STEVENSON AT CHARLOTTE

The Vast Auditodum Filled With Eager Listeners - The Procession-A Grand Speech-The Ties That Bind the Speaker to the Old North State.

CHARLOTTE, Sept. 17 .- [Special.] -- Verily it was a Democratic wave that rolled over Charlotte to-day. It was the greatest daylight demonstration that has been known in this city since the war, and after seeing it no one can fear that the Democracy of Mecklenburg is in danger of being defeated. It was the day appointed for a speech by Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, and the people fairly filled the town to overflowing. Mr. Stevenson's arrival in the city was heralded by the Naval Battalion's howitzer ficial efforts made during the past two stationed on Independence Square. Mr. Stevenson and party reached the city on a special train on the Richmond and Danville road at 8:30 o'clock. They were met at the depot by the Hornets Nest Riflemen, Queen City Guards and Naval Reserves and escorted to the Buford hotel, where arrangement for the reception of the party had been made. The party took breakfast at the Buford and at 10:30 o'clock joined in the parade. It was the biggest line of Demohorsemen abreast, the procession reached, closely packed, from Morehead avenue to Independence Square, a distance of two and the cheering was deafening. The procession led to the big auditorium, where already a great crowd had assembled. The speaker's stand was beautifully decorated. The immense building was densely packed. Mr. C. W. the fact that he was in historic Charlotte; that he loved to speak of that historical event that transpired a short distance from where he now stood as much as any one present, as his forefathers were among the number that gave birth to the Mecklenburg Declaration. He spoke touchingly of those events, but said he came from his home in the great State of Illinois to talk of the fast approaching struggle, the struggle between the Democratic party and the Republican party, and he made plain the great principles that the Democratic party were fighting for. Gen. Stevenson was loudly applauded and his speech reclaimed many backsliders from the Democratic faith.

(By Associated Press.) CHARLOTTE, Sept. 17.—Gen. Stevenson, Democratic nominee for Vice President, was in Charlotte to-day. There was a great gathering of Democrats. A horseback proession a mile in length being one of the eatures. Old residents say it was the greatest political demonstration ever known here. Gen. Stevenson spoke in the audito-rium to over 6,000 people. His ancestors were among the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and he re-ferred to this in opening his remarks. His speech was mainly a defence of Cleveland's administration and a talk on the tariff and the Force bill. All admitted, he said, that Cleveland's administration was an honest The bonds of the Government were paid at maturity and the only question Steers at police headquarters, together with was what should be done with the and in concluding said the Democratic party wages no warfare on any business interest. He reviewed the carpet bag rule in North Carolina and said the Force bill meant a return to the condition of affairs in the dark days of reconstruction. This was Gen. Stevenson's third speech in this State and his work is greatly renewing the Democratic hopes. A circus was here to-day, but abandoned its parade to put its band wagon in Stevenson's procession and postponed its performance until after the speaking.

The whole island of Sicily, he says, is infested with bands of robbers, who capture large landed proprietors and rich merchants and hide them in caves in the mountains until they are ransomed. Farmers are plundered of horses and cattle, while the peasants, who are suspected of being informers, are persecuted or murdered outright. The great land owners living within four hours of Palermo are afraid to remain on their estates unless surrounded by private mounted guards. The band led by a brigand named Somania is the most terrible of all the numerous bandits on the getting Gen. Stevenson to come South, welble of all the numerous bandits on the island. Their immunity from punishment is due entirely to the supineness of the Government. This band has committed many murders characterized by the greatest cruelty. Even children have not escaped the members of this gang of thieves and murderers. They have beheaded little boys and girls, cut their bodies in halves and and girls, cut their bodies in halves, and then thrown their mutilated remains about the country for dogs and hogs to eat. Many landowners, who have incurred the enmity of the brigands, have been treacherously asassinated, while others who have fallen into their hands have been condemned to death by slow torture. The difficulty in suppress-ing these murderous bands, if any really determined attempt is ever made, is due to the fact that a large number of people provide the brigands with supplies at high prices and are therefore un-willing to give any information that would Some time ago the American Consul at Palermo made a report similar to the above to the State Department at Washington.
