a spree, Monday night, Walter Phipps, of Chicago, fatally shot Mrs. James McCormick and Miss Alma Erickson in his boarding house and then killed himself. An exploding lamp fired the clothing of the two-year-old child of Mrs. Louis A. Lancaster, at Milwaukee, Wis., Saturday night. Snatching up the child, the mother endeavored to extinguish the flames, but both were burned to death. In his attempt to cross the track in front of an approaching passenger train near Findley, O., Saturday night, Daniel Rodecker, Mrs. Henry Rodecker and Henry Russell were killed outright and three other occupants of the wagon were seriously injured.

NATIONAL CAPITAL MATTERS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20, 1894. Secretary Carlisle has announced an issue of bonds, under authority of the act of 1875, to meet the present necessities of the Treasury. While neither he, President Cleveland, nor any member of the Cabinet has any doubts about his authority to issue bonds, he and they would have preferred that Congress should have provided for the financial deficit, but Senator Voorhees and other leading Democrats in Congress, after consultation and mature consideration, arrived at the conclusion that it would be impossible to secure Congressional action in time to render the aid needed, owing to differences of opinion among Democrats as to what should be done; and advised that advantage be taken of the authority conferred by the old law. The issue of bonds is to be limited to the immediate needs of the Government, thus leaving Congress free to act as soon as it may be so disposed, by providing other means of raising money that must be had from some source. The idea of a bond issue is not a palatable one to the average Democrat, but in this case there was no choice; it was bonds or a default in meeting obligations of the Government.

ALL OVER THE STATE.

A Summary of Current Events for the Past Seven Days.

Two large diamonds were found last week at King's Mountain. The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad went into the hands of a receiver, Saturday. A hole in the boiler of the electric power house has left Concord in darkness for a week. Mormon Elders have taken possession of Anson county and are preaching their nefarious doctrine. At Carthage, Sunday night, the stables of W. E. Black, with three fine horses were consumed by fire. A little child of T. W. Grubbs, at Germanton, Stokes county, fell into a well, Monday, and was drowned. The best farms in Stanly and Cabarrus counties have been deserted by the farmers and their families going West. An aged colored man named Pink Norton, was found burned to death in his cabin, in Mecklenburg county, on Saturday. The dead body of Sylvester Lamb, colored, was found near Burgaw, Friday. It is believed that he was murdered for his money. The store of J. L. Grant, at Wilmington, was burglarized Thursday night. His safe was also entered and $12 in cash abstracted. Governor Flower and a number of other prominent New Yorkers will stop at Raleigh February 23, and will be handsomely entertained. Two illicit distillers of Robeson county were arrested Monday by revenue officers, but were released soon after by twelve armed men. It has been discovered that persons have been making up a fire in the Episcopal church of Morganton at night and playing cards by it. A colored man named Doney Reid, of Wilmington, was knocked in the head there Saturday night by an unknown negro and seriously injured. O. J. Carroll's nomination for District marshal of this district has been confirmed by the Senate. He will take charge about February 1st. A negro named Archie Taylor, a pension sharper, swindled several colored women, of Asheville out of their money last week and decamped.

ARE YOU A SUFFERER

From Rheumatism or Neuralgia?

E. P. Taylor and Solomon Davis speak to Victims of These Terrible Diseases.

E. P. Taylor, of East Nassau, New York, says: "I wish it possible to speak personally with every rheumatic victim, for I would tell them of my terrible experience and the relief and cure I found in a simple remedy.

"When I first saw in the newspapers, 'Rheumatism can be cured,' I was loath to believe it, but when I found that the statement was made by Dr. David Kennedy, of London, N. Y., I inquired into it, and upon his advice I began to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. My condition at that time seemed hopeless. I had suffered for fifteen years with inflammatory rheumatism. My physician said I would be a cripple for life, but it was not ordained that way, for I had not used Favorite Remedy long, before I was convinced that it was the right medicine, and in a short while I was cured. That was three years ago, and I have not felt a trace of the disease since."

Solomon Davis, of North Kortright, N. Y., suffered awfully from neuralgia and loss of sleep, as is frequently the case with elderly people. In speaking to the writer, he said: "I found that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy relieved the neuralgia, improved the circulation of the blood, and the old pain left me altogether."

As one of Goldsboro's physicians recently said, "There is no reason in suffering with rheumatism or neuralgia, for Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure them." All druggists sell it.
