FIRST BALE NEW COTTON MARKETED

Mr. J. A. Blakeney Who Has Held the Record For Twenty-Four Years Brings First Bale of 1906 Crop to the Market. Brings 11-1-2 Cents.

Charlotte News Aug. 28th. Mecklenburg's first bale of cotton of the 1906 crop was brought to the market this morning by Mr. J. A. Blakeney of Providence who has held the distinction of marketing the initial bale for the past 24 years.

Mr. Blakeney brought the first bale of the season last year on the 14th of August. The first bale of the preceding year was sold on the 31st of the same month.

Mr. Blakeney stated to a News reporter that he could have had the new bale on the market five days ago but for the incessant rains which prevented picking. He says there is another bale open now in the fields which cannot be gathered on account of showers.

According to Mr. Blakeney the crops in lower section of the county will average but little more than half a crop. The rains of the past few days have wrought serious damage, causing the cotton to rust and fall out to an extent that will materially affect the output of the crop.

RESULT ALABAMA STATE PRIMARIES HELD YESTERDAY

Latest Returns Indicate that Comer's Majority for Governor is Between 15,000 and 20,000. Result for Lieut. Governor is Still in Doubt.

The Result in the Other Offices Number of Candidates Nominated. Three Congressmen Chosen Unopposed. Official Vote Necessary.

Birmingham, Aug. 28.—Further returns indicate Comer's majority for Governor will be between 15,000 and 20,000. The unusual length of the ballot impeded counting the votes greatly.

Result for Lieutenant Governor is in doubt, between Gray, Meader and O'Neal. The race for Chief Justice of the supreme court is close between Weakley and Tyson, with Weakley leading.

Brandon will probably be nominated State Auditor. The Treasurer Julian, Secretary of State Gunnels, Superintendent of Education and Garber, Attorney General were nominated. The alternate senatorial race is between Johnston, Knox and Bankhead, with the chances favoring Bankhead and Johnston.

The leading candidates for Railroad Commissioner seems to be Harris and Henderson. It will require an official vote to determine the result for Lieutenant Governor, alternate Senatorship, Railroad Commissionerships, and Chief Justice of the supreme court. Craig was nominated for Congress in the fourth district; Burnett in the seventh and Underwood in the ninth districts unopposed.

ONE THOUSAND BUCKET SHOPS.

How Shall They Be Suppressed? Merrill A. Teague offers the following suggestions in his concluding article on "Bucket-Shop Sharks," in the September Everybody's.

What Senator Kyle reported in 1898 is more cogent now than it was then, for the 400 bucket-shops have grown to be more than 1,900 and a mighty nation, riding on the crest of a wave of unparalleled prosperity, is daily more headlong in its rush to play the game thieves are operating. But you ask, what is the action the Congress should take? I will answer in a sentence:

Pass an act which will bring the wires leased by the telegraph and telephone companies to brokerage or commission houses, of whatsoever kind, under the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission, with power vested in the commission to verify reports made by the companies and to prohibit the use of privately leased wires by bucket-shops.

For a quarter of a century these companies have been swelling their dividends with toll taken from knaves who have robbed and swindled almost without restraint. The time will come when a parental government will check this. The companies will assert and try to sustain in court, that brokerage-use of their wires cannot be construed as being interstate commerce. Can it? Within the realm of brokerage, wires are leased for transmitting quotations and orders. Quotations are the steam in the boilers of the bucket-shops; without them the thieves could have nothing with which to drive their engines—nothing against which their dupes might bet.

RESTAURANT NEEDS CASH.

Proprietor Has Good Moral Backing, But Must Have Money Support or Close His Doors. Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The proprietor of the largest restaurant in this city has suspended a huge banner in front of his establishment and upon it is the following announcement:

"I have tried hard to give this city a good, clean restaurant, where young men and women could go without the evil influences of intoxicating drinks. My patronage has not been sufficient to make it pay, so I must sell out or close in a few days if I do not get more business. Some of my creditors are suing me and can get judgment. I will pay every dollar I owe if given a chance."

It was a little more than a year ago that a delegation from the ministerial association opened this restaurant with prayer. No intoxicating liquors were to be sold within its walls, and it was to be closed on prayer-meeting nights and during all church services on Sundays.

Despite its ecclesiastical backing the business has not prospered. As Compared. "Speaking of happiness," said the home-grown philosopher, "a bachelor with $50,000 is as happy as a poor married man with seven marriageable daughters."

"Why not?" queried the youth. "Because," explained the philosopher, "the former wants more than he has, while the latter has more than he wants."
