OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

SHIPMENT OF A CAR LOAD OF WILD ANIMALS TO PINE BLUFF.

Regulation for a Murderer—Death From Eating on a Wager—Evil of Proaching—Smoking—The Campment—The Soldiers—Monument Association.

MEASURER BUREAU.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 1.

Government inspectors have been taken on the Governor of Tennessee for William H. Shelton, who is wanted for the murder of Grant Tweed in Madison county, Tenn.

J. F. Harris, Winston; Walter H. Neal, Laurinburg; and W. H. Hour, East Bond, were today appointed notaries public.

Gov. Holt today abandoned his plan to go to Morehead City, and will defer his visit until later in the season.

The railroad men will be much interested today in the shipment of a carload of wild animals to Mr. John P. Parrott at Pine Bluff, Moore county.

Quite a number of young men who were taken there and are thriving. It may be that in the course of years the all-gator may make himself at home in the ponds and creeks in that section.

The biggest excursion of the year will run from Raleigh to Littleton on the 7th instant. No less than twenty cars are to be used on the annual excursion given by the employees of the Seaboard Air Line.

Last night a negro man here ate, on a wager, a dozen green corn and a great quantity of other vegetables. Early this morning he died.

Among the deaths in June in this county was that of a young man whose early death was due to cigarette smoking. Two years ago he was a bright, strong lad, but the persistent use of cigarettes finally ruined his health, affected his lungs to a remarkable degree and gave him consumption.

There is a great deal of interest in the approaching encampment of the State Guard. It is now certain, officers say, that more troops will be camped there ever before.

The new encampment ground is said to be in the order. There is an admirable growth of grass, and the water from the wells which were drilled in May is fine in quality and flows freely.

The Cleveland and Carr club had a well attended meeting last evening. Its members are enthusiastic and propose to have some fine demonstrations later on. The Cleveland baseball team, which has been playing very well, is again to be the club's uniform.

Mr. Frank Stronach is president of the club.

There were four thunder storms last night, and the lightning was very severe. Torrents of rain fell. There is now too much rain for all lowland crops.

Nearly all the supply of jars for jam, etc., have been sent out by the Department of Agriculture to ladies in various parts of the State. In all there will be about fifty exhibitors.

The Fourth of July programme provides for a full day of amusement. In the morning the colored people take part in the various exhibitions, contests, races, etc., and in the afternoon the white people will be in charge.

The complaints against the new before the Railway Commission nearly all relate to rates, and are as a rule quite easily adjusted. Next week the commission will be holding its regular session.

The plan which is proposed to have a grand monument to the Confederate soldiers from North Carolina is a popular one.

The plan here proposed to have during the summer a festival on a large scale, to raise funds. The plan is to have the monument on the grounds of Washington on the south side.

Mrs. Armistead Jones, who is the President of the monument association, is the daughter of the late Gen. L. O'B. Branch. The ladies in the State will no doubt take a lively interest in the work of the association.

New Orleans in Danger of Being Flooded.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—The officers of the steamship "Proboscis" which left this city last night, report that the entire country along the Atchafalpa river is under water.

The water is so high that the river has risen seven feet and the country from its mouth to Port Vincent, a distance of about 100 feet, is under water from three to five feet deep.

Business has been wholly suspended. Mails have been stopped and many families are leaving their homes for the hills.

The crops are almost wholly destroyed, and there has been very heavy loss in growing farm products, but most of the losses are being frittered away.

The principal trouble arises from the Sarpy levee, which has widened 125 feet since last Wednesday, 100 feet being away one time a few days ago.

Heloum crevasse has also widened to 1,200 feet, so that a vast volume of water is now pouring over the country.

The water at Sarpy has risen six inches, and unless the river soon falls it is more than likely that the Illinois Central railroad will be completely cut off.

It is feared that the water will continue to rise, and that it will flood the country back to New Orleans.

Forerunners Outwitted.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Through bad management in a political sense the victory of Foster and the anti-lottery faction is being frittered away.

The defeated McEnery side engineered quietly and nicely, and when it came to a caucus on the judges of the State Supreme Court, the McEnery side captured five out of six.

J. S. Young, chairman of the returning board, who virtually made Foster Governor, was defeated by E. W. Surratt.

The defeated candidate for Attorney General, R. P. Hunter, who was the aggressive leader of the Foster campaign, was beaten by Judge W. P. Blackburn.

John M. Kennedy, who went over from the anti-lottery side to the McEnery faction, was nominated over several strong anti-lottery leaders.

Mr. R. N. Logan, a well known lottery man defeated Frank McEnery, who was such an anti lottery enthusiast that he wrote his position on the bench, he organized hurrah clubs and led the shouting column through the city streets.

Judge Jas. M. Thompson, another McEnery man was nominated over Mr. M. Surratt.

The Foster element only succeeded in saving one man, H. D. Smith, from the Governor's parish, St. Mary.

Chicago Weather at Windsor.

WINDSOR, N. C., June 30.—Dr. H. V. Dunston had one of his horses killed by lightning at his farm near Spiller's Ferry yesterday.

The 7th instant is a very stormy day throughout the county during the last two days. All of the swamps are full of water, and in many of the low places in the roads people cannot travel without swimming their horses.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Stocks in New York Yesterday—The Grain and Provision Markets of Interest.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Any change in the temper of the stock market was hardly to be expected today and dullness was not so marked during the week as if, anything, intensified, while the interest in trading was reduced to nothing, except in a few spots where manipulation by Chicago speculators, the opening took place at insignificant changes from last night's prices, but the drive at Chicago was with its two points, which brought all stocks traded in to something under the opening figures, though, in the face of large shipments of gold, the market displayed considerable strength.

The market during the afternoon sank into the most oppressive dullness seen during the week, but displayed a firmer temper, and early close, except in weaker stocks, were generally recovered. The close was dull and stagnant at about 100. The market for grain and provisions was quiet and unimportant.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Fine weather, engaging crop reports and weak cables caused a weak feeling in the wheat market today, but trade was slow, not only in that, but in all the other pits, operators not caring to take action.

The private pension bills on the calendar were taken up on Tuesday and twenty-eight of them passed.

At 2 o'clock Senator Morgan, who had shortly before entered the chamber to attend to the Senate, was informed that his proposition had been made to the subject of the Silver bill.

He said that he understood that the Senator from New Jersey had withdrawn his objection, and that he did not desire to speak on the bill on account of the fact that he had been informed that the Senator from New York (Hill) desired to speak on the bill.

He had inquired of that Senator whether he had any objection. Senator Hill replied that he had no objection, and that he would probably speak on the bill, but that he did not desire to have the question taken up on Tuesday.

The presiding officer (Mansion) in answer to Senator Morgan's question said that no proposition had been submitted to the chair this morning, although there had been some motion as to the proposition, but nothing had yet been entertained by the chair.

The presiding officer—That motion was taken up by the Senator from Oregon (Dolph).

Senator Vest—And that motion is pending?

The presiding officer—That is the pending motion.

A colloquial discussion between several Senators was interrupted by the presiding officer, who called the Silver bill before the Senate as unfinished business and said that he felt it his duty to call the attention to the bill, and that he had an extract read from the Congressional Record covering that matter and then announced.

The bill was passed and then Mr. Tarney made the customary motion to reconsider the vote and to lay the motion on the table.

Mr. Kilgore raised the point of no quorum, and again the yeas and nays were ordered.

During the call the Senator from Oregon moved to reconsider the vote and to lay the motion on the table.

The motion was agreed to and the yeas and nays were ordered.

At 8 o'clock the evening session was called for the consideration of private pension bills.

CINCINNATI, July 1.—In the Prohibition convention last night Dr. Cranfill was called to the platform and made a stirring address.

Before adjournment a bitter discussion sprang up as to the treatment of colored delegates, one of them a woman, at the Cincinnati hotel. Bain, of Kentucky and other Southern men favored the adoption of a resolution censuring the hotel, and at 2:10 o'clock the convention adjourned. Since the

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Hatch called up the conference report on the Agricultural Appropriation bill and demanded the previous question, which was agreed to.

The previous question was ordered—yeas, 188; nays, 48; and the report was agreed to.

This is the first general appropriation bill which has finally passed the House.

The floor was then accorded to the Committee on Labor.

Mr. Tarsney called up, called up and the House passed the Senate bill granting thirty days leave of absence to employees of the Government printing office.

Mr. Tarsney then called up the bill to enforce the provisions of the eight-hour law.

He explained that the bill was passed by the House on Tuesday, the day of 1868. The bill, he said, extended the benefits of the eight-hour law to all laborers in the employ of contractors on Government works.

It made it unlawful to allow or permit a laborer to work more than eight hours, thus prohibiting evasion in the manner in which the act of 1868 had been evaded and it imposed proper penalties for its willful violation.

After a long debate and a two-roll call the bill was passed and then Mr. Tarsney made the customary motion to reconsider the vote and to lay the motion on the table.

Mr. Kilgore raised the point of no quorum, and again the yeas and nays were ordered.
